THE TRI-WERKLY PRESS.

ribers, Five Dollars Per Ansun, in a a trad.

VOL. 8.-NO. 131.

PHILADELPHIA. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1864.

FOUR CENTS.

TURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1864. 1864.

CALENDAR FOR THE YEAR.

RE PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

ORONOLOGY OF THE CAMPAIGNS

TAILS AT HOME AND ABROAD.

HAT EUROPE HAS DONE IN 1864.

poluge of War, Pence, Art, Science. Discovery, Commerce, Adveninre. Enterprise. Diplomacy and Death, de., de., dec., JANUARY. FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1864. great snow-storm commences in the West; alralizoads completely blooked up, revolution occurs at Matamoros, Mexico, takes charge of the city.

lish insurrection still in progress. ing of Denmark and his son meet with a mine reception at Flensburg on their route to nish army at Schleswig.

Emperor Louis Napoleon makes a New speech, in which he says that he hopes the tyear will bring peace and reconcillation to SATURDAY, 2.
military Department of Kansas, including aith, created. Major Gen. Curtis assigned ommand. Herron assumes command of the United week of prayer appointed by the Evangelleal of thought the world commences. Hughes, Archishop of New York, dies. triel of the Chesapeake birates, Collins, Mo-try, and Scoly, commences before the police rates at St. Johns, N. B. rates at St. Johns, N. B. address to the Emperor Napoleon introduced a Corps Legislatif of France; expesses the the chinese and Mexican expeditions, and rextors the Limperor's sheme for a Congress, TURBLAY, 5.

President addresses a short message to Considerating a reconsideration of the law paying hit of $200 to veteran volunteers up to the 5th musry, recommending that the time be exited to rebruary let. February 1st.
Stoneman appointed to the chief com-he cavalry under General Grant.
(General Octooran. axara, Mexico, occupied by 14,000 French ng of Denmark visits the Danish fortifica refror Seymour, of New York, addresses a tnessage to the Legislature of New York, riteen thousand reserves called ont by the King mark to resist the encroachment of the allied an Powers.

in Powers.

S. Grant, brigadier general of the regular promoted to be major general of the regular promoted to be major general of the regular rod do a from the fall of Vicksburg.

The first the regular army, and the regular army, and the regular army, be determined in the regular army, to date from the of Chicksmaugs.

The first to date from the regular army is described by the delice generals of volunteers, promote brigadiez generals in the regular army, the timent of the first to date from the bettle of shurg, of the last two from the fail of Vicksaidi formally resigns his seat in the Italian ent. Caleb B. Smith, Judge of the United States Court and ex-Secretary of the Interior, dies dinapolis.

Danes make active preparations for war. The ern part of Rendsburg occupied by Danish e Princess of Woles gives birth to a son at more, motion made to expel the Hon. Garrett Davis, entucky, for using treasonable language in the te, on the 7th instant. State Convention, held in Arkansa, prohibits

SATURDAY, 9.

Francisville, Ls., destroyed by the Union s, in retaliation for the shooting of the ex-enging of the rebel gunboat McRea.

SUNDAY, 10.

Major Cole.

Najor Cole. by Major Cole.

MONDAY, 11.

Petomac river frozen over for the first time in years.

Thiers, in the French Chamber of Deputies, a strongly in favor of increased liberty in strongly in favor of increased liberty in strongly in favor of the State does now how to concede, the country will exact which it now respectfully requests."

Brough inaugurated Governor of Ohio at ion League of Philadelphia hold a meetthe Union League of Philadelphia hold a meetin which they endorse the conduct of Abraham boom, and recommend him as a proper candidate
the next Presidency.
The battle of Smithfield, Va. The Union troops, ler Captain Lee, defeated by the rebels.
TUBSDAY: 12.
TUBSDAY: 12.

If John Laurente, the new vicercy of India, arsat Calcutta.

SATURDAY, 9.

Entolacutta.

Erkradier General Marston makes a raid into etworeland. Northumberland, and Riemman mitter. Virginia, and captures. 25 prisoners, 60 ms. 20 mules, 65 head of cittle, and 108 sheep. Conferrable fighting occurs among the Mexicans Matamores. General Herron sends a portion of torces across the Nic Grande river to protect the moros. al Heintzelman placed in command of the n Convention.

Logislature of Kentucky pass a bill prohibit-importation of slaves into that State.

The importation of slaves into that State.

Thursby 14: 14.

Inder the protection of General Herron's forces a American consul at Matamoros, with $2,000,000 (property belonging to American citizens and the litel States Government, is brought over the Rio India to Brownsville, Texas.

In Cardinal's hat conferred on Bishop Bonnetic. The Emperor Napoleon responds in a speech Ecuncing liberal sentiments.

FRIDAY, 15.

A resolution passed in the Senate of the State of the Vork, proposing a change in the State Constitutes as at to allow the soldiers to vote, unanilouze Viti recognized by the President as vice along viti recognized by the Treatment of San Sand of Italy.

Sarurday, 15.

The Western Paofice Ratirond opened to San Jose, this from San Francisco, California.

Baor General Curtis assumes command of the Mansas, antria and Prussia decide on the military occurity of Schleswig in opposition to the Federal let.

The Spanish Ministry resign.

SUNDAY, 17.

Samuel Jones, a Union soldier, hanged at Smith's sills, N. O., by order of the rebel General Pickett, retaliation for a rebel soldier hanged December 1863, by order of Brigadier General Wild. The rebel army under Longstreet advance towards noxylile, East Tennessee. noxylle, East Tennessee. Monday, 18. General Butler pronounced an outlaw by the robel ogress. hew Spanish Ministry formed, with Lorenzo new Spanish ministry formed, who are the vicinity hall as President.

Eanguitary conflict takes place in the vicinity Curn Sicekan, between the Polish insurgents der Borsach and the Russians.

Jennark rejects the Austro-Prussian ultimatum the withdrawal of the obnoxious Constitution of Andrew G. Curtin reinaugurated Governor insylvania.

Jeneral Sturgis retreats from Strawberry Platas Kboxville, Tenn., and in the evening crosses the setter river, with the view of intercepting the els at Seviersville. Uels at Seviersville.

WEDNESDAY, 20.

The chip Elvira, Captain Andrews, from Calcutta closton, with a valuable cargo, founders in the crew saved.

The Austro-Prussian troops march into Schleswig.

Itaco made between New Grenada and Equador. THURSDAY, 21.
The port of Campachy surrenders to the French ite Magellan. United States steamer Lilly Martin captured Napoleon by guerillas. e President addresses a note to Lord Lyons, the President indirectors in British Government pursue hostile Indians into British America, or retrain them from making incursions into the little States from the British Provinces. Lord tens promises to refer the matter to his Government. PRIDAY, 22.

General Schofield ordered to relieve General Fostet, in command of the Department of the Chio.
General Rosecrans assigned to the Department of Convention of Arkansas takes he inauguration of the officers chosen by the Maximilian, Archduke of Austria, accepts the Maximilian, Archduke of Austria, accepts the Micklean crown.

The Government of Spain proposes to appoint a Minister to Mexico as soon as it receives official acides of the coronation of Meximilian.

Miximilian leaves for Trieste to make preparations for his journey to Mexico.

RONDAY, 25.
Athens captured by the rebel Gen. Forrest.
The President authorized by Congress to confer its rank of leutenant general, by and with the addice and consent of the Senate, on any officer in the military service of the United States, distinguished for courage, skill, and ability, and not under the rank of major general, who shall command all the articles in the United States.

The Prussian troops enter Kiel. The Saxons oles in the United States.

Prussian troops enter Kiel. The Saxons aw Dune Augustenburg's Citizen Guard withdrawn. National Committee of Rome publish an adcesto the citizens of Italy, calling upon them to make itoms the capital of Italy.

TUSDAY, 23,

then. Wilson, of Gen. Grant's staff, appointed to succeed Gen. Stoneman as Chief of the Uavalry Butan. Gen. Stoneman as unsumes command of the Cayalry in ten, Crant's Department.

An expedition sent into Jones and Onslow counties, N. O., touts the robels, captures twenty-three men, destroys large quantities of provisions, and captures a large number of mules and horses.

Gen. Graham, sent out by Gen. Butler on an expedition on the Peninsula, north of the James, captures a number of the enemy, and a large amount of stores and provisions. WEDNESDAY, 27. WEDNESDAY, 27.

Gen. Sturgis gains a victory over the rebel cavalry, near the "Fair Grandens," ten miles east of . Seviersville, Tennessee; sixty five rebels killed and wounded, and two steel-rified guns and over one wounded, and two steel-rifled guns and over one hundred prisoners captured.

The Ladies' Great National Sanitary Fair inaugurated at Washington

The rebel General Roddy driven by the United States forces to the north side of the Teanesses river; all his trains captured.

General Sherman organizes an important expedition at Memphis. dition at Memphis.

FRIDAY, 29.

General Resecrans assumes command of the Department of Missouri.

General Palmer, with General Davis' division, makes a successful reconnoissance five miles north of Transel Hill, Ga, driving in the enemy's plokets and capturing a company of rebel cavalry, causing the rebels to retreat from Tunnel Hill, with a loss of thirty two killed and wounded. Union loss, two wounded. SATURDAY, 30.

An expedition under General Sherman leaves Vicksburg, Miss.

The Union garrison of Petersburg, West Virginia. under Col. Thoburn, evacuate the place in anticipation of an attack of the rebels with a superior force. force. Marshal Wrangel summons the Danes to evacuate Schleswig. Gen. De Mega, the Danish commander, refuses; whereupon the Prussians pass the frontier. Shots are exchanged, and the Danes retreat after blowing up the Long Bridge.

The Austrian and Prussian ambassadors leave lopenhagen. Governor Gamble, of Missouri, dies at St. Louis. SUNDAY, SI.

The Navejo Indians, New Mexico, defeated by Indians, New Mexico, defeated by TEAR'S PLACE IN HISTORY Ool. Rie Oarson; 25 Indians killed and 150 taken FEBRUARY. MONDAY, PEBRUARY 1. The President orders a new draft for 500,000 men, to serve for three years or during the war, to be made on the 10th of March.

The Allied German cavalry enter Schleswig, through Rendsburg.
Mr. Bajard, of Delaware, having taken the oath of alleglance, tenders his resignation to the U.S. of allegiance, tenders his resignation to the U.S. Senate.

The Danish war begins. An engagement, lasting six hours, takes place between the Allied German forces and the Danesjat, Nussundl. The Germans are repulsed four times. The Prussians lose 100 men, the Austrians 519 men and 30 officers. Danish loss from 150 to 200 killed and missing.

The railroad between Newport and Moorhead City, N. C., seized by the rebels, who destroy the gunboat Underwriter and attack the United States post at Newport and surround that of Evans' Hill. Weddings and the prisoners recaptured.

The rebels who destroyed the Patterson-creek bridge yesterday, overtaken and routed by General Averill, and the prisoners recaptured.

The rebels leave Newport and Evans' Hill, N. C., and retire rowards Kingston.

The U.S. steamer Levi captured and burned, by the rebels at Red House, on the Kanawha river, West Virginia.

A cavalry expedition, under Gen. Smith, leaves Memphis for Curinth.

