Colored People in the Street Cars. To the Editor of The Press:

To the Editor of The Press: Siz: I perceive in yesterday's paper you chro-nicle other outrages, by conductors of passenger nicle other outrages, by conductors of passenger dars, upon colored people. Another instance of a flagrant character came to my knowledge a day or two ago. A few weeks since a lady, a little boy about eight years of age, on crutches, and a bright mulatto woman with an infant in her arms, got into car No. 18, of the Fourth and Eighth streets, Ger-manhown line, near Arch street. The conductor re-quired the colored nurse to go upon the platform. The lady remonstrated, but the conductor insisted; and the whole party was compelled to leave the gars.

and the whole party was competed to leave the cars. These companies admit persons with disease; per-sons whose breaths are focid with whisky and onions; and the filthy, if there happens to be a white skin beneath. But a respectable colored wo-man, though accompanying her mistress and nursing her child, must be thrust upon the front platform, amidst tobacco chewers, cigar smokers, tho jostling of trunks and packages; without a seat, and at the peril of life; for persons have been killed occupying those platforms. These companies are common carriers, and are bound to make suitable provisions for, and carrying

These companies are common carriers, and are bound to make suitable provisions for, and carrying all persons desiring to ride, who conduct themselves properly and have no infectious disease; and I am surprised at the patience and toleration of both our white and colored population, at the outrages per-petrated upon them by these companies and their officials. A persistent appeal to the law, in a few instances, would bring them to their senses. Is there not sufficient macliness, and sense of right and justice, in the management of at least one of these companies, to put themselves on legal grounds, and be what the law requires them to be-common carriers of all persons, healthy and well-be-haved, who desire a passage? If not, then the law should bring them to the discharge of their legal duties.

I am, sir, yours truly, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28, 1864. W. L. P.

THE STATE.

THE VOTE OF THE SOLDIBR.—Pennsylvania has a hundred thousand votes in the field and in the hospifals which must be polled at the coming State and National elections. In addition to this vote in the army, of men active for duty or confined in hos-pitals within our lines, there are also a large num-ber of gallant men held as prisoners by the rebels, who cannot exercise the elector's franchise. For every vote thus lost, it becomes the friends of the sol-diers and the Government to secure a vole from among those who are halting in their opinions in reference to the issues al stake. There are many men who can be induced by fair means and frank arguments, if apinduced by fair means and frank arguments, if ap-pealed to personally, to vote for the re-election of Abraham Lincoln, but who, if neglected and left to the influences of Copperheadism, will unwittingly allow their ballots to be attracted where they have meither affection nor confidence.

allow their ballots to be attracted where they have neilher afflection nor confidence. This element in the political organization of the Opposition can be wielded to make up for the loss of the votes of the soldiers now in possession of the enemy. The soldiers in the field and in the hospi-tals, to whom facilities for voting will be afforded, need only be reminded that in voting for the re-election of Abraham Lincoln they cast their politi-cal influence, as they now peril their lives, for the defence and the preservation of the Government. In one sense they do more than this. Every soldier who yotes for a Union candidate for State and Na-tional office casts his ballot for the perpetuation of the very principle which guarantees to him the exercise of the elective franchise. The very men who extended the privilege of the elective franchise are those who now sustain the Government, while the men who have organized The very men who extended the privilege of the elective franchise are those who now sustain the Government; while the men who have organized opposition to the national authorities, and who seek a change of Administration that the prestige of re-bellion may be revived, and the recognition of the Seuthern Confederacy secured, are those who opposed the measure providing for the constitutional legality of the soldiers' vote. Hence it is not pos-sible that any true man wearing the uniform of his country, and serving beneath the banner of freedom, can be so recreant to them, and so false to himself, as to vote for those who are his enearlies as well as the foces of his country. While the loyal vote at home will be ample to decide the great political contests approaching in Pennsylvania, we want the vote of the Soldier to add glory to the victory we in-tend to achieve. Harrisburg Telegraph. Exorrise CHASE AFTER A LOCOMOTIVE.-On Saturday, the 16th inst., says the Indiana (Penna.) American, an engine on the Pennsylvania (Penna.) American, an engine on the Pennsylvania failtoad, which had been supplied with fuel and water, pre-paratory to taking a train west, got loose from the hostler, and ran up the south track like a streak, snorting and panting as if giving challenge for a race. Engineer Black, with the engine of the fast line, was despatched at once on the north track in pursuit of the fugitive, and she, being a faster animal; caught up with the engine of the switch turned, so as to throw her off the track in case she reached that point. ATTEMPTED ROBBERY, -- An outrageous attempt at robbery occurred at the house of Mr. Henry Strauss, in Woodcock township, Grawford county, on Saturday evening last. About eight o'clock a knock was heard at the door, which was answered by Mrs. S., who, upon opening it, was seized by two men, who attempted to gag her. Her screams brought her husband to the door, who was knocked down and severely, if not fatally, lojured. A de-mand was then made for money, and a search was being undertaken, when the passage of a wagon

