THE PRESS.-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1864.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Gold fell yesterday fourteen per cent, from the highest roint it reached on Monday. It was not difficult to assign a reason for so serious a tumble; the army news spoke for itself, and carried terror into the midst of the spoke for itself, and carried terror into the must of the speculators. The retreat of Hood, and other encou-raging intelligence from all parts of the military hori-zon, showed clearly that the operators for a rise had miscalculated the chances, and overestimated their strength. The combination was doubtless a strong one, strength. The combination was doubtless a strong one, but it was not strong enough to bid defiance to military successes. The stock market was irregular, and less active than on the previous day. Government loans were somewhat depressed, and sold at a decline; the ISI loan at 105%; and the 5 20s; coupons off, at 101%. Certificates of indebtedness were unchanged, selling at 95. State securities were firmer. State 55 ad-vanced ½, and the war loan 65 (coupons) sold at 10.5%. City 65 were active at better prices. Old city 68 ad-vanced ½, and the new ½. Company bonds were quite neglected. Allegheny County coupon fives sold at 17.9. neglected. Allegheny County coupon fives sold at; 79. Reading shares opened at a decline of 1, but afterwards this was partially recovered, and the last sale reported this was partially recovered, and the increase a second average of the second s decline of 1: Canden and Amboy at 160, and Northern Central at 61.