The Danes attracked at Bistore, one mile south of Schleswir, by the Austrians, lose one field-piece, but hold their position.

Marshal Wrangel, of Prussia, issues a proclamabut hold their position.

Marchal Wrangel of Pruests, issues a proclamation to the Schleswigers, asying that the civil commissioners of Austria and Pruests will assume the administration of the Duchy of Schleswig only, and not of Schleswig and Holstein. General Early deseated by Colonel Mulligan, at General Early deceated by Colonel Mulligan, at Moorfield, W. Va.
General Shorman attacks the rebels near Clinton,
Miss., and loses 16 killed and 30 wounded.
Opening of Parliament.
PRIDAY, 5.
Porter and Shorman's expedition arrives at Sardalla, on the Yazoo river.
ATURDAY, 6.
An expedition, under Brig. Gen. Wistar, attempts to liberate the Libby prisoners in Richmond, but falls on account of information given to the rebel authorities by deserters from the Union lines.
The Danes evacuate Schieswig and Danneworke, and retire to Flensburg, pursued by the allied German forces. A rebel force of Indians and whites routed at Gen. Sherman's expedition crosses the Big Black river, 15 miles above Vicksburg.

Gen. Logan leaves Huntsville, Ala., with the 15th Anny Corps, to co-operate with Gen. Sherman.

The Danes attacked and defeated by the Prussians at Duppel.

TUSEDAY, 9. The Rigsred, at Copenhagen, Denmark, vete an address to the Danish army, announcing their determination to prosecute the war energetically.

The Prussians occupy Flensburg and the Austrians Trough. The Prussians occupy Flensburg and the Austrians Trocup.

Austria accepts the proposition of Denmark, that a delay of eight weeks shall be allowed for Danish and Austrian ships, with cargoes (materials of war excepted), to leave the harbors of both countries.

Denmark orders that the Bremen and New York mail steamers shall not be molested.

WEDNESDAY, 10.

Judge Stewart, of the Admiralty Court at St.

Johns, N. B., decides that the Chesapeake and her cargo shall be returned to her owners upon the payment of the legal expenses of the court. The great 20 inch Rodman gun successfully cast at Pittsburg. Penna.

The great 20 inch Rodman gun successfully cast at Pittsburg. Penna.

One hundred and nine Union officers escape from Linby prisen; Richmond.

The Joanes evacuate Duppeln and retreat to the strong fortress of Alsen.

FRIDAY, 12.

Ferguson's guerilia band, which destroyed the steamboat Levi on the Kanawha river and took Gen. Scammon prisoner, captured by Gen. Duffy.

The recel armies in Arkanss, amounting to 14,000 men; under Price, Marmaduke, Cabell, Shelby, Cooper, and Steele, distributed through various parts of the State.

The Austro-Prussian forces take possession of Jairano, Denmark.

SATURDAY, 13.

The entire line of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad abandoned by the Union troops.

SUNDAY, 14.

The rebel Colonel Ferguson defeated by Major Gallup in Western Virginia, with a loss of sixty prisoners and a Jarge amount of military stores.

General Huribut's corps, of Sherman's expedition, enters Meridian, Mississippi.

MODDAY, 15.

The whole of Sherman's expedition enters Meridian, Mississippi, from which place expeditions are sent out which destroy loo miles of track on the Mobile and Ohio Kallroad, and 30,000 feet of bridging and a large amount of rolling stock on the one leading to Seima. Six thousand negroes follow the expedition on its return to Vicksburg.

The pirate Georgia ring away from Oherbourg Roads, France, cluding the United States war vessels.

WEDNESDAY, 17.

The United States corvette Housatonic destroyed by a rebel torpede in Charleston harbor:

General Smith's expedition from Memphis arvives at Pointoto.

The extensive salt works near St. Marks, Florids. General Smith's expectation from meaning arrives at Pointoto.

The extensive salt works near St. Marks, Florida, destroyed by an expedition fitted out from the United States steamer Takoma.

The port of Brownsyllie, Texas, declared open by proclamation of the Fresident.

Sherman's expedition arrives at Quitman, Miss., having torn up the railroad and burned the bridges in his rear. having torn up the railroad and burned the bridges in his rear.
Geteral Smith's expedition arrives at Okalona,
130 total Smith's expedition marches to Egypt
Eistion; on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, where it separates into two columns, both of which desiroy
s vast amount of rebel property.
The Danes evacuate Holding, in Jutland.
SATUEDAY, 20.
The steamship Great Eastern chartered to lay the Atlantic Telegraph cable in May, 1865.
An unsuccessful expedition under General Seymour made to Lake City, Florida; Union loss 300, and 5 guns captured. mour made to Lake City, Fiorida; Union ioss 800, and 5 guns captured.
The robel forces under Longstreet having retreated from Strawberry Plains to Bulls Gap, Gen. Sot ofield occupies the place.
General Smith's expedition advances towards West Point.

West Point. SUNDAY, 21.

General A. J. Smith engages the combined rebal forces of Lee, Forrest, Ohsimers, and Roddy, at West Point. On account of the superiority of the enemy in numbers, he falls back slowly from West Point, destroying all the treatles on the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, several miles of track, and leave quentities of carp. large quantities of corn.

NONDAY, 22.

A call for a National Union Convention at Balti-A call for a National Chief Convention at Pater more, on the 7th of June.

The steamer Bohemian wrecked near Portland, Me.; 20 lives lost.
Gen. Smith's expedition arrived at New Albany on its return to Memphis.
Tursday, 23.
Gen. Grant's army moves from Ringgold towards Tunnel Hill, Ga. The rebels retreat towards Dal-ton. Gen. Grant's army advances to within three miles of Dalton.
The rebel General Longstreet retreats towards Greenville. The rebel General Longstreet retreats towards Greenville.

THURSDAY, 25.

General Sigel assigned to the command of the Department of Western Virginia.

General Smith's expedition returns safely to Memphis, having destroyed 1,000,000 bushels of corn and many miles of the Memphis and Ohio Railread, and slee brings in 1,500 mules and horses, 2,000 negroes, and 300 rebel prisoners.

The trial of the four Italians—Greco, Trabuco, Imperatori, and Sagilo—accused of a conspiracy to assassinate the French Emperor, commences.

FRIDAY, 26.

The widow of General Harrison dies at North Bend, Ohio.

Both Houses of the Rigsrad, Denmark, adopt an address to the King in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war and the maintenance of the union with Schleswig.

General Sherman's expedition reaches Canton, Miss., on its return to Vicksburg. General Sherman's expedition reaches Canton, Miss., on its return to Vicksburg.

SATURDAY, 28.

Denmark refures to comply with any proposition for a conference with respect to the settlement of the Danish trouble until Scaleswig is evacuated by the Austro-Prueslan forces.

The rebel Government works on Goose creek, Florida, destroyed by a detachment of marines under the command of Acting Master Weeks. The rebel loss in this expedition and that of the 17th, 18th, and 19th instant, $3,000,000 of property.

SUNDAY, 28.

The English schooner Lily captured by the United States steamer Penobscot, eight miles from Velasco, Texes.

[exss. General Kilpatrick starts on a raid towards Rich mond.
General Custer makes a successful reconnoissance to Stannardsville. Virginia; 50 rebels, a large number of negroes, 300 horses, and a large quantity of stores captured.
General Sherman reaches Vicksburg in advance of his army, and shortly after leaves for New Orleans to consult with General Banks in regard to the Red River expedition.

Monday, 29.

General Kilpstrick's expedition arrives at Spottsylvania Court House, Virginia, Ulysses S. Grant nominated Lieutenant General. MAROH.

TUESDAY, MARCH 1.

General Kilpatrick's expedition arrives at Louisa Court House, Va., destroying railroad bridges, etc.
The pirate Florida escapes from Funchal, Madeira.
WEDNESDAY, 2.

The nomination of Major General Grant to the position of lieutenant general in the army of the United States confirmed by the Senate.
Gen. Kilpatrick arrives safely within Butler's lines, having out off communication between Richmond and Lee's army.
A great fire occurs in the oil regions, Oil creek, Pa.; from 30,000 to 40,000 barrels of oil destroyed.

THUESDAY, 3.
A new postal law passed requiring the free delivery of mail matter by carriers.

FEIDAY, 4.

Can Sharmank and strong carriers. THERDAY, MARCH 1. Gen. Sherman's expedition leaves Canton, Miss., on its return to Vicksburg.

Michael Hahn inaugurated Governor of Louisians at New Orleans.

The Rev. Thomas Starr King dies at San Francisco, Cal. SATURDAY, 5.
General Grant arrives at Louisville en route Weshington.
Secretary Chase refuses to be a candidate for the next Presidency.
The Archduke Maximilian arrives at Paris, on his FBY to Mexico.

A severe earthquake felt in San Francisco, Oal.

The Austrian troops arrive before Duppel, Den SUNDAY, 6

Twenty-three Union North Carolina volunteer, hanged by the rebeis, at Kingston, N. C., for desertion. tien.
The U.S. steamer Peterhoff sunk off Wilmington,
N. O., in a collision with the U.S. steamer Monticello. The crew saved by the steamer Spaulding.
MONDAY, 7.
The Italian man-of war II Re Galantuomo founders at sea, in long. 64 20, lat. 40.40, with 466 persons on board.

the Italian man-of-war II Re Galantuomo lounders at sea, in long, 64 20, lat. 40.40, with 466 persons on board.

The rebel tug Titañ burned by the rebels at Freeport, to prevent her falling into the hands of the Union forces.

Rear Admiral Porter assembles a formidable flect of iron-clads and of light-draught wooden boats at the mouth of the Red river, for co-operation with General Barks' army. A portion of Major General Sherman's forces, under Major General A. J. Smith, rendezvous at the same place.

Tusshay, 8.

Telegraphic communication established between San Francisco and Portland, Oregon.

General Sherman's expedition returns safely to Vioksburg, Mississippi.

The Prusslans advance to Londerskogh, Denmark, driving the Danes back to Frederica, and capturing 150 prisoners.

WEDNESDAY, 9.

A lieutenant general's commission presented to General Grant. General Grant.

THURSDAY, 10.

General Sigel assumes command of the Department of Western Virginia, with his headquarters at Comberland, Maryland.

ceneral Siger assumes command of the Department of Western Virginia, with his headquarters at Comberland, Maryland.

FEDAX, 11.

The President sends a message to Congress establishing the initial point of the Pacific Railroad on the Missouri river.

BATURDAX, 12.

The reservoir of the water works at Sheffield, England, covering 75 acres, bursts, and more than 200 persons are drowned.

Misjor Gen. T. Sherman assigned to the command of the military division of the Mississippi, composed of the Department of the Ohio, the Cumperland, the Tennesses, and the Arkansas.

The land and naval forces commanded respectively by Gen. A. J. Smith and Admiral Porter move up the Red river to form a junction with Major Gen. Banks at Alexandria.

SUNDAY, 18.

Indianola, Texas, evacuated by the Union troops. MONDAX, 14.

Manzanilia and Acapulco, in Mexico, declared in a state of blockade by the French Admiral.

TURSDAY, 15.

A draft for 200,000 more men ordered by the President. Bounties to be continued to the 15th of April.

