Wm. Jape, residing and doing business at a small grocery down town, was charged with obtaining goods, viz: A quantity of fleur from Messrs. Mackay & Hogg, commission merchants, Water street, under false pretences. According to the testimony of one of the firm, he represented that the property where he resided belonged to him, and upon this representation he testified they gave him credit. In point of fact, as was shown by the record from the office of the Recorder of Deeds, he had sold and conveyed the property for $800, more than a month prior to the false representations that were the basis of this suit. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. Sentence deferred. The Court then adjourned till this morning.

THE SOUTHERN STATES. The Political Uses of Rebel Prisoners-News from Atlanta-What Sherman UNION DEMONSTRATION AND FIREWORKS is Doing—The Peace Conference with A grand meeting of Unionists will be held this evening at Frankford road and York avenue, Third Congressional district. A magnificent display of fireworks will be made. the Georgia Governor-Miscellaneous We have received the Richmond Dispatch and Examiner of the 19th and 20th instant, from which THE PARADE TO-NIGHT.

The grand parade to night, under Col. William B. Mann, chief marshal, will be an imposing affair. The People's Campaign Club of 1860, with as many new members as may choose to fail in the ranks, the Republican Invincibles, with some accessions to their numbers, the Union Campaign Club, composed of the first battalion of returned soldiers, and citizens generally will appear in the line. The committee of arrangements have spared neither pains nor expense to make the affair grand as a spectacle and worthy of the patriotic occasion. The turning point in the southeastern section of the city will be Third and Christian streets, Third and Green the northeastern turning point, the southwestern at Twelfth and Christian streets, and the northwestern Twelfth and Brown streets. the following extracts are made:

ESTADLISHMENT OF A CAMP IN ATLANTA—WHAT SHERMAN INTENDS TO DO.—The Dispatch of the 20th says: Sherman has commonced the establishment of a military camp at Atlanta. The chief quartermaster is directed to take possession of buildings of all kinds, and any cotton and tobacco that may be found in the city. The chief engineer is directed to reconnoitre the suburbs for sites for permanent defences. From our latest Georgia papers we get the following:

The enemy has deliberately established a military camp and despotism in Atlanta. Sherman occupies as army headquarters Judge Lyon's house; Howard is in Herring's house, and Major Beckwith, the chief commissary, occupies James Clarke's premises. Gentlemen from Atlanta report that Sherman is now running eight trains daily to and from Chattanooga: Already many warehouses in the city are filled with commissary, quartermaster, and ordnance stores, and the immonse railroad passenger depot is so crammed with them that the trains are discharged outside of the house. Before the ten days' armistice is over Atlanta will be full to repletion of military stores of all kinds. They are accumulating immente stores, and evidently intend to make a depot in Atlanta, whence they will operate with one of the most formidable armies we have yet encountered. To prevent it from being destructive, as they promise, it is our duty to harass their rear and make the line the following extracts are made: Twelfth and Brown streets. OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND THE OLD FLAG. prevent it from being destructive, as they promise, it is our duty to harass their rear and make the line of communication untenable. This can be done by dashing and daring commands constantly cutting the road and destroying the means of transporta-THE EXODUS FROM ATLANTA. - The same paper prints the following extract from the Macon Intelli-In accordance with the order from General Sherman, the exodus of the inhabitants of Atlanta began on Monday morning. A large number of them have arrived in Macon, and excited by their pregan on Monday morning. A large number of them have arrived in Macon, and excited by their presence a great deal of sympathy and curiosity from their many visitors. These reingees report that a great deal of suffering and distress exists in the city, the general condition of which is represented as being terrible. The citizens who come South are not permitted to bring any household stuff of any consequence, the quantity being very limited, whilst those who have chosen to go North carry what they wish. The negroes, with but lew exceptions, have elected to remain with the Yankees.

The removal will occupy the entire period of the armistice, and as a large number of persons have concluded to go North, doubtloss the removal will continue during a longer period than the truce. We learn that Sherman's order has been extended to all the towns and villages in the military occupation of the Yankee army. Thus he is determined to depopulate and desolate the country in his rear. The people in the villages and towns along the State road being thus subjected to the barbarous command of expatriation, will soon be in our midst or else be sent North, either of which conditions must be a great calamity to them in the present condition of the country. On account of this extension of the order, a large number of people are expected from Miarletta, and the various places above, by their friends, who are awaiting them.