THE CITY. MILITARY. PUBLIC RECEPTION OF THE 104TH REGI-

PUBLIC RECEPTION OF THE 104TH REGI-MENT. This veteran regiment, the lotth of the Pennsylva-nia line, under command of Col. W. W. H. Davis, who was wounded in the right hand in a recent battle, had a public reception yesterday afternoon by the committee of City Councils and the Henry Guards, accompanied by Douglass' Liberty Band. This re-giment was early in the service of the country, and at the battle of Fair Cakes fought desperately against great numbers of rebels, and was finally forced back because of the overwhelming number of the enemy. The regiment belonged to Gen. Casey's division, and in reference to the repulse, it will be remem-bered that General McClellan, then in command of the Army of the Potomac, in a despatch refer-ring to the battle thus inaugurated by the gallant lotth, said "that General Casey, for some unknown cause, was driven back." The veterans on parade yesterday can correct that page of history. Since the arrival of the veterans, on Sunday, they were quartered at the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon. Their arrival was rather unexpected, and, consequently, no public reception was given them upon arrival. The event was, therefore, fixed for yesterday direnced. yesterday afternoon. The Henry Guards, under command of Captain yesterday atternoon. The Henry Guards, under command. of Captain John Spear, and the Reception Committee of Coun-cils, F. G. Wolbert, chairman, with members of the press, proceeded to the Union Refreshment Saloon. The band performed several patriotic airs, after which the men were drawn up in line by sections. Mr. Wolbert briefly welcomed the returning regiment, and introduced Col. Wm. F. Small, chief cilerk of Council. He delivered a brief and eloquent speech of welcome to the heroes of the war. He was briefly replied to by Colonel Davis, who said that, in sus-taining the honor, power, and glory of the country, the credit is due to the enlisted men. A salute was fired from Fort Brown, and the line of march was taken up to the music of 'Johnny comes marching home?' in the following order: Henry Guards, Captain Spear. Committee of Councils and Members of the Press, in carriages. The streets were lined with spectators all along the route as published in The Press yesterday morn-ing. At Third street and Washington avenue, the belies of the carriage of the Southwark Steam Fire Company were rung during the passing of the Marion Hose at Passyank road and Fifth street, and also by the Good Intent Hose on Spruce street, above Sixth. At Fifth and Spruce streets, a ragged-looking boy stood with an armload of guidons labelled Mc-Olellan and Pendleton. He offered them to the soldiers, but not one was accepted. All along the route ladies wave their handkerchlefs or American