Fort De Russey, on the Hed river, captured by General A. J. Smith, with 250 prisoners, 8 heavy, gurs, 2 field pleces, and all the munitions of war. The Prussian ports of Commin, Swinemunde, Nolgast, Griefswalce, Straisund, and Barth declared by the Danesin a state of blockade.

Wannesday, 16.

Duppel, Denmark, vigorously bombarded by the allied German forces.

THURSDAY, 17.

Lieutenant General Grant formally assumes com-

THUESDAY, 17.

Lieutenant General Grant formally assumes command of the armies of the United States.

A battle occurs between the Danes and Germans at Duppeln. The Tongeberry position is taken from the Danes after a horoic resistance. Brig. Gen. O. Wilcox assigned to the command of the District of the Clinch, in East Tennessee with his headquarters at Tazewell or Cumberland with his headquarters at Tazewell or Cumberland Gap.

Three Prussian men-of-war attacked the Danish blockading, squadron off Griefswakie, Pomerante, but afteran engagement of two hoffische former retire.

SATURDAY, 19.
The Danish Government decrees the release of Hanoverlan ships under embargo in Danish ports.

NONDAY, 21.
A successful reconnoissance made to Natchitoches, seventy five miles above Alexandria, Le., by the Union forces under Gen. Mower; 4 guns and caissons and 200 prisoners captured.

Najor General Wallace assumes command of the Middle Department, with his headquarters at Baltimore.

Tuesday, 22.

THE EARL of Aberdeen dies.

The Earl of Aberdeen dies.

The Earl of Aberdeen dies.

The island of Femern, near the Dutchies of Schleswig and Holstein, blockaded by the Danes.

WEDNESDAY, 23.

The Army of the Potomac reorganized by Gen.
Grant and consolidated to three corps under Hancotok, Sedgwick, and Warren.

THURSDAY, 24.

THURSDAY, 24.

Lieut. Gen. Grant assumes direct command of the Army of the Potomac at Culpeper, Va.

PRIDAY, 26.

Paducah, Ky., captured by the rebels under Forrest. rational, Ay, captured by the tabels under Forrest.
Death of Admirál Penaud of France.
Gen. Sherman commences a tour of inspection of the armies under his commend in Alabama and Tennessee.

EATURDAY, 28.

The rabels under Forrest evacuate Paducah, Ky
A successivi reconnoissage, under Captain Gra ham, made towards Greenville; N. C.; 8 rebels killed, and 7 wounded.

SUNDAY, 27. nam, made towards Greenville; N. C.; 8 rebels Filled; and J woulfied.

SUNDAY, 27.

Gen. Seymour relieved of his command in Florida, and succeeded by Brig. Gen. Heth.

TURSDAY, 29.

The 1st Army Corps of the Army of the Potomac reviewed by Generals Grant and Meade.

WEDNESDAY, 30.

A Union expedition to Mount Elbat, Long View Arkaness, under Col. Clayton, destroys the pontion bridge at Long View and 35 wagons containing military equipments, and captures 323 prisoners. The Prussians attempt to carry Duppel by storm, but are repulsed after a five hours engagement.

360 persons, professing "peace principles," under Sheriff John S. O'Hair, attack some Union soldiers near Charleston, III. A portion of the 54th Illinois Regiment succeed in quelling the outbreak.

TRURSDAY, 31.

The Illinois rioters dispersed.

A number of marine disasters occur along the Atlantic deast of the United States.

A number of marine disasters occur along the At ntic coast of the United States. APRIL. FRIDAY, APRIL 1. The United States steamer Maple Leaf destroyed y a rebel torpedo, on her return from Pilatka to acksonville, Fla. The Red River Expedition leaves Alexandria for Shrevoport.

SATURDAY, 2.

The rebel Gen. Shelby attacks the rear guard of Gen. Steele's expedition into Kansas, but is repulsed with a loss of 100 killed and wounded. Union loss 44 killed and wounded, and 16 prisoners.

SUNDAY, 3.

Cape Lookout Lighthouse destroyed by the rebels. Garibaidi lands at Southampton, on a visit to Longen, England.

Sonderburg, Denmark, bombarded and burned by the Frusians.

80 women and children killed.

Sonderburg, Denmark, hombarded and burned by the Frustans. So women and children killed.

The Great Fairfor the benefit of the United States Sanitary Commission opened at New York.

The Monroe doctrine unanimously re-asserted by the House of Representatives at Washington.

The schooner Mary Darley captured off Calveston, Teas, by the U. S. steamer Sciota.

A gunboat expedition leaves Norfolk for the Chickabomby river.

General Marmaduke, with 4,000 cavairy and flyopieds of artillery, attacks the expedition into Kansas, under General Steele. After five hours fighting the rebels are repulsed.

Tuesday, 5.

The Red River Expedition, under General Banks, arrives at Grand Ecore, La.

The Military Department of the Monongahela and Susquebanna consolidated under the command of General Couch.

THURSDAY, 7.

General Steele's Expedition arrives at a point on the Little Missouri River, five miles south of Ekin's Ferry.

The battle of Pleasant Hill, Louislana, commences Ferry.
The battle of Pleasant Hill, Louislana, commences between the Union forces, under General Banks, and the rebels, under Richard Taylor. The former are repulsed.

ERIDAY, S. Major General Hunter makes a reconn internal funiter makes a reconnessance from Martinsburg towards Winchester, during which he encounters the rebel General Imboden, lear Winchester, and from 50 to 100 men are lost on ooth sides.

The second battle of Pleasant Hill, La., fought free Union forces, under Banks, are successful.

The Prussians recommence the bombardment o Sonderberg.

The third day's battle near Pleasant Hill, Les fought. The Union troops are forced to return Grand Beore. Thirty guns and 4,000 prisoners r proted captured.

The resolution to expel Alexander Long, Representative from the Second Congressional District of Onto from the House of Representatives lost. A resolution censuring Harris for doing the same was Maximilian, archduke of Austria, formally accepts the Mexican crown.

The water in the Red river suddenly falls, leaving forty transports and gunboats of Banks' Expedition above the raft.

The Dutch steamer Hewbrandt, from Stettin for Amsterdam, captured by a Danish man-of war and taken into Copenhagen.

MONDAY, 11.

Garibaldi visits London and meets with a cordial recention. TUESDAY, 12.

TUSBDAY, 12.

Fort Pillow captured by the rebels under Forrest, who make a general massacre of the Union troops, ruthlessly murdering men, women, and children. The Conference with regard to the Danish troubles meets at London. meets at London.

The Welland Canal in Canada opened.
A successful expedition under General Graham made to Smithfield, Va. One commissioned officer, five men, several horces, &c., captured. Pilatka, Florids, evacuated by the Union troops.
Admiral Porter, with 8 gunboats and twenty transports, arrives at Grand Ecore, from Springfield Landing on the Red river, where he finds the vestels left at that peint still detained above the bar, and the waters of the river falling instead of rising. FRIDAY, 15. A rebel attempt to capture General Grant, on his route from Washington to the Army of the Potomac folled.

Fort Pillow destroyed and evacuated by the rebels under Forrest. Brigadier General Klipatrick ordered to take command of the cavalry of the Army of the Cumberland, under Sherman.

The United States steamer Bavaria, from Hamburg to New York, captured by a Danish frigate at the mouth of the Weser river.

A great female riot occurs at Savannah, Georgia. A number of women march through the streets demanding bread or blood.

The rebels besiege Plymouth, North Carolina.

MONDAY, 18. MONDAY, 18.

Duppel in Denmark assaulted and captured by the Prussians. The Danes lose 83 cannon, between 80 and 100 officers, and two or three thousand prisoners. The Prussians lose 2 generals, 60 officers, and 600 privates. The Danes retreat to the island of Alsen.

An unsuccessful attempt made by the rebels to blow up the United States steamer Wabash near Charleston, by a torpedo, results in the destruction of the torpedo boat.

The Emperor Maximilian arrives at Rome.

Major General C. C. Washburne ordered to take command of the military department of West Tennessee instead of General Huribut, relieved.

TUREDAY, 19. command of the inflict, y opportunity relieved.

TURSDAY, 19.

The rebels defeated at Paintsville and Haif Mountain, in Eastern Kentucky. 200 horses, 400 addles, 300 stand of small arms, and all their camp squipage, captured. Loss, in killed and wounded, eighty-five.

The ports of Dantzic and Pillan declared in a state of blockade by the Danes.

The rebel ram Albemarie descends the Roancke river and attacks the United States gunboats lying off Plymouth, N. C., sinking the Smithfield, and seriously injuring the Miami.

The rebel attack on Forts Gray and Wessel repulsed by the Union forces, with the loss of 100 men. Rebel loss 1,600.

WEDLESDAY, 20.

Rebel loss 1,600.

WEDNESDAY, 20.

Plymouth, N. C., captured by the rebels under Gen. Hoke. One brigadier general, 1,600 men, all the stores, and 25 pleess of artillery, fall into their hands.

A great portion of Hickman, Kr., burned by guerillas.

Messrs. Wade and Gooch, of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, arrive at Cairo for the purpose of investigating the Fort Pillow massacre.

The rebel General Beauregard, with a large number of troops, passes through Wilmington, N. O., en route to Richmond.

PRIDAY, 22.

The steamer Idaho collides with a United States gunboat at Paducak, Ky., and is sunk.

Garibaldi leaves London on his return to Caprera. An expedition under General Burnside salis up the Rappahannock river.

General A. J. Smith, with the 18th Army Corps, leaves Grand Ecore, La., and moves to Natchiteches, to guard the flank of the United States army under Banks, and afterwards cover its retreat.

SATURDAY, 23.

The New York Sanitary Fair closes, having realized $1,011,000.

The Governors of Pennsylvania. Indiana. Illinois. The New Luis School, realized $1,011,000.

The Governors of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Onlo tender 100,000 hundred days' men to the President to serve in whatever capacity he may elect.
The tercentetary celebration of the birth of Shak-speare takes place in the principal cities of the Northern States. Northern States.

Major General F. P. Blair, Jr., assigned to the command of the 17th Corps in the Army of the Mississippi. Mississippi.

MONDAY, 25.

The Governor of Indiana issues a proclamation calling for 20,000 volunteers for one hundred days, to serve in whatever capacity the President of the United States may require.

Hon. Simon Cameron chosen chairman of the Union State Central Committee of Rennsylvania. The Lackawanna Railroad bridge destroyed by fire. The army on the Red river reaches a point a miles below Grand Ecore.

MONDAY, MAY 2. The Army of the Potomac, under General Gran commences its advance towards Richmond. commences its advance towards Richmond.

TURDAY, 3.

Commodore Wilkes, of the United States navy, reprimanded for unofficerlike conduct, and suspended from duty for the term of three years.

WEDNESDAY, 4.

General Sherman's army commences its advance against the rebels under Johnston.

The rebels routed at Bull's Gap, Tennessee, by General Schofield.

A cavalry expedition, under General Kautz, sets out from Portsmouth, Va.

THURSDAY, 5.