Yankee Policy—The Value of Rebel Prison YANKEE POLICY-THE VALUE OF REBEL PRISON-ERS.—The Richmond Examiner discusses at length the orders of the Yankee general officers commanding the forces at Petersburg, Atlanta, and Mobile, encouraging desertions from the rebel armies. Speaking of Sherman's policy at Atlanta it seems that the settled course concluded upon by our Go-vernment is to entice all the fighting rabels into our lines, while we drive helpless women and chilour lines, while we drive helpless women and children into theirs. The Examiner continues:

It appears that it is now the settled plan of Yankee conquest to crowd within the confines of the country to be subdued all the helpless old men, the women, and girls, and little children; and by all possible means, by fraudulent invitations and promises, as well as by captures in battle, to bring within their lines by degrees all the men who might either work for, or fight in defence of, those helpless creatures. To attain this end, they are quite willing to let us have and keep all the prisoners we can make, though it were five times as many as they have of ours. They have calculated, and flatter themselves they know pretty accurately about what time they will have got to the end of the "rebellion" by this method. They can always bring over European vagabonds, and periodically clear out the prisons and poor-houses of their large cities, out of which force they will let us have five for one, and welcome. While the Confederates may be touched by the compliment—the highest, in fact, which Yankees know how to pay—we may still be allowed to doubt the feasibility of conquering a country in this way; for, in the first place, it is believed that very few of our soldiers will go to the enemy, trusting to any promises or engagements whatsoever. There is this difference, in fact, between the two Governments, that while Yankees will believe what our Government will say, Confederates are filled with such pre-judices that they cannot think of trusting to the dren into theirs. The Examiner continues: ment while Yankees will believe what our Government will say, Confederates are filled with such prejudices that they cannot think of trusting to the most solemn eath of a Yankee. Besides, when this settled policy of the Yankees comes to be understood in our army, it is probable that our soldiers will decline to further it by yielding themselves prisoners at all; and, of course, will also decline to take any prisoners. drowning. prisoners at all; and, of course, will also decline to take any prisoners. And, lastly, it may be presumed that the European pectantry, the very stupidest, wildest, and most ignorant of them, may tire of coming over here to spend their lives in Andersonville or Belle Iste. Andersonville and Belle Iste are getting a bad name in Europe; and, besides, we call to mind no instance of a large country being subdued by turning the whole fighting population into prisoners, or by separating the men from the women, as in a Methodist meeting house." street. Thren the Richmond Dispatch, Sept. 20. ]
There is no mistaking the object of Sherman in desiring to hold a conference with Vice President. Stephens and Governor Brown. It is to detach the State of Georgia, if possible, from the Confederacy, through the agency of these two gentlemen, whom, from their course with regard to the habeas corpus act and other measures, he takes to be at State of Georgia, if possible, from the Confederacy, through the agency of these two gentlemen, whom, from their course with regard to the habeas corpus act and other measures, he takes to be at heart well disposed to promote such a measure. We are confident that he will find himself disappointed in his estimation of these two gentlemen, yet we very much regret that they should ever have advocated any line of policy which a Yankee general can by any possibility thus interpret.

We trust the meeting will not be accorded. It can answer no good purpose, and is designed for no good end. If there were no other objection to it the very fact that it is proposed by Sherman is sufficient of itself to indicate its impropristy. No good citizen ought, especially at a time like this, to do anything which may, in the slightest particular, serve to indicate that there is a difference, in his opinion, between the interests of his State and the interests of the Confederacy. The Governor of Georgia ought at least to recollect that his State was one of the first (the first after South Carolina) to second from the Union, and that if she now treats of peace on her own terms, as a sovereign State, she withdraws from the Confederacy, and leavesfuer sisters the bag of hold after having got them into this scrape.

We make these remarks because separate State action has been agained of late in more quarters than one. The late deplorable peace delusion gave rise to it, and the depression consequent upon the disappointment of hopes raised by it has kept it up. We hope it has not spread to any great extent; but we may be assured that Sherman has heard of it, and that it encourages him to seek this conference. The Constitution confers upon the President, by and with the consent of the Senate, authority to make peace. If a State make peace on her own account she withdraws from the Confederacy. Sherman knows this, and thinking he has his heel upon the State of Georgia, he hopes in this way to bring her back into the Olive to the gallant State corpus act and other measures, he takes to be at will not meet him. It would have a bad look.

POOR YANKEE WHITE TRASH.

(From the Richmond Ecquirer, Sept. 19.]

* * We observe another indication of the degradation of the "poor white trash" among the Yankees. Sherman has declared he will not exchange our soldiers for Yankees whose term of enlistment has expired. Here is even a worse violation of faith than the other. Whose fault is it that the term of these soldiers has expired? Oertainly not that of the soldier. He has compited with his contract; his Government has violated theirs. They owe him protection. They have guaranteed him the right of civilized wariare. They have exacted from the soldier the last day of service, that was due; they then abandon him to the horror of a prison life, without hope of release until the end of a war that daily appears more interminable. Nowhere are the rights or feelings of white men so outraged and disregarded as among the Yankees.

