TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ASSOCIATION FOR THE RELIEF OF SUFFENERS BY THE LATE FIRE:
Your Special Committee appointed to collect donations from the Theatres and places of Amusements respectfully report as follows:
The Oirous Company, with their characteristic benevolence, and the generous aid of Mr. Dun Rice, gave $127.25. Had it not been for the exgerness of this excellent company to supply instantaneous relief their contribution would no doubt have far exceeded this sum. JNO. H. WATT, ALBERT S. LETCHWORTE. HE GREAT CONFLAGRATION caused by the firing the Southern heart seems to be going out for the at of fuel; nothing but smoke is seen now, which I probability will be its end, and the days of the llion are numbered, like the Coats, Pants, and contribution would no doubt have far exceeded this sum.

The Walnut-street Theatro, notwithstanding the almost impassable streets, furnished $461.70. In addition to this the entire company, including Dr. Gaunisgton and his Ordestra, volunteered their services to are sits at the Mathee at the Academy of Music, Mr. Frank Drew, having heretofore unsolicited given $50, and Mrs. M. A Carrettson, with the efficient aid of their shifful and energetic agent, Mr. J. P. Smith, exerted themselves in a manner which should add additional listre to their merited popularity.

Stewart's Apolio gave $40, one half of which was given by Stewart himself.

At Carreross & Dixey's Opera House the Committee received $41, accompanied with many regrets by the proprietors that the weather prevented a larger collection.

At a place called the Casino, in Chestnut street, where public professions of sympathy and promises of relief were made, the Committee called repeatedly without heing able to see the proprietors, and sent written notices without receiving either the expected donation or an answer to their communications.

The Arch street Theatre, under the auspices of that exemplary and philushrhopic lady, Mrs. John Drew, and her efficient and polite treasurer and agent, Mr. Joseph D Murphy, contributed, without a single deduction from any part of her expenses, $330.

On the night of the performance the streets were left, by the last earrhies storm, in a condition amost without a parallel in the history of Philaselphia. To this unfortunate event is attributed the sancity of the sum and the sincere regret of the company.

The entertainment at the Academy of Music on Friday, by the Chestauratreet Theatre company and "La Coterie Biance," under the direction of Mr. William L. Finn, gave the handome sum of $2,391 50; Lu Coterie Bianche, having donated the rent of the house, which amounted to $150. This sum was received by Mr. R. P. King, who thus political failutated the duties and taxed the admiration of your Committee.

The printing, amounting to $455. was donated by Mesars. Grover & Sinn. The highly accomplished Miss Belen Western, the Orchestra, and the entire company, volunteered their services. Mr. Sinn has manifested in bebalf of the sufferers a most laudable henevoletic and energy.

The Pullian maines in the Academy of Music on Oakford & Son's, Continental Hotel. fe20-101 pany, voluntered their services. Mr. Sun has manifested in behalf of the sufferers a most isudable benevolev ce and energy.

The brilliam matines in the Academy of Music on Saturday, to which Miss Lucille Western proferred her services. was attended by an excessively crowded bouse. She was accompanied from Washington by her agent. Br. Albert Cassedy, under whose management the sitsir was tkilfully conducted.

The gross proceeds of the house were $1,924.25 From this amount Mr. Cassedy deducted $65.17, as follows; His bill at the Girard House, $3.30; Miss Western's bill at the Continental, including husband and servant, $65 25; travelling expenses, $40; orchesta, $50; Ledger Job Office, including postage and distribution, $15.75 Letusething expenses, $40; orchesta, $50; Ledger Job Office, including postage and distribution, $15.57 Lis Letuse, $12; North American, $50; Inquirer, $45; Letuger, $41,59; Lutletin, $12; Sunday Transcriot. $3; Theograph, $12; The Press, $30.72 The Age, News, Disputch, and Times made no charge.

Total amount from all these sources, $4,599.13.

Your Committee cannot close this report without the expression of their grateful seknowledgments to the attribute profession of friladelphia for tasis sympaths with suffering humanity.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HEADQUARTERS FIRST CORPS,

WASHINGTON, February 15, 1865.

Lieut. Colonel Charles Bird, Camp Stoneman, D. G.

COLONEL: A detachment of twenty-odd men from Philadelphia, just arrived in Washington, is being seat to the rendezvous at Camp Stoneman to day. The Major General commanding desires you to have them assigned to one and the same company. He believes that inamused as these men are to be detached for some time, and a large number of others are soon expected to come from Philadelphia, that (as the 1st Regiment is nearly completed) it would be batter to have these mea assigned to the first company of the 2d Regiment. The General desires these men to be armed and equipped as soon as possible, in order that they may be sent as a de-astigned to the first company of the 2d Regiment. The General desires these men to be armed and equipped as soon as possible, in order that they may be sent as a detachment to Philadelphia, to report to Benjamin Frankfin. Eq., chief of the detective police of that city, for recruing purposes. Among the number are two or three men who were formerly non-commissioned officers, and they might be appointed to similar positions in the company to which they will be assigned. You will advite these headquarters as soon as the men are properly equipped.

In the course of a few days Mr. Franklin will enlist drummers and fifers for the company. As soon as they are enlisted they will be sent to Camp Stoneman, to be uniformed and equipped, with drums, fifes, so.

The dieneral desires one good officer sent with the detachment to Philadelphia, where he will remain in charge of it until further orders.

If you have an extra drummer, who can drum, you might send him with the detachment. He should take a drum with him. The officer in charge of the detachment will receipt for the property.

I am, Colonel, very respectfully.