Gen. Kautz's expedition pass through Windsor, Va., cross over the Wall Bridge, and at night halt at Wakefield, on the Norfolk and Petersonry Railroad, and tear up the track for a considerable distance.

distance.
Gen. Butler moves his army from Newport News to City Point, Va.
Figating commences between Grant's forces and those of Lee.
Capt. Melanethon Smith engages the rebel ram Albemarle, near Plymouth, N. O., with his gunbact destroyers the result of the Albemarle received the support of the sup when darkness intervenes, and the Albema treats up the Roanoke river.

when darkness intervenes, and the Albemarie retreats up the Roanoke river.

PRIDAY, 6.

The Army of the Cumberland, under Major General George H. Thomas, secures a strong position at and hear Ringgold; that of the Tennessee, under General McPherson, at Gordon's Mills, on the Chickamauga, and that of the Ohio, under General Schofield, near Red Clay, on the Georgia line north of Dalton.

General Grant hurls his entire army on Lee at the Wilderness; and drives him three miles; 3,000 of the rebels killed, 10,000 wounded, and 2,000 prisoners left in the hands of the Union forces. The rebels army retreats to Spottsylvania Court House, botty pursued by the Union forces under Grant.

The Union forces under General Butler at Oity Point advance towards Petersburg.

General Birney retrains to Jacksonville from a radi into the interior of Florida, having captured 5,000 cattle, a large number of horses, mules, and other means of transportation, and more than $1,000,000 worth of cotton.

The United States gunboat Commodore Jones blown up by a rebel toppedo, near Turkey Bend, on the James river. Several of the officers and men lilled and forty wounded.

The United States gunboat Granite City and iron-clad Wave captured by the rebels at Sabine Pass.

SATURDAY, 7.

The Union forces under Gen. Thomas move from

Pass.

SATURDAY, 7.

The Union forces under Gen. Thomas move from Gen. Frankes an assault at 4% A. M. on the The Union forces under Gen. Thomas move from Ringgold towards Tunnel, Hill, which they occupy, driving the rebels through Buzzard Roost Gap.

Gen. Kautz's expedition captures a train of three wagons, filled with ammunition, on the road to Littleton. A part of the Weldon and Richmond Railrond is torniffe by Kautz's cavalry to prevent reinforcements from reaching Lee.

An engagement takes place between the Union and rebel forces near Petersburg, in which the latter are driven back three miles.

Fredericksburg, Va., occupied by the Union forces.

The Siberian Telegraph open to Irkutak. Cyrus W. Field receives a message at Queenstown, England, at 10.10 A. M., which was telegraphed from Irkutak, Siberia, a distance of 6,500 miles, at 8.10 A. M. The line is to be extended to the Ohinese fronter, a distance of 470 miles.

The Union forces, under Gen. Schofield, march towards Dalton, Ga., while Gen. Thomas makes a demonstration against Buzzard Roost and Rooky Thanks to God for the signal victorits gained lover. Ringgold towards Tunnel, Hill, which they occupy, driving the rebels through Buzzard Roost Gap.

Gen Kautz's expedition captures a train of three wagons, filled with ammunition, on the road to Littleton. A part of the Weldon and Richmond Railfroad is torning by Kautz's cayairy to prevent reinforcements from reaching Lee.

An engagement takes place between the Union and rebel forces near Petersburg, in which the latter are driven back three miles.

Irkutsk, Siberia, a distance of 6,500 miles, at 8.10 A.

M. The line is to be extended to the Chinese frontier, a distance of 470 miles.

The Union forces, under Gem. Schoffeld, march towards Dallon, Ga., while Gen. Thomas makes a demonstration against Buzzard Roost and Rooky. faced Ridge.

The President calls upon the nation to render thanks to God for the signal victories gained flows the rebois in Virginia.

General Sheridan, and his wall the rear of Low's army; arrives at Beaver Dam; where he destroys three large trains of cars, two fine locomotives, 200,000 pounds of bacon, and other stores, amounting to 1,500,000 rebel rations; also the telegraph and railroad track for about ten miles, and several outverts, and recaptures a number of Union prisoners.

The dam constructed across the Red river, to release the gunboats and transports of Banks' expedition, completed.

A sanguinary battle occurs at Spottsylvania Court House, between the Union army, under Grant holds his position, and severely punishes the enamy.

The U.S. comboat Brewster blown up to a rebel

Grant holds his position, and severely punishes the enemy.

The U. S. gunboat Brewster blown up by a rebel battery on the Appomattox river, Ya.

Weddenshay, 11.

General Sheridan, operating in the rear of Lee's army, captures Ashland Station; destroys one locomotive, one train of cars, an engine-house, two or three Government buildings containing a large amount of stores, six miles of railroad, six culverts, two trestle bridges, and the telegraph wires. He stateaks and routs the rebel cavairy under Stuart, at Yallow Tavern, driving them back towards Ashland across the north fork of the Chickahominy, a distance of four miles, and, pushing on towards Richmond, captures the first line of the enemy's works around that place.

The conference at London in regard to the Danish trouble agrees to a suspension of hostilities for one month, commencing from the 12th of May, on condition that the blockade of the German ports shall be raised.

Little Washington, N. C. set on fire by the rebels The Great Central Fair for the benefit of the United States Sanitary Commission, opens at Logarity Rhiadelphia, at 4 o'clock P. M. The building and iteatreasures are dedicated to the army and havy of the Union: Bishop Simpson accepts the offering in behalf of the President of the United States in the presence of about 7,000 persons. The Nitsonal Union Convention assembles at Baltimore. Six hundred delegates are present. Dr. Breizenridge appointed temporary president. Gen. Sheridan on a raid. Grosses the Pamunkey Rivar, marching by way of Aylett's, and encamps on Henring Creek. dition that the blockade of the German ports shall be raised.

Little Washington, N. C., set on fire by the rebels and entirely destroyed.

The whole of Sherman's army, except Howard's corps and some cavalry, move towards Snake-oreek Gap, Georgia.

THURSDAY, 12.

General Hancock captures three rebel generals and their divisions, amounting to 4,000 men and 30 pieces of artillery, near Spottsylvania. Uonrt House.

General Kantz's cavalry start on another expedition towards Peterburg. They are absent six days, during which time-timy-mass over 350 miles of rebel territory, destroy preperty to the amount of two millionicollars, and temporarily cut off communication with Richmond.

The blockade of the German ports raised by the Danes. One month's truce between the Danes and Germans. River, merching by way of Aylett's, and encamps on Herring Creek.

WEDNESDAY, 8.

The National Union Convention unanimously nominate Abraham Lincoin for the Presidency, and Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, for the Vice Presidency, and adopt a radical anti-slavery platform. Gen: Hunter's forces in the Shenandoah Valley effect a function with those of Crook and Averill.

Gen. Statistan's expedition resumes its march by way of Policat Station, and encamps three miles west of its properties and encamps three miles west of its properties. Station, and encamps three miles west of its properties are the radical station, and encamps three miles west of its properties. For the properties are the trade of the Kentucky Central Bailroad between Cynthians and Paris, and cut the telegraph wires. A portion of them attack a assessing reason of the Louisville and Lexington Railroad near Smithfield, burn the passenger and baggage case, and rob the express car. Another ganged 700 three possession of Paris, Ky.

Gen. Sheridan's expedition march through Childsburg and New Market, and encamp at night on a creek near Young's Bridge.

The rebels under Morgan occupy Falmouth, on the Kentucky Central Railroad, Williamstown, on the turnpike 30 miles from Cincinnati, and Georgetown.

Danes. One month's truce between the Danes and Germans:

PRIDAY, 13.

General Sheridan's cavalry, after having destroyed three-large bridges over the Chickahominy river, encamp at Bottom's Bridge.

The dam constructed by Lleutenant Colonel Balley having reached a height sufficient to enable the gunboats of Banks' expedition to move, they pass down towards the mouth of the Red river insafety. Sherman's forces occupy Dalton.

SATUEDAY, 14.

Johnston's rebel army, occupying a strong position behind Camp Oreek, with its right on some high chestnut hills, near the town of Resaca, forced to evacuate the town. General Hooker captures a large number of prisoners. Union loss, 5,000; rebel loss the same. the turnpike 30 miles from Cincinnati, and George-town.

Gen. Burbridge attacks and defeats a portion of Morgan's Yurces at Mount Sterling, Ky.

The Union forces under Hunter burn all the Go-vernment and railroad buildings at Staunton, Va., and destroy a portion of the railroad east of that place, burning and bending the rails.

While a detachment of Gen. Butler's forces under Gen. Gillmore make a demonstration on Petersburg and carry the rebel outer works, Gen. Butler sends out a force which succeeds, without loss, in destroy-ing three of four miles of the Petersburg and Rich-mond Railroad.

FRIDAX, 10. oss the same. General Sheridan's cavalry reach the left bank of Turkey Island and form a junction with General of Turkey Island and form a junction with General Butler's forces.

The first line of rebel works at Drury's Bluff, on the James river, carried by the Union forces under General Smith.

General Canby arrives at the mouth of the Red river, and takes command of the Department of West Mississippi.

SUNDAY, 15.

The rebel army, under General Johnston, retreats south across Costenaula river, hotly pursued by Generals McPherson and Schofield.

General Sigel defeated by the rebels under Early, at New Market, in the Shenandoah Valley, with a loss of five pieces of artillery, 800 killed and wounded, and 50 taken prisoners. He retreats towards Strasburg. mond Railroad.

FRIDAY, 10.

Gen. Sheridan's expedition marches via Andrew's Tavern and Leviman's Store, crosses both branches of the North Anna, and encamps at night at Buckchild's, three miles north of Trevillian Station.

Gen. Sturgis deleated by a portion of the rebel Forrest's command at Guntown.

A portion of Morgan's forces enter Lexington, Ky., and purn the Kentucky Central Railroad depot, rob a number of stores, and leave at 10 o'clock P. M. in the direction of Georgetown and Frankford, pursued by the Union forces under Gen. Burbridge. ourg.
The Red river expedition arrives safely at the mouth of the Red river. mouth of the Red river.

MONDAY, 18.

Resacs occupied by General Sherman's forces. A fourgun battery and a large amount of stores found in the town.

General Butler repulsed by the enemy at Drury's Bluff; regains his lines and severely punishes the ford, pursued by the Union forces under Greil. Burbridge.

Gen. Kautz charges the rebel works at Petersborg, Va., carries them, and penetrates the town, capturing 40 prisoners and one piece of artillery, but not being supported by Gen Gilmore, is forced to withdraw.

One thousand two hundred rebels commence an attack on Frankfort, Ky., at 6 c'clock P. M., which lasts till dark, and continues at intervals during the ebels.

A rebel attack on the Union forces in front of A rebut states on the Chick the Article Article Petersburg handsomely repulsed.

TUESDAY, 17.

Gen. Kautz returns to City Point from his raid on the Danville Railroad, having destroyed it for several miles, burned the railroad bridge over the Appomattox, and destroyed the dams, locks, and embankments of the Lynchburg and Richmond Canal. Gen. Sheridan's expedition encounters some rebel cavalry at Buckchild's Station, which it defeats, driving them from successive lines of breastworks back on Trevillian Station. Gen. Custer getting in the rear of the rebel cavalry, they break into a complete rout, leaving their dead, nearly all their wounded, 20 officers, 500 men, and 300 horses, in the hands of the Union forces. Gen. Sheritan encamps for the night at Trevillian Station.

Gen. Sherman disposes his forces in such a manner as to break the rebel lines between Kenesaw and Pine Mountains.

