The hull of the vessel was started open, and in a very few minutes after the accident she sank in the draw-of the bridge in about fourteen feet of water. She was partially loaded with beef, flour, and high wines, and was en route for her own dock, near Clark street bridge, to complete her cargo. The cause of the explosion cannot be ascertained, nor can the damage yet be estimated. KIND WORDS FROM SWEDEN.—I cannot but be-lieve, with you, that this war is providential, and, after its worst is done, its woes are past, will serve as a baptism for a new and higher life. A baptism of blood, it is true, and terrible it is; but the grace of God will turn the very wounds, to eyes which see His will, to fountains of sympathy and charity. God bless America! My heart is there now more than ever; and were I younger I would be there soul and body, and mix among those who take care of the sick and wounded. But I am old, and shall hardly ever more cross the Atlantic, except with my warm wishes.—Frederika Bremer. NATURAL PHOTOGRAPHY.—Three men. last month, were gathering pears in Nivelle, France, when the lightning struck the tree, and killed one man on the spot, as also a dog standing near him. The other two men, who were in the tree, were knocked down by the shock, and remained for some time on the ground insensible. On examining one of the men, an impression of the branches and foliage of the pear-tree was found distinctly printed on his breast. To the Editor of The Press : To the Editor of The Press: Sir: Would it not be well for the Philadelphia rallway companies to run every third or fourth car for half fare? These cars could have the words "Second Class" painted on them, and those who are afraid to ride with respectable colored persons might avoid them. This plan would, at all events, prevent any repetition of the many outrages upon persons who, although colored, are still human beings, and perhaps (as in a recent instance) women. I am, sir, yours, truly, F. H. W. An ecclesiastical objection has been suggested to the contemplated marriage of the King of Greece. J. W. BRADLEY'S

PATENTED DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STREL SPRING

SKIRTS.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible, and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibility, to place and fold the skirt when in use assasily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and eslonces the only objection to hoop skirts, viz: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies: carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place, from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely/removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade, or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable, and economical skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this city and throughout the different States.
                                                                                                                               J. W. BRADLEY'S

GROVER'S GRAND

GERMAN OPERA. SEASON OF TEN NIGHTS ONLY.

(Positively limited by engagements to the nights ar-nounced, and cannot be extended; nor can any further esson of Grand Opera be given during the fall and winter in this city:) The Director regrets that engagements, embracing all of the principal Academies and Theatres in the East. West, and at New Orleans, prevent the possibility of another season or extending the present one during the entire coming term of his contracts and the existence of the present organization. The Director takes especial pleasure—returning to the field of the first triumphs of German Opera in America

THE LARGEST AND MOST PERFECT

GERMAN OPERA COMPANY

IN THE WORLD. Many of the lovers of German Opera in this city are familiar with the history of the Grand German Opera.

Company since he has assumed the Direction, which has been one of uninterrupted success; and at the Academy of Music, New York, and the Academy of Music, Boston (where the Company is still engaged), the success has transcended anything hitherto attained by Grand Opera in America. His especial envoy, Mr. ADOLPH BIRGFELD, has parsed the spring and summer at the principal courtcities of Europe, engaging for this season several NEW ARTISTS, purchasing for the Director A LARGE AND EXPENSIVE WARDROBE, and OPERAS new to the merican stage. The following artists, eminent in Garman and Italian
