IDOLATRY: IN THE UNITED STATES.—It is said that we have in the United States 50,000 heathens. Idol gods are worshipped in two heathen temples in San Francisco. The Baptists have erected chapels in both San Francisco and Sacramento, and some of those converted have already commenced preaching. The Presbyterians have an American missionary and two Uninese helpers. The Chinese have large colonies scattered all over California, and the work of their evangelization is an inviting one for Christians of every sect.

Congregational churches in Connecticut is 224, and the aggregate of members is 45,614, about 10 per cent. of the population. There are 167 pastors, 50 other stated preachers, and 106 ministers without charge. As showing the regard paid to infant haptism, it appears that, for the last five years, 10 churches, averaging 63 members, have not had an infant "baptized;" 7 churches, averaging 58 members, have each baptized two children in five years; 55 churches, averaging 113 members, have baptized, on an average, one child a year, and so on. Two or three of the larger and more prominent churches have averaged 12, 13, or 14 infant baptisms yearly; but with the remainder the number amounts only to a mere "sprinkling," sure enough.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Oct. 25, 1864

SIR: It having been represented to the Secretary that there is an impression obtaining that a decision is about to be promulgated by this department to the effect that the old 7-30 notes will be received in payment of duties, he directs me to transmit the enclosed copy of a letter addressed to Elliott F. Shepard, and to add that that decision is final. Very respectfully,

GEO. HARRING TON. Assistant Secretary.

To John A. Strwart, Assistant Treasurer, New York.

SIR: I am in receipt of your letter of September 21, in which you suggest, on behalf of yourself and clients, that the question whether the notes of the issue of 1851, known as seven thirties, are receivable for duties, be referred for decision either to Judge Betts, of the United States District Court, or to the Attorney General. In the discharge of my official duties I have already found it necessary to examine and consider fully the subject here presented, and have formed and repeatedly expressed the opinion that these notes are not so receivable.

Respectfully, W. P. FESSENDEN,
Secretary of the Treasury. Markets. There were on the 30th of September notes of this denomination outstanding to the amount of $25,410,400, this week, owing to the rise in gold and foreign ex-change, and prices generally have had an upward the remaining portion of the original issue of $150,000,000 having been converted inlosis: per cent. bonds or redeemed in currency. These are convertible or redeemable at any time, but as a part of the whole reached change, and prices generally have had an upward tendency, with a little more disposition to operate. Bark is scarce and firmly held. Flour is scarce at former rates. Wheat, Corn, and Oats have advanced. Cotton is rather firmer, but there is not much doing. Coal is rather firmer. Coffee is more active, and prices are rather better. Fish and Fruit are without change. The Iron market continues dull at about former rates. Molasses is frumer. Naval Stores are without any me their maturity on the 19th of August and the remainder on the 1st of October, they have ceased to bear go'd interest, but are entitled to six per cent. interest in currency till after the expiration of three months' notice of its discontinuance. The fact that the Treasury notes in question were issued under the same act, namely, that Molasses is firmer. Naval Stores are without any material change. Petroleum is ccarce, and prices are rather better. The Provision market continues very firm, but the sales are limited for the want of stock. of July 17, 1881, as the 60,000,000 of gold demand notes, bearing no interest, which have been received for cus-toms duties, has drawn some strong expressions of opi-nion from the holders of the farmer, and the constitutionanon from the holders of the firmer; and the constitution-ality of the law of Feb., 1862, has been seriously ques-tioned. All of the seven-thirties, excepting about thir-teen millions, were bought at par and paid for in specie, and the intention of Congress, when it authorized their issue, may have been that they should be redeemed in coin at the expiration of the three years for which they were to run; but the act of 1862 clearly showed that this intention no longer existed for meanwhile the learning intention no longer existed, for meanwhile the legal-tender act had changed the aspect of the case; and, as there was no mention in the act of 1861 to the effect that binding upon the Government to that effect. The "old demand notes" were made on their face "receivable for all public dues," which was not the case with the others, and hence, as a point of constitutional law, it would have to be decided in favor of the Government; and Mr. Fessenden has acted in strict conformity with the law of Congress in his decision contained in the above letter on the subject.

Con the back of the new national five hundred dollar notes is the 'surrender of Burgoyne, '' copied from the painting in the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington. On one end of the face is a design representing civiliza-tion, and on the other end is represented the arrival at New York of the steamship Sirius, which crossed the Atlantic ocean in 1839.