Frankfort, Ky., placed under martial law, Three thousand rebels occupy the stockades three miles from that place, to prevent aid reaching it from Louisville. They commence an attack on the place at 7 A. M., which continues until 2. P. M. Two robel demands to surrender the fort are refused. They away in an easterly direction. Union less 6 woundadd. Rebel loss unknown. Canal.

Active preparations for war made by Peru and some other South American republies against Spain, on account of the Spanish possession of the Chincha Islands.

WEDNESDAY, 18.

Gen. Sherman's army advances to Kingston, Georgia. Georgia.

An attempt by Ewell's corps to turn the right of Grant's aimy folied by Birney's and Tyler's divisione and some of Warren's troops. A great number of the rebels are killed and wounded, and 300 prisoners taken. Union loss 150 killed and missing, and 600 wounded. and 600 wounded.

THURSDAY, 19.

Nathaniel Hawthorne, the great American author, suddenly died at Plymouth, N. H.

Major General Hunter placed in command of the military department of Western Virginia, including the Shenandeah Valley.

Gen. Grant, by a successful flank movement, compels Lee to abandon Spottsylvania and fall back be youd the North Anna river.

A severe shock of an earthquake felt at San Francisco, California.

SATURDAY, 21. Ira B. Tuttle, chief of scouts of the Army of the Cumberland, with four men, makess daring descent on a forego post fourteen miles southwest of Atlanta, capturing a rebel lieutenant colonel, a captuin and others, including a sergeant, and burning a storehouse containing 50,200 bushels of corn, &c. Capt. Blaser's scouts capture 7 canal boats, containing 6 cannon, 8,000 rounds of ammunition, and a large amount of commissary stores, near Lexington, Va. cisco, California.

A rebel attack on Fort Powhatan, on the James river, repulsed by Butler's troops.

SUNDAY, 22.

A disastrous flood occurs at Cherry Creek, Nevada Territory. Fifteen or twenty persons are drowned and fifty houses swept away. Loss of property $1,-000.000.

A thin care, a gain of construction of personal magnification construction a layer amount of commissary stores, near Lexington, Va.

SUNDAY, 12.

The rebel forces under Gen. Morgan defeated at Cynthiana, Ky., by the Union forces under Gen. Burbridge, after an hour's fighting. Three hundred killed and 400 taken prisoners. Nearly all of Hoson's command, and over 1,000 horses are recaptured. The Union less 150 killed. Morgan's force disperse in all directions.

Gen. Sheridan's expedition destroys the railroad from Trevillian Station to Louiss Court House, burning the ties and rendering the rails unserviceatile. At 3 P. M. they encounter a rebel force at Gordonsville, by whom they are twice repulsed, when night closes the contest. Being out of amount into the expedition withdraws during the night, and next morning oreseasthe North Anna River by way of Carpetter's Ford, near Miner's Bridge.

The Emperor Maximilian enters the City of Mexico.

MONDAY, 13.

Gen. Sheridan raturns from his raid, having danand fifty houses swept away. Loss of property 31000,000.
Gen. Hancock's forces occupy the bridge over the
Gen. Sheridan devices the raits on the Philadelphia, and Baltimore, and Enterny Gen.
Major General Franklin, being on one of the trains, burning the ties and rendering the rails unservices.
Major General Franklin, being on one of the trains, occup, on the Philadelphia, and the nestroy the restrict one at the principle of the more apparent on the Philadelphia, and the feature, and the relations of the Philadelphia, and the feature, and the relations of the Philadelphia, and the relations of the Philadelphia, and the relations of the Thing of General Franklin, being on one of the trains, force at gent one occupant, and the relations of the Philadelphia, and the relations of the Philadelphia of the Philadel

Green, eighteen miles from Fredericksburg, at night.

WEDNESDAY, 25.

The rebel army under Lee crosses the North Anna river; closely pursued by the Army of the Potomac, under Grant.

A rebel attack on Butler's position, at Wilson's Wharf, on the north side of the James, below Fort Powhiatan, repulsed by two regiments of colored troops, under Gen. Wild.

The batle of New Hope Church, Georgia, fought.

The batle of New Hope Church, Georgia, fought.

The batle of New Hope Church, Georgia, fought.

The Ballas road, two miles below Pumpkin-vine Greek, and drove them two miles. At night the might.

WEDNESDAY, 25.

The rebel army under Lee crosses the North Anna river, closely pursued by the Army of the Potomac, under Grant.

A rebel attack on Butler's position, at Wilson's Wharf, on the north side of the James, below Fort Powhiatan, repulsed by two regiments of colored troops, under Gen. Wild.

The battle of New Hope Church, Georgia, fought. The 2d Division of the 20th Corps of Sherman's army snounter Hood and Hardse's rebel corps on the Hallas read, two miles below Pumpkin-vine Creck, and drove them two miles. At night the Union forces throw up earthworks within three hundred yards of the rebel army.

An unsuccessful raid on the mainland, above Beaufort, South Carolina, made by Col. Montgomery. It fails through the unfathfulness of the pillot. Marietta.
The advance of the Army of the Potomac cros wednesday, 15.

At 7.20 P. M. Gon. Smith assaults and carries the principal line of the enemy's entrenchments before Petersburg, capturing 13 cannon, several, stand of colors, and between three and four thousand prisonpilot.

THUESDAY, 26.

Gen. Lee's army occupies a strong position between the North and South Anna rivers. The army of the Potomac, under Grent, withdraws to the north side of the North Anna river, and moves towards Hanover Town, on the Pamunkey river, in order to cross it and flank Lee's army.

An accidental explosion of four torpedoes takes place at Batchelor's Creek, North Carolina, by which forty negroes and soldiers are killed. ors.

Gen. McPherson again advances against the re-bels strongly entropehed at Lost Mountain.

Vallandigham returns to the United States after his exile in Canada. Death of Smith O'Brien.

The 9th Corps of the Army of the Potomac carry two more redoubts forming the defences of Petersburg, capturing 450 prisoners and 4 guns.

Gen. Hunter attacks the rebels in a strong position five miles from Lynchburg, and drives them two miles. wo miles.

The President and his wife visit the Sanitary Fair t Philadelphia.

BRIDAY, 27.

Gen. Sheridan, with two divisions of cavalry, takes possession of Hanover Ferry and Hanover own. Hon Jothua R. Giddings suddenly dies at Mon-

President.
A rebel attack on Sherman's army repulsed. The pantards. The blockade runner Rose run ashore near Charles-the S. C., by the U.S. steamer Wamsutta, sta-lined at Georgetown, S. C. apulco, Mexico, captured by the French fleet. Cap. Hunter occupies Stannton, Va.

JUNE.

A rapel attack on Sherman's army i let of the Union army occupies a po rapposed in the vicinity of Marietta,

The President and his wife visit the Sanitary Fair at Philadelphia.

The site of the battle monument to be erected at "Trophy Point," at West Point, to the memory of the efficiers and soldiers of the regular army who have fallen in the present war, dedicated. Gen. McClellan delivers an oration.

SATURDAY, 18.

The Union forces make a number of assaults on the relial lines in front of Petersburg, but are repulsed with severe loss.

Reinforcements under Early coming to the rebels near Lynchburg. Gen. Hunter, having captured two cannon and sixty prisoners, withdraws. During this expedition Gen. Hunter captured altogether 100 prisoners, 7 cannon, and 500 horses.

2,500 rebels, under Gen. Wharton, cross the railroad between Kingston and Dalton, Georgia, and capture and burn five freight trains, loaded with supplies.

Gen. Glimore relieved of his command in front of Petersburg. Agreat battle occurs between the armies of Sherman and Johnston, at Dallas, Ga., in which Sherman is victorious. Rebel loss 2,500 killed and wounded left in the hands of the Union troops, and about 300 prisoners. Union loss only 300.

Two divisions of Union cavairy have a severe engagement with the rebels south of Hawes' Store, Va., 1019 ing 180 killed and wounded. The rebel dead and wounded left in the hands of the Union troops.

Affaximilian arrives at Vera Cruz and addresses a pronunciamiento to the 'Mexican people. Santa Anns, Almonte, Miramon, and Marquez appointed grand marshals of the empire. Anne, Almonte, Miramon, and Marquez appointed grand marshals of the empire.

SUNDAY, 22.

The Army of the Potomac under Gen. Grant successfully crosses the Pamunikey and occupies a point three miles south of the river.

MONDAY, 30.

Severe fighting still continues between Grant's and Leels armies,
The Union army in the Shenandosh Valley make a reconnoissance in force from Edinburg, and find the enemy in front, 4,000 strong.

Dardanelles, Ark., with 200 prisoners, captured by the rebels under Skelby.

TURBAY, 31.

The rebel forces under Lee having secured a strong position on the Micohanicsville road, south of the Tolopotomy Greek, and between that stream and Hawes! Shop, their right resting on Shady Grove, make an attack on the left of Grant's army, but are repulsed with great slaughter.

Arebel attack on Buller's works on Spring Hill, on the east cide of the Appomattor river, repulsed.

The Radical Democracy hold a convention at Citveland, Oho, and nominate John C. Freihont for the Presidency, and John Cochrane for Vice President.

A rabel attack on Sherman's army repulsed. The the crews of two American vessels destroyed byher.

The town of Laclede, Missouri, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, sacked by guerillas. SUNDAY, 19.

The pirate Alabama, commanded by Captain
Semmes, sunk in the British Channel by the United The pirete Alsoams, commanued by the United States steamer Kearsarge, commanded by Captain Winslow. Captain Semmes, with some of his or ew, escapes on the yacht Deerhound to Southampton, England. The rest are captured by the Kearsarge. The brig William C. Clark, of Machias, bound to Matanzas, captured in latitude 30 deg. longitude 63 deg. by the pirate Florida.

Three companies of the 54th Virginia rebel infantry come into the United lines on the Chattahochie and take the oath of allegiance, after which they are employed as teamsters and laberers.

MONDAY, 28.

they are employed as teamsters and laborers.

MONDAY, 20.

The rebels make seven assents on Gen. Whittaker's brigade of Stanley's division of Sherman's army, but are repulsed with a loss of nearly 350 men.

The rebels under Generals Fitz Hugh Loe and Hampton make an attack on the Union forces at White Heuse, under Gen. Aberoromble, but are repulsed by the Union gunboats.

The rebels surpflethe let Brigade 3d Division of the Army of the Potomac, and capture 1,000 prisoners and 5 pieces of Clark's battery.

WEDNESDAY, 22.

The cavalry under Gen. Wilson start on an expedition from the Blackwater river, about four miles from Prince George Court House. They march in a southwesterly direction, and strike the Petersburg and Bellefield Railroad at Resum' Station ten miles from Petersburg, tear up the track for six WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1.

Gen. Sherman, by a strategic movement, flanks themeled army under Joinston at Altoona Passe.

Gen. Sheridan attacks and routs fitz Hugh Lee's besiden of rebel cavalry, together with Clingman's brigade of infantry coming to Lee's support.

Gen. Wilson has a fight near Hanover Court Hosse with Young's brigade of rebel cavalry. He refits them, lilling and capturing a great number, and destroying a large portion of the Virginia Central Ballroad.

