The cluzens of Savannah have embraced the first opportunity of proving their loyalty and submission to the United States Government. The capture of the city closed the avenues of trade and supply, and Savannah isolated from the surrounding country, suffers for food. At the meeting held at the rooms of the Board of Trade, on the 10th instant, Bishop Potter preciding, a letter, addressed by one of the aldermen of Savannah to Messra. J. P. Stelera Co., was read, of which the following is an extract: WANTS. AUCTION SALES.
