Brigadier General Bailey. PRESENTATION OF A SWORD TO THE ENGINEER OF THE RED RIVER DAM. The naval officers under command of Admiral Porter recently subscribed to a fund for the purchase of a sword for General Bailey, whose extraordinary engineering operations released our fleet on Red river. The New Orleans papers publish the Correspondence between Admiral Porter and the General. The admiral wrote under date of Georgetown, D. C.; September 18, a highly complimenta-ry letter to General Bailey, tendering him the sword and the thanks of himself and the naval offi-Sers of the expedition, to which the General has made the following reply: HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF WEST FLORIDA, BARRANCAS, Oct. 23, 1864.

David D. Porter, Rear Admiral U. S. Navy: David D. Porter, Rear Admiral U. S. Navy:

Dean Sir: Your favor of the 18th ultimo was kindly forwarded by E. D. Townsend, assistant adjutant general, and is just at hand.

Throughout this war I have ever felt the importance of the army and navy working in unison, and my personal efforts have always been directed, where circumstances would admit to the furtherance of good feeling between both. Very much of the success in Red river is attributable to yourself and efficers, and to the right good will in which army and navy joined hands, determined to save the honored Mississippi squadron.

I accept with heartielt thanks the sword which you tender me, and you will please convey to the haval officers who were with you my assurance of the highest appreciation of their regard.

I have striven to do all in my power to add in the highest appreciation of their regard.

I have striven to do all in my power to ald in crushing this rebellion, and if I have failed to do all within my power it is because I have not had an opportunity; but wherever I may be, or whatever do. I trust, fir, never to bring dishonor upon the gword of which I am the recipient.

As you mention that I would find the sword at Tiffany & Co.'s, New York, awaiting my acceptance, in case an opportunity should not occur to mable you to present the same in person, I would respectfully suggest, in view of the circumstance of our wide separation, that it should be sent to his respectfully suggest, in view of the circumstance of our wide separation, that it should be sent to his Excellency J. T. Lewis, Governor of Wisconsin, there to await my orders.

Go where I may, I shall always entertain the highest regard for the officers of the Mississippi squadror, and a lively recollection of the scenes on Red river.

Hoping that we may meet on other fields, and with the highest considerations, I remain, very truly, your well-wisher, J. BAILLY, Brevet Brigadier General U. S. Volunteers. The Birney-Testimonial Fund.

To the Editor of The Press: To the Editor of The Press:

Sir: On Friday last there appeared in the New York Herald, in a letter from W. H. Merriam, an army correspondent of that paper, some remarks in regard to the fund now being raised in this city and clsowhere as a testimony to the memory of D. B. Birney, late Major General United States Volunteers, which are likely to mislead the public, and I ask for space to correct any misapprehension they may have created.

The sommittee having charge of the matter have The committee having charge of the matter have The committee having charge of the matter have not thought it expedient to make any appeal through the public press, and no publication of their proceedings has been made at their instance. The propriety of the movement has, however, been so mapifest that it has induced uncolloited notice in several of the public prints. The statement in the Herald that thirty-two thousand dollars were subscribed at the private meeting of the friends of the late General Birney, held in this city October 24th, is incorrect. The sum pledged up to this time does not amount to much more than twenty thousand dollars, and the committee will not relax their efforts until much more than that shall have been dollars, and the committee will not relax their elforts until much more than that shall have been subscribed. Gov. Ourtin, General Sickles, General
Butler, and several other distinguished gentlemen, who have taken a deep interest in the movement,
have named fifty thousand dollars as the minimum of the fund; but the committee know so well the daily demands upon the generosity of a liberal public, that they do not expect to be able to realize so much. lic, that they do not expect to be able to realize so much.

Mr. Merriam also stated, in the letter alinded to, that the pension payable to the family of a major general, dying in the service, is "from one hundred and fifty to two hundred dollars per month." In this he was in error. The highest pension paid by the Government is thirty dollars a month, and is payable alike to the families of a lieutenant colonel, colonel, brigadler general, and major general. The committee have deemed it their duty to make there corrections, and in doing so would take occasion to add that their success has been of the most gratifying character, though their efforts were somewhat retarded by the engrossing excitement preceding the Presidential election. The subscriptions have been liberal in amount, and in many instances by gentlemen who never saw Gen. Birney, stances by gentlemen who never saw Gen. Birney. who have appreciated his public services, and have lelt it to be a pleasure to make contributions to a fund having so praiseworthy an object.

Yours, &c.,

Chairman of Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14, 1864. THE CITY.

MILITARY. ARRIVAL OF A PHILADELPHIA VETERAN. the 11th Regiment United States Regulars, has just returned to this his native city, after an absence of three years, during which period he was with the Army of the Potomac, and shared with it all its hardships and glories. The gallant Captain has hardenips and glories. The gallant Captain has participated in all of the battles of that army, from the Peninsula to Antietam, down the valley to the Wilderness, Cold Harbor, and the numerous encounters upon the right side of the James, to the selzing of the Weldon Railroad.

