HINORILANEOUS. HOW A REPORTER WAS SOLD. The Hon. Sunset Ooz, of Ohio, was announced to deliver a "great lecture" at the Musical Fund Hall on Saturday evening, for a charitable purpose. One of the Sunday papers of yesterday, in reporting an epitome of the lecture; says: "The subject was 'If the Homo?" "No report could do justice to the lecture," "It depended in. a great dependent of the stimulation of the lecture; says: "The subject was 'If the Homo?" "No report could do justice to the lecture," "It depended in. a great dependent if the made was received with shouts and roars of laughter, and his patriotic silusions re-ceived thunders of aplause." "A number of amu-sing illustrations were green by Mr. Cox with great if the reations were green by Mr. Cox with great the lecture olosed with a reference to the po-liture of Ireland when she shall have se-cured her nationality." "The lecture was a great success, and it is to be regretted the storm prevented a fuller attendance." All this is very preity on paper. The "beauting thus stations"—the cute way of a reporter te-ling the truth, are well enough as specimens of with for the whole affair is an illustrated, roarding, thun-tor the whole affair is an illustrated, roarding, thun-the brill, hocause the lecture was not delivered. raigned as the Contras Station on the diarge of attempting to fraudulenity enlist a young man named John E. Herring, formerly of the rebel army, irom which he had deserted. It seems that Herring wasborn in Florida, and pressed, as he says, into the rebel army. He deserted and came North in search of employment, and was finally engaged on a farm in New Jersey. On Friday last, while crossing in a ferry steamer from Canden, he got into conversa-tion with Mir. Houghton, who was a passenger, and to whom the stranger related his adventures. Upon arriving in this city he proceeded to Mir. Hough-ton's residence, on Ohristian street, and in a short time Mir. Walds was introduced as a person who could have him properly enlisted. The young man elept in the barroom at Welah's tavern, and en Saturday morning was taken to McNally & Co., substitute brokers, in Chestunt street, above Fourth. He was to receive $350. The recruit was taken to the provost marshal's, at Frankford. On the way he was told to say that he came from Montreal, Canada. Upon being closely questioned by the marshal, the young man could not think for the name of the place he was to hall from. He hesitated, and finally related the entire narrative of his adventures. This led to the arrest of Walsh and Houghton. The worst fea-ture of the case is that after the recruit had been received at Camp Cadwalder he was to get a pass for five days, which would allow him an opportu-tify to desert. It is alleged that an arrangement for the pass had or would be made with a lieutenant at he camp. Though there does not appear to be any legal evidence implicating the defendants in any felonious transaction, yet the magistrate felt it his duty to have the matter further investigated. There being some doubt in his mind as to any au-thority under the State law, he required the de-fendants to enter bail in the sum of $2,000 each to appear before Mir. United States Commissioner Smith, on Tuesday at noon. Bail having been en-tered, the defendants wero liberated. WIFE CRUELLL

WIFE CRUELLY TREATED. WIFE CRUELLY TREATED. A man named Joseph Orr was arraigned on Sauudsy afternoon, at the Central Station, on the charge of cruelly beating his wife. The parties live on Trout street, formerly Pine alley. It is alleged that on Friday Orr threw a large-size sancer at his wife. It struck her on the elbow and chipped off a piece of the bone. The defendant was also charged with kicking and beating his wife in a most un-merciful manner, threatening to kill her, etc. He was bound over in the sum of $1,600 to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman Cloud.]

THE O'ROURKE FAMILY AGAIN. Patrick O'Rourke was arraigned on Saturday on the charge of participating in the disgraceful riot on Christmas day on Richmond street, Ninteenth ward. It is alleged that he was very active among the rioters, and was heard to offer to bet one hun-dred dollars that his son could." Hick any man of his weight and size in the whole crowd."

(Before Mr. Alderman Miller.]

STABBING CASE. Edward Burgees was arraigned on Saturday on the charge of stabbing Michael Riley. The san-guinary affair, it is alleged, took place at a public honse in West Philadelphia. Riley was stabbed in the stomach. The wound is considered rather dan-gerour. The accused was held to answer.

CAMP CADWALADER.

CAMP CADWALADER. We understand that a captain at Camp Cadwala-der, with his books, papers, accounts, memoranda, ac., was taken into custody on Friday by Colonel L. O. Baker, of Washington, and conducted to the Continental Hotel, from which place they started in the next train for Washington. It is further al-leged that a certain frm on Market street had re-ceived the sum of $25,000 as a loan for business pur-poses, the said sum being a part of the retained bounty fund of deserters, rejected men, etc. It is not known how much money has been retained by this process. The desertions from Camp Cadwala-der have been encours. Most of this bounty was given by the city of Philadelphia, and consequently the people generally regard its final distribution with some degree of anxiety. ALLEGED ROBBERY AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE. It was reported on Saturday morning that $20,-000 had been stolen from the vault of a fire-proof at the Oustom House sometime in the previous night. The locks were opened by means of a key. It was necessary to break a hole through the walls on Sa-turday morning to get to the interior of the proof or safe because the key could not be found. It was then the discovery of the robbery was made. There are two men employed to watch the building at night but they heard no noise at the time they were about the premises. The theft is supposed to have been committed by the same thief who stole the bags of gold coin from the custom house several months since. ALLEGED ROBBERY, '

ALLEGED ROBBERY. It was reported at the Central Station on Satur-day that on Friday midnight two men entered the barroom of Mr. John Specht's hotel, near Wash-ington ince and Ridge avenue, knocked the pro-prietor down, stole his watch, and escaped.

ARRESTS IN 1864.

The number of arrests made by the police during the year 1864 will exceed, it is thought, 33,000. The official announcement will probably be made known
