THE FOREST CHILD. [From the German of R. Mund.] In the forest-night there was I born, In woodland darkness stood my cot, I lived secluded, and like forlorn, Yet never longed for different lot. The first clear sound that thrilled me there

Was the greenwood whisper, soft and mild; The forest sang to me an air Such as a mother sings to her child. I heard this song so strange and new, A cradled child with wonder rude, Till all its sweetest meanings grew From out the darkness of its mood.

And when at last with youth I stirred From my humble cot the world to see; Only Nature I saw, and heard The rushing song of the forest tree. The Forest's words I understood : "Innocent child, thou art welcome here; Welcome unto this holy wood,

In the evening calm, in the morning clear." And more he said : "Child ! every child Longs for a gift from father-hand; So choose what in this woodland wild Thine innocent heart doth find most grand." I answered thus: "Teach me to sing, Like that which gently breathes through thee When all the mountains are murmuring,

And music swells from tree to tree,-Which from the wild bird in the sun, Thrills with the sweet content it gives, And the streamlet, as it singeth on, Relates, unconscious that it lives.' So spake I,-and as it chances oft, The grand old tree tops rustled and smiled;

But there was wafted a whisper soft:

"So be it with thee, thou lovely child!" RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Philadelphia Noon Prayer Meeting—At noon of the 23d of November, the friends of this institution, knewn the world over as the "Jayne's Hail," or "Sansom-street" Prayer Meeting, met to celebrate its seventh universary. Its founders, in faith, inscribed upon its early records, "This meeting is a permanent institution." Although it has lost its early strength, and has been greatly neglected, and reduced in numbers at times to a mere handful of worshippers, there have not been wanting some to stand by it to perpetuate its name and its character as a "sweet hour of prayer."

Mr. George H. Stuart presided. He recounted a brief history of the meeting; its humble origin; its unprecedented growth, so that in two days it had swelled from 200 to 300, to 2000 to 300, and sometimes even to 5,000 earnest, solemn worshippers; its times even to 5,000 carnest, solemn worshippers; its world-wide renown; its unlimited influence, vast as eternity itself; through which hundreds and thousands of precious souls had been saved, were all gratefully alinded to.

The distractions of three and a half years of war

The districtions of three and a half years of war were mentioned as having broken up many of the daily prayer-meetings throughout the land, although the large centres still had them; but there are as many prayer-meetings to-day, asserted the speaker, as before the war. They are to be found in our armies and on shipboard, in our hospitals, and camps, and trenches, within one hundred yards of the enemy's plokets, even, and there was in these soldiers' meetings as much of the spirit of prayer and of the power of prayer as the speaker had ever seen even in the great Jayne's Hall meetings.

The Rev. Dr. Patterson, lately of Chicago, now serving the interests of the Christian Commission, also called in review the former days.

The Philadelphia Noonday Meeting is now held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, 1009 and 1011 Chestnut street. Business men and strangers visiting the city are especially days. men and strangers visiting the city are especially invited. Christians will find it to be a profitable place to turn aside with God for sweet refreshment and for etrength for evrey day duties. REFUSED .- A deputation from the Quakers of England; who came to this country to attend the yearly meetings of Friends at Baltimore and North Carolina, were, upon application to the President, furnished with passes through our lines for that purpose, but were refused admittance within the robel lines, and have consequently returned to Baltimore. STUDENTS.—The Union Theological Seminary of New York city, it is said, keeps up good numbers, notwithstanding the large falling off in the aggregate of those preparing for the ministry in the colleges throughout the country—a decline which is severely felt by other theological seminaries. It has about a hundred students at present, and several

The First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, says the Repository, has presented the Presbyterian congregation of Unambersburg with a beautiful communion service, as a testimonial of Unistian affection and sympathy. The service belonging to the church there was destroyed by the fire on the 30th of July.

PROPOSED CATHOLIC COLLEGE AT OXFORD. PROPOSED CATHOLIC COLLEGE AT CIFORD.—
Although various statements have been made by the press in reference to the site of the old Oxford workhouse, we understand there is now no doubt of the use for which it is intended, as Dr. Newman has become its purchaser, and a Catholic college and establishment will be shortly erected thereon. When the workhouse land was bought, a few weeks ago, by the late Mr. Ambrose Smith, it was currently rumored it was intended for a Catholic college, but such was not really the case at that time almored it was intended for a Catholic college, but such was not really the case at that time, although the matter was subsequently taken up by influential parties, and negotiations have resulted in the site being transferred to Dr. Newman for £8,400, being an advance of £400 upon the original purchase money. Dr. Newman, who was formerly Fellow of Oriel College and Vicar of St. Mary's, Oxford, was closely identified with "Tracts for the Times," and was one of the earliest "perverts," of his party from the Church of England. It is stated this eminent scholar will be at the head of affairs at Oxford. The site of the old workhouse comprises upwards of five acres, situated

