BELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

A BRILITANT RELIQUARY.—There has been a very remarkable work of gold exhibited at 'the end.' irance of the choir of the Cathedral of Notre Dame, in Paris. It is a new reliquary. manufactured ist the exhence of the chapter, after a design propared by M Violet le Due, and it is considered to be one of the n cit remarkable works of art produced, du-ring the present century. The immense number of vitamonds and other precious stones, the result of boos offerings, are not out of proportion with the reliquery itself. St. Louis is: represent. ed sitting on an elevated throne, wearing a royal crown of, rubles and emeraids, and holding the orown of thorns in bis hand. St. Helena, with the Holy Cross, and Baudouin II., Emperor of Constantinople, are likewise seated on thrones. There is a platform over the head of these personages, resting on the top of the throne, of which the disc is surrounded by a river of diamonds of the pirest water. Turquoises are scattered over the surface, and in the centre is a plilar formed of enormous emeraids, which bears a crystal lantern, round which are the Twey a fueltes placed at a A BRILLIANT RELIQUARY .- There has been the surface, and in the centre is a pillar formed of enormous emeralds, which bears a crystal lantern, round which are the Tweile's Apostles, placed at a certain distance from each other, so that the holy crown may be seen between them. The crown is placed horizontally in the lautern. on which is fixed the royal crown of St. Louis, studded with rubles, emeralds, and pearls. The reliquáry, which is silver gilt, cost £2,200. The diamonds and precious stones are estimated at £8,000. THE POPE AND THE RUSSIANS.—While Pius IX, was at Castel Gandolfo he expressed to Mr. Odo Russell, in the course of conversation, a regret at

IX, was at Dastel Gandollo heexpressed to Mr. Odo Russell, in the course of conversation, a regret at not having seen the Russian Minister, the Baron de Meyendorff. The latter, on being informed of it, immediately hastened to obtain an audience, and Plus IX, after asking bim news of the Imperial family of Russia, said to him: "I know that the hereditary Grand Duke Nicholas is travelling in Europe, and I request you to let him know hereditary Grand Duke Nicholas is traveling in Europe, and I request you to let him know that I should see him in Rome with great pleasure." And as M. de Meyendorff express-ed his cpleasure at having to fulfil that com-mission; Pins IX. added: "This is not the only one; I have another commission to entrust to you, and it is the following: I am writing an Encyolica to the Archbishops and Bishops of Po-sand, and as if I forwarded it secretly they might be compromised, I have thought that by entrusting to the representative of Russia it would be much better, and I give you several printed copies of it. The bishops will receive the words of the Vicar. of Christ by your means, and I thank you beforehand.". It was only six weeks after this conversation that the journals of Europe published the text of the Encyolica Meanwhile the Russian authorities published in Warsaw and circulated throughout Poland an Encyclica most shameiully falsified. giving Day: To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Pennsylvania; DEAR BRETHREN: The day is approaching when as Ohristians and as citizens we are called upon to devote ourselves to the duty, too much neglected, of offering thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for all his benefits; and es-pecially for those which have distinguished the past year; that seed time and harvest have re-turned; that rains and fruitful seasons have been vouchasfed: that pestilence has not wasted our turned; that rains and irtuit is seasons have been youchsafed; that pestilence has not wasted our cities, nor violence prevailed in our fields and habitations, should move us to fervent gratitude, and to united and general offerings of praise. Above all should this be the case when, as now, Above an should this be the case when, as how, our nation is stringding, in the face of misappre-hension and violent obstruction both at home and abroad, for its very life, for the sovereignty of law, and the establishment of universal freedom; that at such a juncture it has pleased the gracious that at such a juncture it has pleased the gracious Ruler of the Universe to remember us in meroy, even while he chastens us sorely for our many and great sins, may well call for special and most de-vout thanksgiving. And the our praises let us add our earnest and unceasing prayers that, at this mo-mentous orisis of our history, the Giver of all Good would bestow upon our rulers and our people

Good would bestow upon our rulers and our people such callmess and comprehensiveness of judgment, such stern rectitute of action, such large-hearted charity towards those who have erred or of-fended, and such constant fear and reverence for His holy name, that we may hope to be rescued, at no distant day, from the dangers and the fearful evils that surround us.

evils that surround us. And with our Prayers and Thanksgivings let us bring some substantial token of their sincerity. On a day when we remember with special services the, Divine Goodness in bestowing upon us again "the fruits of the earth," and all "the other blessings of Drine Grouness in bescowing upon as again "the fruits of the earth," and all "the other blessings of His merciful Providence," may we not forget our brothers and sisters who are naked or destitute of daily food. Expecially let us not forget those who are in rickness as well as in want. In former years, the collections made on Thanksgiving Day, in our several churches, have been an essontial help to our hospital in this city, which is mainly de-voted to the care of sick and wounded who are in destitute circumstances. Touching in-stances might be given of the extended and effective way in which such offerings have con-tributed to the spiritual as well as bodily confort of multitudes who, without such ministry, must have been left to suffer, and offen to die, without succor and without, hore. To maintain, at present, the usual number of free beds requires a large increase of income, and it is my earnest prayer and hope that, having freely received of the mercies of God, our people may, with faithful hearts, freely give to his suffering children. I would, therefore, affectionately recommend that on Thursday, the 24th day of November, (1884,) there on Thursday, the 24th day of November, (1864,) there be taken up, in every congregation, and at every public service, offerings for the Hospital of the Pro-iestant Episcopal Church in Philodelphia. ALOSZO POTTER,

