RESULTS OF THE ELECTION.

The general results of the Pennsylvania election are clearly summed up in the brief but emphatic Address of the Union State Central Committee, which we print to-day, and which clearly show, not only that the State thoroughly sustains the Administration, but that in November it will overwhelmingly defeat the candidates of the Chicago Convention.

McClellan has not the slightest chance of obtaining the electoral votes of Pennsylvania, and of the three States which voted on Tuesday, the strongest effort of his party was made in this. Mr. Lincoln's re-election is a conceded fact, even among those politicians who most bitterly oppose it. Indiana, by her great and unexpected majority, settled that question.

The significant fact that the increased energy with which the war has been conducted has stopped the issuing of thoughts to our soldiers, and that twenty-three thousand of our voters have recently joined the army, are pointed out in the address. The votes of all these soldiers are not lost, though the commissioners to Sumner's army did fail to reach it, but will soon be officially stated. Out of 3,890 soldiers in Grant's army, 3,791 voted the Union ticket.

Many regiments have not been heard from. It is plain that the Democratic party does not supply a large proportion of volunteers, or that Democrats in the army are not there long before they give up their political prejudices for the sake of national principles.

The address of the Committee indicates increased energy and more perfect organization. It is only by a renewed effort that the Democratic gains in Union counties can be reduced, and it must be made. Lancaster must have been astonished at the official return of her vote; we do not think the losses unfortunate, for it must teach the people the danger of over-confidence, and the folly of those who allow local jealousies to interfere with public duties.

The Soldiers' Votes.—A man does not lose his citizenship when he becomes a soldier. On the contrary, when he takes up arms to defend the integrity of his country, to maintain its Constitution, to preserve the dignity of its laws, he is, if possible, more of a citizen than ever.

The average vote of the soldiers may be estimated at seven to one. For one soldier who voted in favor of the pseudo-Democratic policy of dishonorable peace, seven voted in favor of the Union policy of continuing the war as the surest, speediest, and most certain means of establishing the Union. It was anticipated by the peace-Democratic leaders that at the name of McClellan "Athelete of the Union-true" of the London Quarterly—an immense majority of the soldiers would vote for the candidates with whom he contented.

It is through war only that peace can honorably be obtained. The soldiers' vote on Tuesday, in three great States, emphatically and unequivocally says the war must be carried on to the complete subjugation of the rebel States.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The following is the official result of the election for President and Vice-President, and for members of Congress, in the State of Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, Oct. 12, 1864.

THE ELECTIONS.

ADDRESS OF THE UNION STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Pennsylvania Against Dishonorable Surrender. BOTH BRANCHES OF THE LEGISLATURE CARRIED BY THE UNION. A GAIN OF FIVE CONGRESSMEN. THE SOLDIERS' VOTE COMING IN. IT IS EMPHATICALLY AGAINST McCLELLAN. $5,000 UNION MAJORITY IN OHIO. ONLY TWO DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMEN ELECTED. GOOD NEWS FROM MARYLAND.

GEN. JOHN A. MCCLELLAN is, contrary to his long-expressed friendship for the President, out in a weak letter for McClellan. He could not do this without paying a personal compliment to that generous man who gave him all the importance he has ever had during the war.
