NOTICES.

The Last Report.

By making but a moderate proposition...

the rebel army and freedom of the slaves...

Jefferson Davis has shown his customary tact...

As it proved, the bit he gave to the rebel Congress is just sufficient...

to awaken the opposition of what are called Southern Conservatives...

without actually irritating them; and on the other hand...

it is a spur to those who are not so far from the truth...

as to see that the Confederacy is desperate enough to use any means...

for its preservation. In the former case the people of North Carolina...

themselves, and in the latter case they are willing to accept the Union...

the Georgians, who are jealous of the encroachments of the Confederacy...

if not tired of the war, and the original fire-eaters, capitalists, and intricate slaveholders...
