Lieut. Colonel Charles Bird, Camp Stoneman, D. C.:

COLONEL: A detaniment of twenty-odd men from Philadelphia, just arrived in Washington, is being seat to the rendezvous at Camp Stoneman to eay. The Major General commanding desires you to have them assigned to one and the same company. He believes that inasmurh as these men are to be detached for some time, and a large number of others are soon expected to come from Philadelphia, that (as the lat Regiment is nearly completed) it would be better to have these men assigned to the first company of the 2d Regiment. The General desires these men to be armed and equipped as soon as possible, in order that they may be sent as a detachment to Philadelphia, to report to Benjamin Franklik. Eq., chief of the detective police of that city, for recruiting purposes. Among the number are two or three men, who were formerly non-commissioned officers, and they might be appointed to similar positions in the company to which they will be assigned. You will advise these headquarters as soon as the men are properly equipped. bi the company to wanted a series as soon as the men are will asvite these headquarters as soon as the men are preperly equipped.

In the course of a few days Mr. Franklin will enlist drummers and fifers for the company. As soon as they are enlisted they will be sent to Camp Stoneman, to be uniformed and equipped, with drams, fifes, &c.

The General desires one good officer sent with the detachment to Philadelphia, whore he will remain in charge of it until further orders.

If you have an extra drammer, who can drum, you might send him with the detachment. He should take a drum with him. The officer in charge of the detachment will receipt for the property.