Bishop of the Diocess of Pennsylvania. CATHEDRAL OF ST. PETER AND PAUL .- The consecration of the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul, to-morrow, will be the most imposing religious ceremonial ever witnessed in this vicinity. The arrangements are as nearly completed as it is possible for them to be. The pews and much of the wood work of the magnificent edifice are far from complete. Many workmen are engaged upon It; but it will not be possible to have it nearly completed by to morrow. The choir and orchestra had a reheartal yesterday afternoon. Owing to the noise and confusion in the building, made by the workmen, the andience, which was quite large, could not enjoy the music so well as was desired. To morrow, however, when the immense house is full and quiet reigns, the music will, no doubt, be

Imposing in beauty and grandeur. There has been a very general acceptance by the clergy of the Church, in other States, of the invitation to be present, and among the many who will

tion to be present, and among the many who will appear will be the Most Rev. Archbishop M. J. Spalding, D. D., of Baltimore; the Most Rev. Arch-bishop John McCloskey, D. D., of New York, and the Most Rev. Archbishop John B. Purcell, D. D., of Cincinnaii. Of the Bishops there will be a very large con-course: Rt. Rev. Dr. J. Sweeney, St. John, N. B.; Rt. Rev. Dr. Lynch, Toronto, Canada; Rt. Rev. Dr. Farrell, Hamilton, Canada; Rt. Rev. Dr. Simon, Buffalo; Rt. Rev. Dr. De Goesbriand, Burlington, Vt.; Rt. Rev. Dr. Donenece, Pittsburg; Rt. Rev. Dr. Laughlin, Brooklyn; Rt. Rev. Dr. Halley, New-ark, N. J.; Rt. Rev. Dr. Luers, Fort Wayne; Indi-ana; Rt. Rev. Dr. McEarland, Providence; R. L, will be present to assist in the ceremonies. The Mitred Abbot of Latrobe, one of the most venerable looking men in the Church, will be in the proces-sion. There are one hundred and sixty-four priests in the dioccese, and nearly all of them will officiate on Sunday, as the services at the various ohurches have been so arranged as to permit their attend-ance. Very Rev. Father Keenan, of Lancester, one of the oldest clergymen in the clocese, will take part. At a quarter past ten o'olock on Sunday morning the procession will be formed in the Ca-thedral chapel, in the following order : 1. The Second Master of Ceremonies, F. B. O'Nell, 2. The procession will pass from the Cathedral Chapel to Summer street, up Summer street to Logan Square, and passing through a portion of the square, will return to the gate of entrance, and thence to the front door of the Cathedral, where the ceremony of Blessing will begin, and continue until a circuit of the building has been made, after which the procession will enter the Cathedral. The cere-mony of blessing, which will be conducted by Bishop Wood, consists of chanting Psalms, swinging the incense, and sprinkling the walls and foundations of the church, and after this the procession enters the building, chanting the Psalms and singing the litany.

ORDAINED.—At Granville, Ill., Sept. 36th, a coun-cil, Rev. F. Bascom inderator, ordained Mr. S. N. Moore, who had been previously licensed by a coun-cil called by Dr. E. Beecher's Church, after his Il-censure had been revoked by the Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church, on account of his views of open communion and the free use in wor-ship of other Christian lyrics than those of David. David. REV. JOHN JENKINS .- The Presbyterian Synod of Montreal has decided to call the Rev. John Jenkins to St. Paul's Church in that city. MEMORIAL SERVICES in relation to the death of Mr. Everett Goodrich, the son of the pastor of the Church at Eighth and Noble streets, were held on last Sunday afternoon. Mr. G. had been connected with the Sabbath school as teacher, and the attendance of scholars and parents was quite large. Sing-ing by the school was very effective and appropriate. A discourse on the life and character of the young man was delivered by Rev. James Shrigley, chap-lain U.S. A., which was listened to by a large and attentive congregation. It evinced deep sympathy for the mourners, and was regarded as a just tribute of respect to the memory of a most estimable young man.

THE MENONITES .- We have received a communication relative to the religious sect called Menonites. It says, that ithey were not mentioned in a recent article that appeared in The Press relative to the loyally of the churches. This correspondent says that this sect has 100 ministers and 180 places of worship in Pennsylvania. They have also a large representation in the other States of the Union, and not one out of a hundred of their members voted for McClellan.

The corner-stone of this edifice was laid on the 28th of October, 1862. 'Its walls have been built in "troublous times," but after long patience the pro-jectors and aiders of the enterprise have the satis-faction of seeing the work accomplished, and the church free from debt. It is a very pretty Gothic building of, wood, capable of seating 200 to 250 per-sons, and erected after designs by O. A. Hall, Esq., of this city. The lot on which the church has been erected, with enough ground for a "commodious cemetery," has been deeded. During the course of the sermon the Bishop gave a well-merited tribute of the asting additional of the building. May it prove a blea-ting to the whole neighborhood in which it is lo-cated. THE REV. REBER F. ALSON, formerly of this city, has accepted the rectorship of the Episcopai Ohurch at Rye, New York.