There are six other Catholics also in residence at Oxford.—London Dath News. NEW ORGAN FOR PHILADELPHIA CATHEDRAL.—
The cathedral will soon be provided with a new organ, which is to be built on the principle of the great instrument in the Boston Music Hall. It will be located over the great entrance. A small organ is now temporarily deposited there, which is to be removed to a wing of the building near the gossel side of the plant in order to acing near the gospel side of the alter, in order to accompany the ordinary chants of the officiating cleray. The style of the case, which will be thirty-five by forty feet, will be Corinthian, to correspond with the surrounding architecture. It will be surmounted by a central arch, wirds will so cover the light in its rear as to form a D window to harmo-nize with the others near the ceiling. The great columns which rise from the interior will not be veiled by the instrument. It will have all the modern improvements, and be so constructed as to form a powerful plainjeau, in order to fill the whole temple with its sounds. The cost of it will be about twenty thousand dollars. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.—The Chestnut-Hill Baptist Church has passed a series of resolutions complimentary to Rev. Wm. B. Tolan, their late pastor, who has resigned his charge. NEW COLORED CHURCH AT HILTON HEAD,-The colored Methodists of Hilton Head, under the pas-toral charge of the Rev. THE WREK OF PRAYER.—The secretaries of the Evangelical Alliance have issued their invitation for the Week of Prayer in January next, requesting those who propose to unite in this popular concert of supplication and praise to make arrangements for holding meetings in their respective neighborhoods. We quote from the circular:

"The time has again arrived to invite Christians of all countries to make arrangements for observing a week of special and united prayer at the beginning of the coming year. Few movements of the Church of Christ have been more owned and honored of the Lord than these annual seasons of united supplications. MISCELLANEOUS. DISPLAY_OF GOODS ON THE PAVEMENTS. Councils, some time ago, passed an ordinance pro-nibiting the display of goods, wares, or-merchandise of any description on the pavements or on the house fronts. At the meeting of Councils on Thursday afternoon last, petitions for the repeal of the ordifronts. At the meeting of Councils on Thursday afternoon last, petitions for the repeal of the ordinance, numerously signed, were presented and referred to a special committee. It was a matter of wonder amongst many members that there should be so much opposition to an ordinance which it was believed would meet the cordial approval of most storekeepers, as it would place them all upon an equal footing in respect to display, would entirely prevent the numerous cases of larceny that daily occur from the loose manner in which many articles on display are allowed to remain from morning tillinght upon the pavements, and would make many of the business streets of our city more attractive from the greater space allowed to pedestrians, and the consequent greater ease to purchasers in reaching the establishments at which they intended to make purchases. It is to be hoped that this important matter will be well considered by the committee having it in charge, that both sides of the question will be fairly presented and acted upon. Those storekeepers who know the evils resulting from having their goods exposed on the streets, in the shape of larcenies and damage from the weather, should be active in the matter if they wish to have this ordinance remain amongst the laws of our city.

During the winter there will be three skating ponds in this city, and, from present appearances, all will be well attended. A large tract of land, comprising in all over six acres, has been tastefully fenced in, as a skating pond, at the corner of Fourth and Diamond streets, which is accessible by three lines of passenger-railway cars, which will bring the skaters almost to the gate of the park. The buildings upon the ground for the accommodation of those participating in the sport, as well as for spectators, are ample; and nothing, it would appear, has been left undone which would in any way contribute or add to the comfort of the visitor, and the advantages that this enjoys must be obvious to all. The park will be under the management of M. C. Campbell, well known as a highly successful teacher of the art of skating. We are informed that the pond is to be brilliantly illuminated at night by a narrest, and the jury were to judge whether any arrest was made, and, if so, was it justified. If, in finking a legal arrest, the officer used more force than necessary, it would be manafer. The arrest, if there was any, took place after the afteration. If, in turn, Mayberry became the attacking party, and defendant's life was endangered thereby, he would be justified in taking life.

The jury retired, and up to the hour of adjournment had not agreed upon a verdict.

THE EMANCIPATION TRANSPARENCIES.