At Filth and Spitco should of guidons labelled Mc-Olellan and Pendleton. He offered them to the soldiers, but not one was accepted. All along the route ladies waved their handkerchiefs or American flags from their windows, and oceasionally cheers of welcome were shouted by crowds on the side-walk. When passing by the Union Campaign Club on Chestaut street, above Sixth, they were enthu-stastically cheered ; when passing by the Keystone Olub headquarters all was as silent as the isolated graves of many of the contrades of the 104th. The parade passed in full review of the constituted au-thorities at Fifth and Onestnut streets. After passing over the remainder of the route, the vete-fars were again received at the Refroshment Saloon, evidently weil satisfied with the welcome home tevent of the afternoon. We may here state that the Henry Guards made a very creditable appearance; but in a city like this, with such a large provest guard, the public think there ought to be a much larger military dis-play on the occasion of the return of veterans from the field. All that is required is that some one having authority should give shape to the proceed-ings, and the moving pageant would not only be more attractive, but more satisfictory to the loyal people of a great city like Philadelphia. THE COLORED TROOPS. The 127tBU, S. C. T. will leave Camp William Fenn this morning, for General Butler's depart-ment. They will make a street parade previous to their departure. Col. Given, of the readquarters in Chestnut street, yesterday, a son of Gen. Bragg, for the Confederate army, was enlisted. He is of light complexion, and those in charge of the headquarters have abundant evidence that he is a descendant of Gen. Bragg. He may be considered evidence of miscegenation, as practiced among the chivalry. A MERITED TRIBUTE.

-----GENERAL NEWS.

JOHN BROWN'S SON - The Sandusky Register says: "John Brown, a son of the great Ossawato-mie Brown, of Harper's Ferry fame, lives on Put-in-Bay Island, where he is engaged in the grape culture. Being among the first of the patriots of the Island to discover the rebel conspiracy to re-lease the rebel prisoners on Johnson's Island, he at once manned a boat, armed the crew to the teeth, and set sail by a roundabout way for Ottawa City-in order to avoid failing in with the pirates-to give information to the commander of the post of Johnson's Island of the seizure of the Philo Par-sons. He arrived at Ottawa City about dark, and sons. He arrived at Ottawa City about dark, and from there footed along the abore to Fox's Dock, ar-riving about daylight the next morning."

from there tooted along the shore to Fox's Dook, ar-riving about daylight the next morning." How MOSEEY WAS WOUNDED.—The Washington Republican says: "On Thursday, September 15th, a portion of the 13th New York cavalry started from their quarters, at Falls Ohurch, on a scout, with three days' rations. After scouting for six days, living on the enemy's country, they heard of Mose-by's whereabouts. The commanding officer of the 13th cauged a number of his men to disguise them-selves as guerillas. "This party came up with Moseby, who was en-threly taken in by the ruse, near Contreville. They advanced leisurely towards him, and when within firing distance commenced discharging their re-volvers. Moseby and his party returned the fire. As Moseby was in the act of raising his pistol to fire, — Smith, a private of the 13th, took delibe-rate aim and struck the pistol on Moseby's left side, the ball gliding off and entering his groin. At the same instant he dropped his arms, wheeled his horse, and galloped away. He was able to ride about a mile, but, becoming weakened by the loss of blood, he concealed himself and party in one of his numerous lurking places until out of danger, and then was placed in an ambulance and sent on to Richmod. This is the second time that Moseby has been wounded by the 13th. It is supposed that his present wound, if not moreal, will incapacitate him from ever taking the saddle again." address: The FACTS.—The First ward, recently liable to the Government for nearly one thousand men, still owes about one-half that number, and must scon, in some way, meet the demand. To obtain these men as volunteers, at the present time, fifty thousand dol-lars will be necessary. Offizens are now zealously engaged in procouring means and men, and steps are about to be taken to secure a short respite. A few months since, in the Convention of ward delegates respecting the draft, it was unanimously resolved that citizens generally be appealed to in behalf of the First and the three other lower wards of the city, on the basis of just compensation, inasmuch as these wards had furnished, first, an immense number of operatives, by whom the wealth of citizens re-siding elsewhere had been greatly increased; and, secondly, a very large number of volunteers to richer wards offering great and tempting bounties. Now, fortunately, the three other wards, greatly to the First, and by far the most extensive and needy ward, all the advantages to be derived from this re-solution. The last fact to be named is, that an in-tense sympathy for this struggling ward is known to be very generally feit. THE REOPOSITIONS.—First. That all persons dis-posed to render assistance forward their names and the amount subscribed to Mr. Charles Humphreys, 1813 South Tenth street, or Mr. Thomas A. Barlow; treasurer, 1332 South Fifth street, and that any citi-zens who will kindly undertake the task, whether they belong to the First or other wards, obtain and forward (not the money), but subscriptions for collec-tion. Second. That any person not liable to the draft
