

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Family and the Sabbath School. These two institutions are inseparably joined in these days of special care for the young and rising generation.

THE CITY.

The Old and the New Year. To-night will be called upon to say farewell to an old acquaintance.

THE POLICE.

Robbed His Employer. Francis M. Dixon, an employee in the establishment of Mr. Pennington, on Chestnut street, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of robbery.

HOUSE OF CORRECTION WANTED.

A visit to the station-house at a late hour on any cold night would amply reprobate for the time that it is not for nothing that the wretched inmates of the House of Correction are so numerous.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Since the beginning of the year 1864, speculation in gold has run rampant, and the occasion on which it is not only in the hands of the speculators, but also in the hands of the public.

Weekly Review of the Philadelphia Market.

The holidays have interrupted the usual course of business, and very little alteration in prices has taken place.

RECRUITING FOR THE NEXT YEAR.

Since the city has not yet received its quota of recruits, the authorities are endeavoring to make up the deficiency.

DEATHS OF SOLDIERS.

The deaths of G. A. Hilt, Co. 105th Penn. Regt., at the Hospital, and of J. W. Williams, Co. 12th, at the Hospital, are reported yesterday at the medical depot.

THE ORPHANS' COURT.

The Orphans' Court, in its session of yesterday, was held in the usual manner, and the usual business transacted.
