We do not return anonymous communications. We do not return anonymous communications. We do not return anonymous communications.

Voluntary contributions are solicited from all parts of the world, and especially from our different military and naval departments. When used, it will be paid for.

Georgia.

The rebel Governor Brown's message, read to the Legislature of Georgia on the 3d inst., contains an important statement regarding the policy of the rebel Government. It is a full and complete exposure of the rebel compact this must be an admitted truth for nothing is clearer than that the rebellion is based upon the right of secession and State sovereignty.

Washington, Nov. 14, 1864. THE NEW SEVENTY-THREE LOAN. The Treasury Department is still sending out copies of the report of the Secretary in relation to the seventy-three loan. The subscription to this loan last week amounted to nearly $5,000,000.

THE TRIAL OF COLONEL NORTH. The trial of Colonel North, New York State Agent, is now in progress. Several witnesses were examined, but nothing of special interest was elicited.

THE 54th MASSACHUSETTS REGIMENT. (It is well known that the 54th Massachusetts Regiment was organized in many months before the commencement of the war.) They remembered their services on the battlefield, and believed that the Government should not forget them.

THE VOTE IN WEST VIRGINIA AND KANSAS. Latest Official Returns in Pennsylvania. ESTIMATED VOTE FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

LETTER FROM "OCASIONAL." WASHINGTON, Nov. 13, 1864. Looking out upon the capital of our rescued country on this bright Sabbath morning, I recognize in it the symbol of the peaceful triumph of the people at the ballot, and the peaceful submission of their opponents to the wonderful majorities that secure the re-election of President Lincoln.

Gen. McClellan realizes, as they must realize, the sincerity of Abraham Lincoln's professed, but unacted upon, and they, in fact, will compare their own weak and dreadful sufferings—their own cramped and weakening resources—their own compelled submission to the tyrants that first betrayed and then ruled over them—with the repeated profers of peace and forgiveness of the re-elected head of the Federal Government.
