PULLING DOWN THE WALLS, BTC. Walls that were in the most dangerous condition were pulled down yesterday by order of the authoriwere pailed down yesterday by order of the authori-ties. All, or nearly all, on the west side of Ninth street, north of Ellsworth street, were reduced to piles of rubbish, so that the ruins may be explored without danger of being injured by failing bricks. Ropes were stretched across Ninth street, guarded by a portion of the 1st and 2d divisions of the Bolics Occurs. Thus the grapt may of neorly were by a portion of the 1st and 2d divisions of the Police Corps. Thus the great mass of people were kept out of danger. A boy, driving a horse and wagon on the Union railway track, against the route of travel, was told to turn back. He would not obey the police officer, but drove on, giving the officer some impudence. The officer caught hold of the horse's head and turned the animal back. The reckless boy endeavored to guide the horse the other way, and putting the whip to him tried to throw the officer. He did not succeed. Other officers hastened to the scene; the boy was arrested and the horse and wagon taken pessession of by the officers. We witnessed the whole transaction. The action of the police in this especial case was entirely common

WHAT PROPERTY WAS DESTROYED. We learn from Fire Marshal Blackburn the following summary of property destroyed : owing summary of property desc Forty dwellings, Two factories, Seven stables, One wagon house, Ten missellaneous structures, Then miscellaneous structures, Tweive frame sheds, One ocid vard, One coal yard, One coal yard, One coal oli storage shed, which, with outhouses, &c., will make a total of bont 100 structures. The dweiling-houses were occupied by poor people, rr persons who had only sufficient means to afford hem a comfortable living. The most of these peo-le jost everything-furniture, clothing, trinkets, to It is estimated that at least 100 families have elem rendered houseless.

As it is estimated that at least 100 families, trinkets, by it is estimated that at least 100 families have been rendered houseless. The whole loss will not fall short of $500,000. The loss on the coal oil is estimated at $75,000; that of Daily & Porter, oogly pard, at $4,000; and that of Mir. David L. Hey, manufacturer, at $10,000. The coal oil is said to be fully insured in New York compa-nies. Messrs, Daily & Porter, and Hey, are par-tially insured. Of the total loss only about one-third is insured, and the insurance is principally apon the real estate. The Fire Association and the Franklin Insurance Company are tike heaviest ranging from $5 to $3,000. Many lost $100, and several as high as from $300 to $400.

THE POLICE. [Before Mr. Alderman Welding.]

[Before Mr. Alderman Welding.] SHOF-LIFTER; Maria Huiz was arraigned, yesterday atternoon, on the charge of stealing a piece of orash from the front of the store of Mr. B. Albertson, on Arch street, near Seventh. It is alleged that she sud-denly seized the piece of goods; and, on being dis-covered, ran away at full speed in the effort to escape. She dashed into a private alley, scaled a fence, and took refuge in an outhouse, where she held the door fast. A police officer was called into requisition, who speedily enforced the strong arm of the law and opened the door. The woman was very indignant at such an interruption. She was committed to answer.