A febel fron-clad comes down the James river and attacks the Union fleet assembled there, but is forced to return.

Gen. McPherson, of Sherman's army, moves from Dallas to a point in front of the rebels at New Hope Church.

Archel attack on Gen. Butler's lines at Bermuda. Hougired, commencing at 9 c'clock P. M., and continuing nearly all night, repulsed.

THURBDAY, 2.

The conference with regard to the Dano-German queaten again meets at London. A proposal is mean account of the seizure of the Chincha Paru, on account of the seizure of the Chincha Stants, refuses to hold further intercourse with the Spaniards.

The blockade runner Hose run ashore near Charlesand Ballefield Railroad at Reams' Station ten miles from Petersburg, tear up the track for six miles, and burn everything in connection with the road. From Reams the, take a westerly course to Dinwiddle Court House, 10 miles west of Reams, destroying grain and breadstuffs. They thence proceed in a northwesterly course to Ford's Station, on the Lynohburg and Petersburg Bailroad, twenty-two miles from Petersburg and sixty-one miles frym Lynohburg, where they destroy 64 cars and 2 locometives.

frym Lynchburg, where they destroy 64 cars and 2 locomotives.

A rebel attempt to dislodge Gen. Foster from his position on the north side of the James, opposite Jones' Neck, folied.

Six hundred rebels of Marmaduke's command attack two companies of the 32d low Linantry, near the mouth of the White river, Arkansas, but are repulsed with a loss of 24 killed and wounded. Union loss, 1 killed and 5 wounded.

THURSDAY, 23.

Gen. Warren, with the 6th Corps, on the extreme left of Grant's army, advances and destroys six miles of the Weiden Reilroad, between Festersburg and North Carolina, but is driven back by a superior rebel force.

The Senate repeals the commutation clause in the enrolment bill. The Senate repeals the commutation clause in the enrolment bill.

FRIDAY, 24.

The commands of Wilson and Kautz separate at Ford's Station, Virginia. Kautz moves in a southerly direction towards Wayne Creek, thence west to Lewittown, 12 miles east of Drake's Branch, on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, destroying grain, &c.; thence north to Burkesville, at the junction of the Petersburg and Lynchburg Railroad, 30 miles from Lynchburg and Helmont and Danville Railroad to Price's Station, Meherin and Keysville, destroying the railroad along which he marches. He forms a junction with Wilson at Keysville, when they unitedly march to the Nottaway river, and cross it at Double Bridge, 10 miles north of Lawrenceville. They then march to Stony Creek Station, on the Weldon and Petersburg Railroad, where they are attacked by Ewell's corps, fight a pitched battle and drive back the rebels, with a loss of 50 killed and wounded. Rebel loss, 170.

SUNDAY, 26.

Death of the King of Wirtemberg.

The Austro-Prussian squadron leaves Arxhaven for Bremerhaven.

Brig. Gen. Meredith assumes command of the United States post at Cairo.

Supplay 5.

Eristorsements for Gen. Grant still continue to trive at White House.

Supplay 5.

Eristorsements for Gen. Grant still continue to trive at White House.

Supplay 5.

The Grant still continue to trive at the rebole under see. Tom 5.

Tom Statintor, Va. The beauty of 12 miles from 5.

One housead five hundred prisoners, 1,000 men, 5.

Sincerical new stant of arms, 3 pieces of artillery, and of the trive forces. United States post at Cairo.

MONDAY, 27.

Four regiments of cavality, under command of Brig. Gen. Carr, attack the rebels under Shelby, between Sheridan and St. Charles, on the White between Sheridan and St. Charles, on the White thin high knassa, and are thing the new to the winter the control of the contro

The state quantity of stores are captured by the conferences.

The stable forces under Johnston abandon their periods in front of Sherman at Altoona Creek.

A bage lasting an hour occurs between the Union Creek at Columbia. Ark. Union loss 20 killed and 70 wounded, For all loss the same.

King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, holds a grand review at Turin to celebrate the anniversary of the establic ment of the Italian constitution.

NONDAY, 6.

Gen. Phorson moves towards Ackworth, Ga., There wards Marietta, on the direct Marietta road.

Schooled on his right. At 12 o'clock M. they, conference and the conference of Marietta.

A recel attack on Burnside's forces repulsed.

Tubeday, 7. President Lincoin accepts the nomination of the Baltimore Convention.

TURNDAY, 28.

The Great Central Fair at Philadelphia, for the benefit of the United States Sanitary Commission, closes, having realized over $1,000,000.

The cavalry expedition under Wilson and Kautz attacked at Stony Creek Station by the rebels, under Wade Hampton and Dearing. They hold their ground, and send to Gen. Meade for reinforcements. The blockade of Dantzle and Pillan re-established.

THURSDAY, 30.

Salmon P. Chase resigns his position as Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. The position is tendered to Governor Tod, of Ohio, who decilines the appointment. TULY.

FRIDAY, JULY 1.

The cavalry expedition under Generals Wilson and Kantz returns to Bermuda Hundred, having destroyed 60 miles of the Weldon and Southside Railroads; Union loss between 750 and 1,000.

An expedition, under Gen. Slocum, leaves Vioks-An expedition, under Gen. Slocum, leaves Vioneburg.
The gold bill repealed.
An expedition, under command of Gen. Foster, leaves Hitton Head for the North Edisto river.
SATURDAY, 2.
Gen. McPherson moves his division of Sherman's army towards Nickajack Creek and Turner's Ferry, across the Chattahocchie river, in order to threaten the rebel position at Kenesaw.
SUNDAY, 3.
Kenesaw abandoned by the rebels.
The Union troops under Gen. Sherman occupy Marietta, Ga. Generals McPherson and Schofield pursue the flying rebels towards the Chattahocchie river.

rer. The rebels threaten an invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

A rebel force makes its appearance near Martins-ourg, destroys the railroad, and marches on the town. Strong demonstrations made by the Union forces along Nicksjack Creek and Turner's Ferry—Sherman's army moves towards the Chattahoochie river, Gen. Thomas' left resting on it near Paice's Ferry, Gen. McPherson's right at the mouth of the Nicksjack, and Gen. Schofield in reserve.

Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, accepts the office of Secretary of the Treasury of the United States.

The rebels still threaten the invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

The habeas corpus suspended in Kentucky by order of the President.

The rebels under Early make an attack on Sigel's forces occupying Maryland Heights.

Governor Curtin issues a proclamation calling for 12,000 men for ItO days to repei the threatened rebel invasion.

The President also calls upon Governor Seymour

12,000 men for five days or toper due threstown to invasion.

The President also calls upon Governor Seymour, of New York, for 12,000 militia for the same purpose.

Early concentrates the rebel forces at Harper's Ferry for the purpose of invading Maryland and Pennsylvania.

The rebels under McCausland enter Hagerstown. The Union forces under Lieukenant McLean fall back to Greencastie.

The Governor of Massachusetts issues a call for 5,000 men to garrison Washington. The Governor of Intersectington.

General Slocum's expedition occupies Jackson, Mississippi, with 8,000 troops and destroys the railroad between Jackson and Canton.

THURBDAY, 7.

The President issues a proclamation appointing the first Thursday in August as a National Fast Day.

The rebel invasion still continues. The rebels occupy Hagerstown, Md., and levy a contribution of 1,500 outlits and $20,000 on the citizens, which is paid under threats of burning the town. Ohambersburg, Pe., is placed under martial law.

A battle occurs at Monocacy, Md., between the rebel invaders and the Union forces under General Lew Wallace. The former are repulsed three times. An expedition under General Stoneman sets out An expedition under General Stoneman sets out to release the Union officers imprisoned in Macon, Ga., but arrives too late, the prisoners having been removed to a place of greater security. General McCook starts at the same time to form a junction with Stoneman.

PRIDAY, 8.

The whaler Golconda captured in lat. 37 deg. 30 min, long. 72 deg. 15 min, but the pringle Principle.

The whaler Golconda captured in lat. 37 deg. 30 min. long. 72 deg. 15 min. by the pirate Fiorida.
The Chapel Royal of the Savoy, in England, destroyed by fire. reas to break the rebel lines between Kenesaw and Pine Mountains.

Frankfort, Ky., placed under martial law. Three thousand rebels occupy the stockades three miles from that place, to prevent aid reaching if from Louisville. They commence an attack on the place at 7 A. M., which continues until 3. P. M. Two roled demands to surrender the fortare refused. They abandon the attack at 4. P. N., and at 7. P. N. move away in an easterly direction. Union loss 6 wounded. Rebel loss unknown.

Onthinne, Ky., captured and burned by the rebel forces under Morgan.

It B. Tuttle, chief of scouts of the Army of the Cumberland, with four men makes a daring descent Cumberland, with four men makes a daring descent to the content of the superior numbers of the snew the former are forced to retreat towards Baltimore, M. Captured and Superior Comberland, with four men makes a daring descent to the content of the superior numbers of the snew the former are forced to retreat towards Baltimore, in the force of the

with a state of the state of th rebels, who concentrate on Washington. The United States troops make a grand charge on them in front of Fort Stevens, and repulse them with great loss. Messrs Clay, Hebrombe, and Sanders, through Horace Greeley, ask a safe conduct to said from Washington, to lay behore the Fresident resol propositions for peace.

WEDNA SDAY, 13.

The rebel invaders leave Washington and regress the Potomac river into Virg Inia, at Edward's Festy, closely pursued by the Union forces.

Major General A. J. Smith engages the rebels under Forrest at Pontotoc, Mias.

The bark Monticello, Captain E. A. Chappel, bound for Hudson's Bay, having on board the Hall Arotic expedition, arrives at St. Johns, N. B.

THURSDAY, 14.

General A. J. Smith, in another engagement at Tupelo, defeats the rebels under Forrest.

An engagement takes place at Fechs between the Allied German and Danish gunboats.

Missouri swarms with guerillas.

FEIDAY, 15.

Seven steamers burnt at St. Louis, Mo., by rebel incondiaries. Loss, nearly $500,000.

General A. J. Smith, in snother engagement with Foirest's forces, drives them below Tupelo.

General A. J. Smith's expedition, being destitute of supplies, starts to return from Tupelo, pursued by Buford's rebel cavalry, who are repulsed. Buford's rebel cavalry, who are repulsed.

General Sherman orders another advance against the rebel armyunder Johnston, which forms a general line along the Oid Peach road. General Thomas is ordered to cross at Powers' and Palce's ferry bridges and march by Buckland, General Schofteld to march by Uross Keys, and General McPherson to direct bis course from Rosewall straight against the Augusta road at some point east of Decatur, near Stone Mountain; General Griffith's cavalry to act with General McPherson; and Generals Stoneman and McCook to watch the Chattahoochie river and roads below the railroad.

General Johnston, commanding the rebel army at Atlanta, is superseded by General Hood.

General Stonem's expedition encounters 2,000 rebels at Grand Guif, Miss., and defeats them.

The Indians commit depredations in Colorado Territory.

MONDAY, 18.

Gen. Sherman's army advance.

The Indians commit depredations in Colorado Territory.

Monday, 18.

Gen. Sherman's army advances five miles south of the Chattahoochie river, and crosses Peach-Tree Creek: Gen. McPherson strikes the Augusta Railroad seven miles east of Decatur, and destroys four miles of it. General Schofield reaches the town of Decatur.

