Thomas Township, Franklin County, Pa., August 8, 1863. About five years ago I was taken with a severe cold, which gradually passed away, leaving my throat in an inflamed and irritable condition. I applied to an Allopathic Physician, but without any relief. My general health also failed, with symptoms of Consumption. I commenced taking medicine, and was under the medieal treatment of five different physicians (also used Paent Medicines), but received no relief. My throat continued growing worse, and my general health continued to fail. In April, 1863, I addressed a letter to a physician in New York, that I had been taking medicine from, enclosing five dollars for medicine. Soon after dropping the letter in the office, I heard of Dr. Brown, Electrical Physician, I concluded to call, and, after the other with the content of the dropping the letter of the dropping the letter of the content of the dropping the letter of the dropping th hearing his explanation of my disease and mode of treating, I had the letter taken from the post office, and concluded to go under his treatment; and can say, after roing through his course of treatment.