A NEW ENROLMENT ORDER.

(From the Richmond Examiner, Sept. 20.]

We publish an order this morning for the registration of all white males between seventeen and fifty not actually serving with the Confederate armies in the field. The object of this order is, no doubt, to learn whether our armies may not be farther strengthened without materially impairing the productive capacity of agriculture and the mechanic arts. This is an operation at once delicate and important. If the power of exemption and detail has been exercised to the extent alleged, there may undoubtedly be an important economy in scrutinizing the list of indulgencies, At the same the season of seed time is at hand, and any unnecessary interruption of the farmers' labors must tell upon the next campaign, both at home and in the field. In view of this we most earnestly entreat all enrolling officers and examining boards to be earnest and diligent in the despatch of this business. Work day and night. It is much less trouble to you to eat a late dinner, or nod dinner, for a week or two, than for the farmer to ride a plough-horse ei or no dinner, for a week or two, than for the larmer to ride a plough-horse eighteen or twenty miles, to be told he must call again, and to be published a deserter if he is not ready at a moment's warning. Fromptitude is due no less to the Government than the people. Let it be known what is wanted, and who is wanted. Let us expel the tapeworm, and have directness, energy, and despatch. We repeat we do not regard this order as a levy en masse. It is a review, a scrutiny, a purgative of the exempt and detailed list. An increase of our army is rendered necessary by the recent Yankee draft, and we can best meet it by reviewing the indulgencies granted at a day when men were not so important to us. We ask a prompt report on the part of the people, and direct action on the part of the authorities. We think the army may be greatly strengthened without materially impairing our industrial or social interest.

Moseby Wounded.—Last Wednesday, while the gallant Col. Moseby was returning from a soout with only two men, in the vicinity of Washington city, he was suddenly attacked by seven Yankee cavalrymen who were the advance of a squadron. He retreated rapidly until the seven Yankees had been led out of sight of their main body, and then he and his two men, wheeling and charging upon them, killed two and drove the other five back. He then continued his retreat. In this rencontre, we regret to have to state, Col. Moseby received a fiesh wound in his thigh from a pistol shot. He expects to be in the field again in a week or two.

Federal Prisoners.—Yankee prisoners to the number of thirty-seven, but with no officers among them, were admitted to the Libby, from the several points of the war compass, vesterday.

Destructive Fires in Charleston.—A large fire occurred in Charleston on the 17th inst., destroying, about twenty-five buildings, in Archdale, Beanfair, Clifford and West streets. Another fire broke out on the 18th inst. at the southeast corner of Trade and Meeting streets, desiroying two large mansions. While the fire ing the exchange of prisoners. SKELETON OF AN INDIAN FOUND.—Last Tuesday evening, as Mr. John R. Howard was engaged in constructing a road in Dorchester, Mass., he found about three feet below the surface the bones of an Indian, probably a squaw. The bones, although complete, fell easily to pieces on being touched. The teeth, however, were in a perfect state of preservation. With the remains were found a large quantity of beads. The body had probably been buried over a hundred years.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND THE OLD FLAG.
The scholars of one of the public schools, under the control of directors who politically oppose the country, sometime, since purchased a large-sized American flag to be displayed on the school-house, but not for any political occasion. The flag was displayed on the occasion of the recent parade and meeting of the Southern sympathizers. The scholars did not seem to think much of the subject, until the news of the victory of Sheridan in the Valley. Many flags were flung to the breeze in the neighborhood of the school-house, but their flag was folded away in darkness. The subject gave rise to much excitement and discussion. The school-boys know as well as men, that at the rebel sympathizing meeting recently held in Independence Square, there was not an American flag to docorate any of the stands. The intelligent class of scholars are so chagrined at the want of patriotism, that an entire school all at once became the scene of some excitement on Thursday. The copybooks handed to the scholars had a likeness of General McClellan upon them, and the lads with one accord, and, it is said, without preconcertion, refused to write in the books, and returned them to the teachers. Some of the diectors of the public schools are deplorably ignorant. Quite a number can neither read nor write; a few of them are profane in their remarks within the hearing of even female pupils. There used to be in the copy books of the public schools a well-known maxim, chosen as a writing lesson—" Bad leads to worse, but better tends to best." There ought to be a general meeting of all the school directors who are ignorant of the alphabet, and this maxim should be read to them by any one, or all of the patriotic school boys and girls.