The Captain has, upon several occasions, been officially noticed in reports of brigade and division commanders for meritorious conduct and cool, calculating bravery upon the field of battle; in fact, there has been no officer in command who has deserved, as he has received, so often the thanks of Lieutenant General U. S. Grant for the manner he has commanded his regiment during their many perilous encounters with the enemy. It is probable that he will be assigned a position in one of our Northern cities. His talent and known integrity would ensure a faithful performance of duty, and result to the best interest of the Government. RECRUITING.

Warran's were issued yesterday morning for the payment of the city bounty to sixty-eight men, nine of whom were enlisted for one year's service, two for two years, and fifty-serven for three years. [Before Mr. Alderman Welding.] DRAMATIC SUIT - JUDGMENT FOR THE PLAINTIFF.

PLAINTIFF.

In the case of James Sherry vs. The Managers of the Chestnut-street Theatre, the magistrate yesterday gave his decision in favor of the plaintiff for one week's salary, amounting to $30. The facts of this case are peculiar. A contract had been entered into between the parties, the plaintiff to receive the sum of $30 per week for the faithful performance of certain parts in the plays. It was alleged that on one evening last week he appeared on the stage and was so much intoxleated from the use of mult or spirituous liquors as to incapacitate him. He did not perform his part well; in fact, he so marred the performance as to disgust some of the auditors. He was discharged by the managers, and his salary for the week withheld. To sustain the charge the defendants produced a number of the actors and actresses. Several testified that he was "tight," or "protty tight." Another said he was "non compos mentis," but whether from spirituous or walt liquors, none could say. One actress testified that his breath smelled as though he had been drinking whisky. The plaintiff, in answer to these allegations, produced evidence that he was sick, and that he had made two applications to persons to take his part in the evening performance. He was unrucessful. It was also in evidence that he had imbibed only one glass of leger beer in the dressing-room, and that he had not taken han the taken had that he had not taken han the taken had that he had not taken han the taken anything else: that he was the procession and that he had not taken anything else: that he was the constitution of the anything else: that he was the constitution of the had been that he was the constitution of the had been that he was the had not taken anything else: that he was the had that he had not taken han the had not taken anything else: that he was the constitution of the managers of the constitution of the had been that he was the had not taken anything else: that he was the constitution of the constitution of the constitution of the constituti one glass of lager beer in the dressing-room, and that he had not taken anything else; that he was sick during the day. The magistrate held the case under advisement until yesterday, and, entertaining the opinion that the charge of drunkenness was not full and satisfactory, judgment was given for the

As president he became the lawful custodian of the seal of the church. It is alleged that he refused to give this up. It is valued at $9. The accused was bound over to answer at court.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] LARCENY OF MONEY. A Mrs. Glimor, said to be a sister of Harry Gilmor, the Maryland guerilla raider and thief, was arraigned yesterday, at the Central Station, on the charge of abstracting from the trunk of Michael McAleer the sum of $400. She was detained for Another hearing.

An employee of the American Pulp Company was arraigned yesterday on the charge of larceny of shovels, picke, scraps of iron. &c., the property of the company. Some of the articles were found in the dwelling of the accused, from which it is legally inferred that he stole them. It is stated that property to the amount of $3,000 has been missing from the company's works during the past several months. The accused denied puriolning the articles. He was bound over to answer at court.

In prosecuting his searches, he ascertained some points which seemed to weigh against the defendant Green. The bey, was placed on the witness stand, and he testified that Green enlisted him, and he proceeded to Camp Cadwalader. On Sunday, he, having been granted a pass, went to Green's house, and had some conversation with him on the subject of the enlistment; Green said "if my father was not a — fool he could take me home;" I gave Green $100 for my boarding and lodging; I have $250 in camp; Green said that he had given a sergeant $10 for the pass by which I passed from the camp.

District Court—Judge Sharswood.

James Ramsden & Co. vs. Wm. Tomlinson. An action in assumpit to recover on book account for a quantity of 'wool and oil 'sold and delivered. For the defence it was not denied that the goods in question had been purchased by them, nor that they were delivered, but they set up a counter claim. They alleged that the plaintiff had contracted with them for the delivery of 100,000 pairs stockings at the rate of $3 90 per dozen pair. 20,000 pairs of this purchase were delivered to and accepted by Ramsden & Co., and were paid for. They, however, afterwards refused to receive the remainder of the lot, which defendants say they were finally compelled to sell at $3.75 per dozen, thereby entailing upon them a loss of 15 cents per dozen, a difference which they now claim to set off in this suit.

In rebuttal, plaintiffs offered evidence to show that the stockings were not up to the stipulated (army) standard, and that shoddy entered largely into the material of which they were manufactured. In fact, that for wear they were worthless. Jury out. District Court-Judge Sharswood.

Gilbert vs. Gilbert. A suit for a divorce. Before reported. Verdict for defendant. Adjourned till to-day. Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions—Judges Thompson and Ludlow. It was expected that the case of Maguire, alias Mitchell, charged with the murder of the young girl, Maggie Baer, at the Continental Theatre, by a pistol shot, would come up, it having been specially fixed for trial yesterday. Upon motion of Charles W. Brooke, Esq., the case was, however, postponed till Monday, the 28th inst., in consequence of the illness of Mr. Cassidy, his colleague.

The case of France McKeever, charged with the murder of a sailor, was, on account of the absence of witnesses, in like manner postponed till the same day.

No other business being ready, the Court adjourned till this morning. LETTER BAGS