The President orders a draft for 500,000 more mento take place on the 5th of September.

Gen. Crook overtakes some of the rebel invaders of Maryland and Pennsylvania, at Snicker's Gap, Va., and captures 300 wagons heavily laden with grain, and a great number of prisoners.

The rebel peace agents in Canada deny that they are efficially appointed to arrange terms for a peace, but that they are in the confidential employ of the Government. Mr. Greeley telegraphs this statement to the President, who sends the following reply: "Any proposition which embraces the restoration of peace, the integrity of the Union, and the abandonment of slavery, and which comes by and with authority that can control the armies now at war against the United States, will be received and considered by the Government of the United States, and will be met by liberal terms on other substantial and collateral points, and the bearer or bearers thereof chall havesare conduct both ways."

Fechs occupied by the Austrians.

TUKSDAY, 19.

General McPherson marches along the Augusta Railroad into Decatur, Georgia, General Schofield marches along a road leading by Colonel Howard's house and the Distillery towards Atlanta, and Gen. Thomas, in force, crosses Peach Tree Freek in the face of the enemy's entrenched lines.

Garibaldi arrives at Caprera, on his return from Fngland, and meets with an enthusiastic reception.

England, and meets with an entrustatio reception. WEDNESDAY, 20:

General Averill defeats Early in front of Winchester, capturing four cannon, several hundred stand of small arms, and 200 rebel prisoners; 300 chester, capturing four cannon, several initiated stand of small arms, and 200 rebels killed and wounded.

The three divisions of Sherman's army close in, converging towards Atlanta. The gap between Generals Schofield and Harris is filled by two divisions of General Howard's corps, who are ordered to connect with General Schofield. The rebel army, at 4 P. M., attack the right centre of Sherman's army, and are repulsed, leaving 500 dead on the field, 1,000 wounded, 7 stands of colors, and a great number of prisoners. Union loss, 1,500.

General Smith's expedition resches Lagrange, on its return to Memphis, with a loss of only 500 men, bringing 2,000 rebel prisoners.

THURSDAY, 21.

General Sherman finds the rebel army strongly entrenched on the heights overlooking the open ground of the valley of Peach Tree Oreek, with his right beyond the Augusta road to the east, and with his left towards Turner's Ferry, on the Ohatta-hoochie, at a general distance of four miles from Atlanta.

The blockade of the German ports raised by the tlanta. The blockade of the German ports raised by the Danes.
A Prussian force; 6,000 strong, enters Rendsburg, and takes possession of the town out of the hands of the German Federal forces. General Hoke protests The Indians still continue their depredations in Nebraska Territory. PRIDAY, 22. The rebels abandon their position along Peach

The rebels abandon their position along Peach Tree Creek.
General Hood, who superseded Johnston in command of the rebel army at Atlanta, maker increased attackion Sherman's army, near Atlanta, but meets with a fearful repulse. The official Union loss in killed, wounded, and missing is 3,521, and 10 pieces of artillery. Rebel loss 10,000. Eighteen stand of colors and 5,000 stand of arms are recaptured from the rebels by the Union forces.

SUNDAY, 24.

The recels threaten another raid into Maryland and Pennsylvania.

A number of Union militia, under General Orook, are driven back by the rebels to Williamsport, by way of Martinsburg.

Colonel Mulligan dies from a wound received in a rebel encounter vesterday. Golonel Mulligan dies from a wound received in a rebel encounter yesterday.

Gen. Slocum's expedition arrives at Vicksburg.

MONDAY, 25.

5,000 Indians on Knife river defeated by General Sulty, with a loss of 150 men. Union loss 6 milled and 20 or 30 wounded.

An expedition, consisting of a negro regiment, a portion of the 15th Ill. Cav., and a section of a battery, leaves Memphis, Tenn., in the direction of White river, and encounters a formidable rebel force near Nelson, and after a short flight is obliged to retire, pursue them to within line muse or reviews. Nelson, and after a short light is obliged to retire, pursue them to within hime hines or retrems.

Tussday, 26.

Gen. Garrard's expedition succeeds in destroying the bridges at Covington, 40 miles east of Atlanta, also the public stores at Covington and Conyers, including 2,000 bales of cotton; a locomotive and train of cars, 200 prisoners, and a number of horses.

Gen. Rousseavis expedition returns to Marletta, Ga., after having burned all the railroad bridges north of Montgomery, and twenty miles south of it. An expedition of 3,200 Union cavalry, under Gen. McCook, start on an expedition to destroy the Macron and Western Railroad. After having destroyed is miles of it they capture a train of 500 wagons going from Atlanta to Macon or Columbus, but on returning with their captures, viz. 127 officers, 500 men, and 3,000 mules, are surrounded by the rebels, under Ransom, who capture 2,000 of the expedition. The remainder cut their way out and escape to Marietta.

Wednesday, 27.

Marietta.

WEDNESDAY, 27.

The rebels, under Early, appear on the Virginia side of the river, oppoale Williamsport, but are prevented from crossing by Gen. Crook, and withdraw their pickets during the night.

THURSDAY, 28.

The Union forces under General Ullman attack the rebels at Morganzia and defeat them, capturing a number of prisoners and killing the notorious guerilla scout Capt. McNeely. Union loss two killed and thirteen wounded. Rebel loss sixty, three killed and wounded. silied and uniteen wounded. Reset loss sixy-three killed and wounded.

The rebel invaders, under Early, secure some of the fords of the Potomac, and cross over the river at Falling Waters and Hancock. General Couch at Chambersburg makes active preparations to resist. The steamer Margarette. Stevenson leaves St. John's, Newfoundland, for Trinity Bay, with Cyrus W. Field, to select a place for landing the Atlantic cable.

John's, Newfoundland, for Trinity Bay, with Gyrus W. Field, to select a place for landing the Atlantic cable.

The Army of the Tennessee, under General Logan, attacked at 11% A. M. by the rebels, while on the march from the extreme left to the extreme right of Shermen's army. The rebel infanty from Hardee's and Lee's corps make six assaults on the Union lines, which are successively repulsed. Union loss to Rilied, 459 wounded, and 73 missing. Rebel loss about 6,000 killed, wounded, and missing. Rebel loss about 6,000 killed, wounded, and missing.

General Early crosses the Potomac river at Williamsport, and sends out a cavalry reconnoissance towards Hagerstown, which returns and recrosses the river to Martineburg.

The inneral of General McPherson takes place at Clyde, Ohio. One thousand persons present. Cyrus W. Field selects Heart's Content, in Placentia Bay, as the western terminus of the Atlantic Telegraph cable.

SATURDAY, 30.

The mines under the rebel works before Petersburg exploded. Shortly after, an assault is made on the rebel works by the Union troops, but is repulsed, on account of the Union forces failing to co-operate properly. Union loss, 5,640.

Chambersburg burned by the rebel invaders under MicCausland.

EUNDAY, 31.

ESRey, Martin John Spaluding installed Arehblshon SUNDAY, 31.

EUNDAY, 31.
ERev. Martin John Spaluding installed Archbishop of Baltimore. AUGUST.

Governor Curtin issued a proclamation calling for a special meeting of the Legislature, on the 9th instant, for the purpose of adopting measures for a thorough organization of the military powers of the State.

Twenty-five hundred rebels, under McCausland, defeated by General Averill, between Hancock and McConnelisburg.

TURSDAY, 2.

An election held in Pennsylvania, to decide whether an amendment shall be made to the State Constitution, allowing the soldiers to vote, results in favor of the amendment.

The rebels under McCausland defeated at Cumberland by a portion of the Union forces.

The plrate Florida arrives at Teneriffe.

WEDNAEDAY, 3.

The 50 Union officers placed under fire of the Union batteries at Charleston exchanged for the same number of rebel efficers on Morris Island. placed under fire of the Charleston batteries.

An expedition fitted out from the U. S. steamer Saratoga, lying in Doboy Sound, Ga., starts for the court house of MoIntosh county, Ga., and captures a number of citizens who had met there in Pursuance of a call to form a coast guard; 22 prisoners, 22 horses and buggles are captured, 2 bridges destroyed, and a large rebel encalipment burned.

THUREDAY, 4.

The Union forces under-General Granger occupy Dauphin Island preparatory to the reduction of Fort Gaines, at the entrance of Mobile harbor.

The National Fast Day appointed by the President generally observed throughout the Northarn, States.

The Chapel Royal of the Savoy, in England, destroyed by fire.

General Sherman, by a threatened fiank movement, forces the rebel army under Johnston to cross the Chattahocchie river.

A severe battle, lasting from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., takes place at Monocacy, Md., between the Union forces under General Leew Walkage and 20,000 rebels. On account of the superior numbers of the enemy the former are forced to retreat towards Baltimore, Md. Brigadier General Tyter, under orders from Major General Wellace, assumes command of the Union forces in front of Frederick City, but at 10 P. M. evacuates It, to follow up the rebels, whose design is to march on weakington.

Thomas Briggs murdered on one of the carriages of the North London Railway, by Franz Muller, who files to America.

Sunday, 10.

Sherman left undisputed master of the country north and west of the Chattahocchie river. The rebels burn the bridges across the river to prevent the advance of the Union forces.

The advance of General Hunter's forces capture Martinsburg, Va., with a large number of prisoners and a great quantity of stores.

A portion of the rebel raiders, under Harry Gilmor, capture two trains of oars, set fire to them, and rob the passengers, at Magnollas Station, on the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore Railroy, General Franklih, being on one of the trains, is captured. They cut the telegraph between Baltimore and Philadelphia, and then destroy the residence of Governor Bradford, of Maryland.

Major General Franklih, being on one of the trains, is captured. They cut the telegraph between Baltimore, and Major, captured by the mines count of Harre-Ged Grace, Major General Franklih, being on one of the trains, assigned to the command of the northern defences of Mobiles, as a strack on the rebels in front of Atlanta, but are repulsed with a strain of the prison of the defences of Mobiles.

The rebel invaders driven oad of Frederick, Md.

The rebel invaders driven oad of Frederick, Md.

The rebel invaders driven oad of Frederick, Md.

The rebel ERIDAY, 5.

Larger Clubs than Ten will be charged at the same rate, $1.50 per copy. The money must always accompany the order, a in no instance can these terms be deviated from they afford very little more than the cost of paper. Fostmasters are requested to act as agents for The War Press.

To the getter-up of the Club of ten or twenty, and extra copy of the paper will be given. Cumberland river, twelve miles above Smithland Kentocky, but are repulsed, with a loss of eix killed and twenty wounded.

The command of the East Guif Blockading Squadron transferred to Capt. Theodore P. Greens by Acting Rear Admiral Bailey.

MONDAY, S.

Golonal Charles Anderson, at 9% o'clock A. M., surrendered Fort Gaines unconditionally to Admiral Farragent, with its gardson, consisting of 52 commissioned officers, 618 cullsted men, 26 guns intact, and providens for twelve months.

General Sherman advances his lines three miles northwest of Atlenas, and within a mile and a half of the Mason read.

Major General Sherman assigned temporarily to the Command of the Union forces in the Middle Military Division, consisting of the Department of Washington, the Middle Department, and the Department of the Susquehanna and Northwesters Viginia.

THE WAR PRESS.