We understand the large transparencies which lately adorned the headquarters of the Supervisory Committee have been sent to Nashville. Governor Johnson, who was addressed on the subject, has replied, through Col. Mussett, that "no pains will be spared, nor expense considered, which will make the display in Nashville as grand and as productive of good in strengthening the sentiment fast growing upon the minds of the people in Tennessee, which the mottees, &c., express."

We understand that a faithful copy of these transparencies has been taken, and is now in the process of being printed in colors. LITERARY LECTURE AT CONCERT HALL. Mattie McClelland Brown, M. L. About two years since a drunken quarrel took place between a number of men on Water streat, below Walnut. SINGULAR CASE OF MONOMANIA.

A little mulatto girl, named Henrietta Pugh, in the eleventh year of her age, was sent to the House of Refuge yesterday. The child is bright looking, obedient to her parents while they are present, and an apt scholar—much more so than is usual among children of the same age. Still, she has a very strong desire to destroy everything that she can lay her hands upon, when left by herself, such as cutting the carpets, cutting her father's clothing, throwing things away into different places, and finally she amused herself by sticking pins and needles into the mouth of a little baby whenever a favorable opportunity offered. When charged with such bad conduct, she admitted all, and to off-repeated inquiries why she did so, she would reply, "I don't know." Several years since she evinced a very bad disposition, and was sent to the House of Refuge, where she behaved herself in a very obedient manner, and was regarded as one of the best-behaved inmates of the institution. It being thought that she had reformed, the little girl was restored to her parents, but she soon relapsed into her old habits and became worse than ever.

The parents were present yesterday, and stated that they had tried everything in their power to break the bad habit of the child. They had coaxed and used the rod, and adopted other means of punishment, but all to no effect.

The Recorder questioned the little girl; she replied in the most artless manner, admitted all the charges, and said she did not know what made her do it.

At the earnest request of the parents the child was sent to the House of Refuge. [Before Mr. Alderman Welding.] ALLEGED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

ALLEGED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

John Davis, Wm. H. Patterson, and John H. Martin were arraigned yesterday on the charge of highway robbery. It seems from the evidence given in the case that on Thursday evening, while General William M. Reilly was walking along Chestnut street, in front of the Post Office, he was suddenly seized by the hand, in a very familiar manner, by Martin, who expressed great delight at seeing him.

"I know you," said he, "you are a merchant."

"You are mistaken," replied the General, "I am not a merchant."

"Oh, yes you are, I know you well." Here he shook the hand of General Reilly as familiarly as the clown in the circus when he recognizes Peter Jenkins.

The other two men closed around the General, and while Martin shook him by the hand the other two "went through him."

The General finally freed himself from the annoyance of the trio. He felt his pockets; found his watch and pocket book all safe. A number of valuable papers were taken from his coat pocket. General Reilly hastened after the party and arrested two of them.

A police officer arrested the third one. The bundle of papers were found on the cover of an inlet at Sixth and Chestnut streets, where one of the defendants had thrown it, in the attempt, perhaps, to hide it in the sewer. On the person of Davis a six-shooter was found, for which he was held in additional bail to answer the charge of highway robbery. mitted to answer the charge of highway robbery.

SHOPLIFTER Mary Mullin, quite a prepossessing-looking young woman, who excited the sympathy of more than one person, was arraigned yesterday on the charge of shoplitting. The evidence developed the important fact that the delendant entered the store of Mr. Peleg Hall, near Arch and Eighth streets, and priced some goods. On retiring, the storekeeper discovered the end of a lace collar sticking out from beneath the lid of a basket that she carried. Upon arresting her, the basket was found to contain a paper of glass buttons that she had purloined from the counter. The accused had no explanation to make. She was committed.

[Before Mr. Alderman Patchel.] John Harley was committed yesterday to answer the charge of entering the house of Patrick Dougherty, on the Gray's Ferry road, late on Thursday night, and stealing therefrom some cigars.

The United States vs. Henry J. Smith. An indictment for stealing letters from the United States mail, between Mauch Chunk and Jeansville, within this State. The defendant was the route agent in charge of the mails between those two routes. The facts of the case were before reported. After addresses by defendant's counsel, Messrs. John P. O'Neill and W. A. Husbands, and by United States District Attorneys Glipin and Valentine, the case was given to the jury yesterday. After being out a short time they came in with their verdict of "guilty," but recommended the prisoner strongly to the mercy of the court. At the request of the prisoner sentence was immediately imposed, which was to the effect that he undergo imprisonment for ten years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Tais, it seems, is the minimum punishment prescribed by law in such cases where the parties are convicted.

The court then discharged the jurors until Monday and adjourned.

