This omission is a matter of great importance-the tatement being that the clause specified was interpolated in the creed by Pope Nicholas I. at Rome uring the ninthicentury. This innovation is reputed o have been one of the principal causes of the great chism between the eastern and western churches.
mmediately after the creed occur these passages:

Ohoir-The anointing of peace; the sacrifice of praise. Priest-The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God the Father, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with you all. Choir-And with thy spirit. Priest-Let us lift up our hearts. Choir-We lift them up unto the Lord, Priest-Let us give thanks unto the Lord. Choir-We lift them up unto the Lord. Priest-Let us give thanks unto the Lord. Choir-It is meet and right to worship the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, the consubstantial and undivided Trinity. Holy 1 Holy 1 Lord of Sabbaoth, Heaven and Earth are full of Thy glory. Hosennah in the Highest. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosennah in the Highest. Priest-(atter repeating the words of institution) -In behalf of all and for all we offer Thee Thine own of Thine own.

- In Densit of Sil and for Sil we only these thins own of Thine own. Ohoir-Thee we hymn, Thee we praise, to Thee we give thanks; Lord, and pray to Thee out Grd. Then follows a short prayer said secretly, at the end of which the priest exclaims aloud: Priest-And makes us worthy, O Lord, with boldness and without condemnation to call upon Thee our God and Father which art in Heaven, and to our God and Father which art in Heaven, and to say: Uhoir-Our Father, which art in Heaven, and to say: Uhoir-Our Father, which art in Heaven, etc. [The Lord's Prayer was here sung in English.] The consecration is then completed, the priest communes himself, and, while partaking, the choir sings again the Cherubic hymn. Then, after a short ecize, the priest says, "Let us is on posce." A prayer, worded as follows, concludes the iturgy: Lord, who blessest them that bless Thee, and sanctifiest them that put their trust in Thee, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance; guard with care the fullness of Thy church, hallow those who love the beauty of Thine house. Give Thy peace to Thy world, to Thy churches, to our priests and kings; to the atmy and to all Thy people; be-cause every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from Thee, the Father of Light. And to Thee we ascribe all glory, worship, and honor as is most due Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, now and ever, and to zeges and ages. Amen. The liturary, after a petition for the imperial Holy Ghost, now and ever, and to ages and ages. Amen. The liturgy, after a petition for the imperial family, usually ends with the exclamation, Mnoka-yok lysic, meaning "many days." The additional service in commemoration of the event of the day then succeeded, consisting of an "ectene," with the usual choral responses, the gos-pel, a litary for the imperial family, and a prayer recited kneeling—the priest having left the sacra-rium and entered the outer chancel. The "Gloria" was next sung in English, followed by ejaculation "Mnoyah iyeta!" with which the ceremonies con-cluded.

"Mnoyah iyota !" with which the cerémonies con-cluded. The altar, during the service, was adorned with six lighted tapers, and a candelabra overhead illu-minated the entire chancel. This event may prove to be the forerunner of the union of the greet Russian and Eoglish churches, the members of which claim to agree in all essen-tial articles of faith. The kindly feeling existing between America and Russia, as lately evidenced, and the proposed opening of telegraphic communi-cation, by way of Kamschaita, between New York and St. Pstersburg, it is thought will, under the circumstances, render speedily practicable a coali-tion that has been desired, by the Protestants at least, for more then a century. Consectaviox.--The chapel of the Church of St. Matthias, situated at the corner of Soventeenth and Wallace streets, was consecrated to the worship of Almighty God, on Friday, the 24th day of Febru-ary (St. Matthias' Day.) The consectation services ware held by Rt. Rev. Bishop Stevens. Morning Prayer was read by Rev. Drs. Ducachet, E. A. Washburn and Olemson, and Rev. Messrs. Malson and Foggo. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Howe. As a friendly recognition of the work that has been done in the parish of St. Matthias, and an earnest encouragement to future exertion, the discourse was most appropriate and becutiful. It is expected that the corner-stone of the new church, for which the vestry have held for several years a large and eligible lot, will be laid in the Spring or early Summer. It is one of the largest in our city, and nearly all the stops have pipes running through the whole compass of the manuals, instead of omitting the large pipes, form-ing the lower octaves, as its out the case. All of the faterior work seems to be finished in a very su-perior manner; the organ metal used in the pipes is very fine and beautiful, having a larger proportion of the thar masual in its composition. A formal opening will take place during Easter week. Pre-parations are making to add great interest to the oceasion.

This led to a quarrel between him and his wife, when she left, and going into the adjoint house complained to her brother. The latter immediately went into Ford's house and dared him out to fight, but this was declined. At the time Ford had a knife in his hand engaged in trimming a stick, and when the brother-in-law struck him on his own premises, he thrust the knife in his side, from the effects of which he died. The wife continued to visit Ford at the prison so long as the children were allvo, but after the death of the last child, her visits were not so frequent, and finally the worthy superintendent of the prison having been apprised that she came to the institu-tion to taunt her husband in a cruel manner, she was oxcluded entirely from the building. The prison Inspectors, grand jurors for various terms, and other ditycen, having taken an interest in Ford, and recommended his pardon, several gen-tlemen recently sought his wife. She was found living with a colored man, and when her consent to the pardon of her husband was asked the man per-suaded her not to give it, or it would endanger her live. The house she then occupied was owned by Ford, but she has since removed from there. A was pleaded with, in vain, to assont, as her husband would herer molest or go near her, but all his exer-tions would be given to the support of his mether, now eighty years of age. The present and prospective value of the stock of this Company may be inferred from the fast that it owns a fee simple interest in 473 (four hundred and seventy-three) acres of the richest-tested oil territory in Venango county, belleved by the most experienced oil men in that region to be expable of producing a net annual in-some to the Company of one and a half million-dollars, or three times the entire cost of the stock, which would be conjustent to iterative for any seven a month on the or if ree limes the entire cost of the stock, which would be equivalent to twenty five per cent, a month on its subscription price, or one hundred and fifty per cent. per annum on its par value. The following is a description of the Company's pro-

Besides this, there are two wells owned by the owners of the fee, from which they get all the oil. On this Farm there are now ten wells in operation, producing an average of ten barrels per day, and several others are about being thed. There are also on it 187 (sighty-aeven) more lots surveyed, and more than fifty applications are now standing to lease the latter for one-half the oil to the owners.

The durobility of this immediate oll section is illus-irated by the fact that some of the wells on the "Hoov-er" Farm have been pumping for over four years, with-out any material diminution in their yield, while the oll here produced, from its greater convenience for transportation and superior gravity, always commands from one to two dollars per barrel more than the oil at Oil Greek.
