Secretary, JAMES M. SELLERS. December 15—Evening. Business generally has been dull during the past week: This company has large of land, in lee, on Allegheny river, immediately opposite Oil City, and adjoining Laytonia, with 110 rods front on the river, and 75 rods front on Lay's Rus. Hon. C. P. Ramsdell, aditor of the Oil City Monitor, and agent for this land, assures the Company that it will sell in lots for $100,000, reserving the oil right, which is worth $100,000 additional. Immediate revenue will be derived for the commany from the sale of thesa late, and the Company owing to the fluctuations in gold, and the markets for all of the leading articles are firm, but inactive. Bark has declined. Breadstuffs are firmly held. Cotton is better. Coal is dull at former rates. Coffee is scarce, and selling at full prices. Fish unchanged. Fruit is looking up. The Iron market is dull, and there is very tile doing. Petroleum has advanced. Naval Stores company from the sale of these lots, and the Company sittle doing. Fetroleum has advanced. Naval Etores are rather firmer. In Provisions there is very little doling, but the market is firm and prices have an upward tendency. Sugar is firm, but there is not much doing. Cloverseed is in demand at full prices. Flaxseed has advanced. Timothy is very dult. Whisky is better. "Wool is without then so yet dult." has two good engines with complete fixtures, to operate immediately for oil. The territory in this immediate locality has never failed to produce profitably. Cloverseed is in demand at full prices. Flaxseed has advanced. Timothy is very dull. Whisky is better. Wool is without charge.

The Flour market is quiet, there being very little demand for export or home nee, and holders are more anxious to sell at about former rates. Sales comprise about 6, (70 barrels at $11001125 for extra. and $11 5000. 1250 $2 bibl for extra family, including 2 500 bibls City Mills on private terms. The Shoe and Leather Reporter says: There is almost a dead calm in the shoe trade the present week, and trade will now be quiet until after our dealers and manufacturers have taken account of stock, and made their arrangements for the business of the year 1865. Manufacturers have taken account of stock, and made their arrangements for the business of the year 1865. Manufacturers are making up a few goods, preparing for the usual influx of customers in January, but they are moving very cantiously. There are considerable stocks of boys' and youths' boots on the market to be carried over. The call for boots, recently so exive, has fallen off, and the demand of grain boots is over. We look for a quiet market in all branches for the best fortinght. The total shipment of boots and shoes by rail and sea for the week have been 7,685 cases. Of this number 7,085 cases have been tent by Tail as follows:

THE SPLENDID LARGE PAPER, "MILTON,

OMPLETE."

MILTON'S WORKS, Gaxton edition, on large paper.

This is the first complete edition of Milton eyer issued to this country. It is most sumptionally printed at The Caxton Press, on the best heavy laid paper, made expressly for it. The "Postical Works" are from the text as printed by Pickering with Life and Notes by Mitford and others, in a bold and very distinct type; and "The Prose Works" are from the edition superintended by the late Rafus W: Griswold, and printed from the text of Pickering's edition. As thore has been printed but a small edition of 250 copies, and it can not be reprinted, as the plates have been melted up, this superb large-paper issue of Milton must rank as the best for the library of the gentleman of taste, and increase in value. Price in 4 vols., imperial Svo., folded; $16; Gloth, uncut, $16; half Rox burgh Morocco, uncut, top edge gilt, $22.50; Half Calf Gilt, or Antique, $5; Full Calf extra, $30.

Acopy of this edition would make a superb presentation book, and be an ornament to any library.