The Commonwealth ex rel. Harris vs. Provost Marshal Frink. In this case, which has been here-tofore noticed, the defendant having been arrested on a charge of receiving goods knowing them to have been stolen from the navy yard; was again up yesterday. Col. Frink made still another amended return to the writ of habeas corpus directed to him, to the effect that the relator was not in his custody at the time of the service of the writ, and had not been in his custody since, but that previously he had turned over the custody of the relator, by command of Major General Cadwalader, to Major Eastman, at Port Mifflin.

Mr. F. C. Brewster, for the relator, then presented to the court an application for a writ of habeas at Port Mifflin.

Mr. F. C. Brewster, for the relator, then presented to the court an application for a writ of habeas corpus, to be directed to Major Eastman, requiring him to produce Harris in court.

The application was granted, and the writ made returnable forthwith.

The case of Edwin Walton for the murder of Jacob M. Mayberry. The evidence having been concluded, after speeches by counsel, the case was yesterday given to the jury under instructions of the Court by Judge Thompson. The judge charged generally that it was the duty of the defendant as an officer, in an effort to preserve the peace, to keep within the pale of the law, otherwise he is not protected. It was clear that no breach of the peace was committed in presence of the officer. If the gun had been fired in presence of the officer he could have arrested the parties. He only sent word to them. The arrest of Mayberry was not legal under the circumstances. If the officer, having no right to arrest him, got into a personal altercation of quarrel with Mayberry, he still had no right to arrest him. That was no breach of the peace. It then became a private altercation. If, instead of that, Mayberry attacked the officer, and there was something beyond the mere words, then he would have the right to arrest him. More words will not justifiable. If, in making a legal arrest, the officer used more force than necessary, it would be manslaughter. The arrest, if there was any, took place after the altercation. If, the under was calter the altercation. If, in turn, Mayberry became the attacking party, and defendant's life was endangered thereby, he would be justified in taking life.

The jury retired, and up to the hour of adjourners the dress of the parties.

PROSPECTUS THE HOOVER & MARSHALL OIL CO. Office, No. 208 South FOURTH Street, below Walnut, back room, first floor. CAPITAL, $500,060; SHARES, 50,000; PAR VALUE, $10. It consists of the entire working interest, (which is one-half of the Oil produced,) in a Lease and Oil Well located on the well-known. Hoover Farm, 'celebrated as a mong the first and most productive Oil Territories, and known as the 'HOOVER & MARSHALL WELL.' The lease is for Ten Rods square with a frontage of a like number of rods upon the River, giving room for two more wells, and has an unexpired term of twenty-seven years. There is also a first-class ten horse Engine, Tubing, Tanks, and everything necessary to carry on successful operations.

The Well (which is a flowing and pumping one) has been in operation for three years, and, carelessly handled, has produced regularly from 100 to 112 bbls. per week (including stoppage), at times Flowing Eighteen Barrels per day, yielding for the working interest of the Company about $30,000 annually. The Oil is superior, its labricating qualities commanding for it $3 to $5 per barrel more than the oil from Oil Creek. This well, rightly handled and actively worked by the celebrated Fatent Air Fump, leaves but little doubt of its being restored to its original production—from 40 to 50 barrels per day.

The other property of the Company consists in a valuable river tract of fifty acres in fee simple, adjoining the extreme borough line of Franklin, with a large boring surface facing the river, and also upon the creeks that run through the tract, thereby increasing boring surface facing the river, and also upon the creeks that run through the tract, thereby increasing boring surface facing the river, and also upon the creeks that run through the uniformity, which, with the late valuable discovery of a 70-barrel well on the Island opposite the "Hoover Farm," and the discovery of large and valuable producing wells all around the Company's property, (see extract below,) stamps the region as one of the most valuabl region as one of the most valuable oil territories. The Franklin Citizen, in noticing the new wells recently struck, says:

"One by Dale & Morrow, on October 12, on the Cochrane Farm, two miles below Franklin, which yielded 240 barrels at the first forty-eight hours' pumping, is considered good for 100 barrels. John Lee has also obtained a flowing well, on the Martin Farm, just above the Hoover, and nearly opposite the Cochrane, which flows over 50 barrels per day. Also, Mr. Hubs, who owns a lease on the Smith Farm, who has been pumping 4 barrels per day at 463 feet deep, sunk his well 424 feet, and struck a well giving 40 barrels per day. All these strikes have been within ten days, and the prospect of a number more in a short time."

Fitteen thousand shares have been set aside by the Company for the purpose of boring three more wells.
