OIL .- Oil is now the great object which attracts the attention of capitalists. But very many of the oil companies in existence are based upon uncertainty—their lands being either in Utopia or en-tirely unexplored. Among the companies that are not only organized, but in full tide of operation, is the Mingo, which starts with a very flattering present yield and future prospects. The receipts of oil are upwards of seventy-five barrels per day, being one-fourth land interest of the celebrated Reed well, on Cherry Run. They are also getting sixteen bar reis per day from the Pennybaker leases, making a daily production of upwards of ninety barrels, which at present rates of oil, is about one thousand dollars per day accruing to the company. There are two new wells going down on the Pennybaker leases, from which the company will receive one-fourth of all the oil obtained. Also, a farm of ninety-eight (98) acres, in fee simple, in the neighborhood of the celebrated Maple Shade Farm, which the company propose to commence operations on shortly. They have made their first dividend of two per cent. (20 cents) per share on the capital stock, and have a andsome surplus of oil remaining in the tanks. SHARSPRARE ON TAILORING .- King Lear says: Through tattered clothes small vices do appear; Robes and fur gowns hide all. Plate sin with gold, And the strong lance of justice hurtless breaks; Arm it in rags, a pigmy's straw doth plerce it." We hold, however, that it is the duty of every man to dress well. This can be best accomplished by procuring his garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

"Times Change, and Men Change with THEM."—There was a time in New York when everybody, on meeting his neighbor, would ask, "Have you seen her?" alluding to either the Chiiese junk then in their waters or to Jenny Lind and the answers showed that always the party replying did not exactly understand what was in the nind of the interrogator, and answers that might have been very appropriate to the "junk" were not so to M'lle Lind. Now-a-days we say, "How much stock have you?" supposing, of course, the person has been to see the "Olliphant," and the reply indicates that every other man counts his oil stock by the thousands. It may be all right, but we know one investment in which there is no doubt—that is in a new suit of first-class Clothing at Charles Stokes' & Co.'s one price, under the Continental. GENERAL ORDERS, NO. 54.

I. The Commander-in-Chief, in announcing that Major General COUGH has been, by the War. Department, relieved from the command of the Department of the Susquehanna, and ordered to service in the field, deem s it just to express the regret which he feels at the termination of the relations which have existed, during more than eighteen months, between that officer and the State anthorities, and to say that the promptitude, earnestness, vigor, and integrity with which General Coneh at all times ruifilled all his duties in this Department, have entitled him to, the highest esteem and regard. The citizens of Pennsylvania have learned to know his merit, and will be gratified to hear of that new distinction which, in active service, his skill, spirit and gallsmity cannot fail to add to his already high reputation as a patriot and soldier.

II. The Commander-in-Chief deems it a proper subject of congratulation that the command of the Department devolves upon Major General CADWALADER, a citizen of our own State, and an officer of high integrity and military character, and by whom, the people can rely, the public service will be wisely and vigorously carried on.