(PUBLISHED WEEKLY.)

THE WAR PRESS Will be sent to subscribers by Vizznia.

TUBBLAY, 9.

A U. S. ordnewse boat, leaded with ammunition, explaits at City-Feint wharf, killing 33 and wound-The hogoki de runber Prince Albert attempts to enter Charles ton harbor, but runs aground opposite Fort Moultrie, and is destroyed by the Union bat-Admiraf Fer agut makes a formal demand for the surrender of For t Morpan, but is refused.

WEDNESDAY, 10:
General Grang or commences the investment of General Grang or commonoes the investment of Fort Morgan. The brig Billow, of Salem, from Calais for Baltimore, and the scheolor Spokane, of Tremont, Me., from Calais for Phila delphia, captured by the pirate florida.

General Sheridan Overtakes the revels, under Early, ten miles from Winchseter, retreating up the Shenandeah Valley, and heavy skirmishing takes place between the two at mics.

The last of the rebel invaders of Maryland and Pennsylvania leave Winchester at 10 A. M.

Admiral Farragat issues orders to attack Fort Morgan at 8 A. M.

Morgan at 8 A. M.

The bark Suliote, of Beliast, Me., from flow Bay for New York, captured off Montaria Point, Long Island, and bonded for $66,000 by the pirate Tallahasse.

The ship Adriatic burned by the pirate Tallahasses see off the coast of Long island.

The schooner R. E. Fecker, from Baltmore, Md., for Bath, captured in lat. 41 deg., lon. fr deg., and bonded for $10,000, by the pirate Tallahasses.

The Secretary of the Navy despatches sixteen United States war-vessels to intercept the Tallahasses. United States war-vessels to intercept the Talk-hasee.

A fearful riot occurs in Berfast, Ireland. A numery is destroyed and a great number of persons injured.

SATURDAY, 12.

Gen. Hancock embarks the 2d Corps of the Army of the Potomac on transports, and ostensibly takes them to Harrison's Landing, but returns during the night to Deep Bottom.

Three brigades of Forcest's command attacked and defeated at Hurricane Creek, (Fenn. ?) by three brigades of Gen. Smith's command ::80 rebsi deax? letton the field. The Union loss 4b filled and wounded.

SUNDAY, 14. on the field. The Union loss to billed and wounded.

SURDAY, 14.

Admiral Farragut makes a reconnoissance of the obstructions near Mobile. The Nashville is discovered to be sunk across the channel, making access to-the city impossible until the is removed. At 6½ P. M. the United States land forces under General Cranger fire the first experimental shot at Fort Morgan.

One thousand seven hundred rebels under Gen. Wheeler, with six brass howitzers, attack the Union garrison of 300 men, under Colonel Liebold, at liaiten, Ga., but are repulsed.

The battle of Deop Sottom, Va. The 2d and part of the 10th Corps attack the robots near Deep Bottom. The 10th Corps under Birtiey, capture a line of rebel works with four eight-fire, brass guss and a number of prisoners, with slight loss, whom the enemy falls back to a strong position behind a swamp. The Union forces retire after having lost 550 men.

MONDAY, 15.

General Steadman reinforces the garrison under Colonel Lieboid at Balton, Ga, and charging the rebels under Wheeler, drives them off in contraston. The schooners Howard, Coral Wreath, Etta, Caroline, Eestless, and T. B. Harris captured by the pirate Tallahassee.

General A. J. Smith's expedition reaches Tupelo. The Secretary of the Navy congratulates Admiral Farragut on the great naval victory achieved by his forces in Mibile Bay.

The pirate Georgia captured in lat. 39 deg. 18 mip. N., long. 9 deg. 39 min., by the Urited States steamer Niagars, commanded by Commodore T. T. Cravem. T. Craven.

TUESDAY, 16.

Gen. Sherman makes a movement by the right fiank to attack the Macon Railroad and cut off communication with Atlanta.

The schooner Martinious captured off Martinious by the pirate Tallahassee, and bonded for $2,000.

Kershaw's division of Longstreet's corps, and Wickiam and Loman's brigade of repel cavalry, attack that of Gen. Merritt, in front of Front Royal, on the north edge of the Shenandeah river, and are hadly heaten, with a learn of school of communication. Royal, on the north elde of the Shenandoah river, and are badly beaten, with a loss of 2 stands of colors, 22 officers, and 276 zen.

The riot, at Belfact, Ireland, continues. A number of persons into and hilled.

WEDNESDAY, 17.

Four boxes of arms for the treasonable organization called the Sons of Liberty seized in Indianation called the Sons of States, No. 3, captured is miles N.W. of Cape Sable, Florida, by the pirate Tallahassee, and bonded for $17.060.

The Irish riots subside.

Gen. Sherman orders Gen. Kilpatrick, with 5,000 cavalry, to break the West Point Railroad near Fairborn, but after an interview with the latter, he determines to raise the slegs of Atlants and throw his whole army on the line of the enemy's communications.

determines to raise the slegs of Atlants and throw his whole army on the line of the enemy's communications.

Gen. Warren's corps moves to and across the Weldon Entiroad, one mile south of the lead works, neeting no opposition but rebel pickets, and then advances towards Petersburg, suffering some loss and dniitoting the same on the enemy.

The 18th Corps charge a portion of the rebell works in front of Atlanta and capture them. 200 rebels leave their rifle-tits and voinntarily come in a body into the Union lines.

The rebels make an attack on Gen. Birney's lines, but are repulsed with a loss of 1,000 men.

FRIDAY, 18.

The Union troops under Warren, occupying connecting between him and the left of the old line on the Jerusalem plank-road, and force back the two right divisions of Warran's corps. After a severe fight on both sides, the Union forces succeed in re-establishing their lines.

The rebels make three desperate charges to recapture the Weldon Railroad, but are repulsed with heavy loss.

A rebel plot to control the Presidential election in Indiana disclosed to Governor Morton. The rebel sympathizers order and pay for 30,000 revolvers, with 42 boxes of fixed ammunition, to effect the object. 22 of the latter, addressed to H. H. Dodd, the Sons of Liberty, seized in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Another fierce attack made on the Union forces Sons of Liberty, seized in Indianapolis, Indiana.

SUBDAY, 31.

Another fierce attack made on the Union forces by the rebels to recapture the Weldon Railroad gallantly repulsed, and 500 robel prisoners, 32 commissioned officers, and 5 stands of colors captured. The Union loss in the 5th Corps, on Friday and to-day, 5,000.

The 2d Corps, under General Hancock, having recrossed the James river, assists the 5th and 9th Corps in tearing up the track of the Weldon Railroad. The rebels, under Forrest, attack Momphis and capture a Union force, with about 300 horses and mules, but are forced to rettre.

Archbishop McCloskey consecrated at New York.

MONDAY, 22.

General Kilpatrick, returns to General Shermar. from an expedition to cut the Macon Railroad, which he succeeded in doing near Jonesboro, Ga., destroying three miles of the track, 2 trains and locomotives, and bringing in Epiece of artillery and 70 princes. motives, and bringing in Epiece of artillery and 70 prisoners.

The committee of four exchanged prisoners appointed by the 35,000 Union prisoners confined in Andersonville, Ga, arrive in New York, with a petition from their associates addressed to the President, earnestly destring him to effect their release. The rebels abandon their attempt to recapture the Weldon Railroad.

The Union forces destroy a long rebel supply train on the Winchester and Martinsburg turnpike.

The bombardment of Fort Morgan commences.

The Union forces destroy a long rebel supply train on the Wischaster and Martinsburg turnpike. The bombardment of Fort Morgan commences.

Turnbay, 28.

Fort Morgan guarding the entrance to Mobile, with its garrison of 690, men, 60 plecos of artitlery, and a large quantity of material, unconditionally surred ders to Admiral Farragut at 2 P. M. The rebel command, before surrendering, spike most of the guns, burn the carrisges, and destroy much of the ammunition. In the twelve bours previous to the surrender 3,00a. balls were thrown into the fort.

The skirmish line of the 5th Army Corps advance over a mile along the raffroad towards Petersburg. A division sent to tear up more of the treak of the Weldon railroad succeeds in destroying it to within four miles of Petersburg in front of the Union lines, and, with the assistance of the 2d Corps, for nearly double the distance in the opposite direction.

A Union expedition, 7,000 strong, with 2 cannon, leaves Decatur in the direction of Uovington, Ga.

The Union forces occupy the whole line of the Weldon Railroad as far as Ream's Station, a distance of seven miles.

The ship Victoria arrives at New York, having on board Franz Muller, charged with the murder of Thomas Briggs, on a London railway 2ar, near London. He is arrested.

A portion of Crook's command, sent out on a reconnoissance, captures some rebel prisoners, who inform them that Examseur's and Rindee's divisions are detailed for picket duty in front of the Union lines, and that the rest of the rabel army under Early is at Oharlestown, Va.

THURSDAY, 25.

The rebel ram Nashville, sunk across the entrance of the channel at Mobile, blown up by the U.S. gunboat Genida.

Gen. Sherman's army moves, towards the West Point. Railroad to out off the rebel communications with Atlants.

A Union savalry reconnoissance discovers that the rebel rance of Franz Rubler.

The Union forces under Gen. Hancack attacked several times by the rebals, but are repulsed. A combined rebel attack made on the seature and infl. results in t

The rebel loss in the last two weeks is estimated at not less than 10,000. The Union less in prisonors is heavy.

PREMAY, 26.

Two was and a half makes of the West Point Railroad leading to Atlants. destroyed by Sherman's forces.

Six hundred rebel offlicers placed under are of the rebel batteries on Moviris Island, in retailation for the same number of Union officers in Charleston placed under fre-of the Union batteries.

The rebels, with two regiments of cavalry and some infantry, attempt to cross into Maryland at williamsport, but, after a fight of several hours' duration, are repulsed with heavy loss by General Averill.

Sheridan pursues the rebels retreating up the Shenandoan Valley be Smithfield or Middleburg, and captures 100 prisoners and inflicts on the enemy a loss of Kin killed and wounded.

STURDAY, 27.

The V. S. Commissioner, at New York, decides to give the necessary certificate to sond Muller, the murcavar, back to England.

Can Heintzelman, in command of the Northera Military Department, issues an order prohibiting express, railroad, or other forwarding companies from forwarding or delivering firearms, powder or ammunition of any kind within the limits of the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan for 60 days, without a permit from his headquarters, and also prohibiting dealers in these stitcles from selling the same within the above-mentioned time.

MONDAY, 28.

The Democratic National Convention meets at Chicago. Chicago.

Tuesday, 30.

The rebels, under Wheeler, endeaver to destroy Sherman's communications with Nashville.

Wadding Ay, 31.

Geo. B. McCliellan, of New Jersey, is neminated for President, and Geo. H. Pendleton, of Ohio, for Vioe-President, by the Democratic National Geovernment, at Chicago.

Wheeler's cavalry still engaged in breaking up Sterman's communication with Nashville. arms.
Admiral Farragut, with his deet, attacks Fort Gaines, one of the defences of Mobile.
The French blockede of the Mexican ports raised.
Two hundred rebel cavalry attack Sadens, on the Sherman's communication with Nashville.
Gen. Hood again attacks the Army of the Tennes-

5300