The first report of this excellent and humane institution will be read with general interest. We present to-day the following abstract of it:

The outbreak of the rebellium found our people unprepared for the accommodation of so large an army as the magnitude of the war soon called to the field Regiments were hastily formed in all the Northern States, and, as most of them passed through Philadeiphia on their way to the seat of war, the necessity of providing for the refreshment of the men, and for the care of the sick and weary, led to the foundation of the Cooper Shop Refreshment Salcon, and other like institutions. They were established entirely by voluntary contributions from our citizens, without any aid from either the National, State, or Municipal authorities, and it is with pleasure and princ that we recall the many pleasant cocurrences incident to the growth of our Refreshment Salcons might have been also COOPER SHOP SOLDIERS' HOME.

whom the Government had not, at that time, made proper provision.

As time rolled on a new necessity presented itself. Men discharged from the army, disabled and stex, having no claim upon the Government, presented themselves for more permanent relief than the committee could give, as what they had to offer was of a temporary character only.

After a serious consideration of the subject they decided to organize a Home for such men, and on the 15th day of February, 1862, they obtained from the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Philadelphia a charter for the Coeper Shop Soldiers' Home. delphia a charter for the Coeper Shop Soldiers' H. inc.

The first meeting of the managers elect was held on June 5, 1822. The object of the association was declared to be "the providing of a temporary or permanent home for all persons who, while in the military service of the United States of America, either upon land or sea, shall become disabled from wounds, or from sickness, so that they are unable to perform the ordinary avocations of life."

From the time of this first meeting until September, 1863, the managers found it impossible to procure a suitable building in which to commence the work entrusted to their care. They met often, appointed committees for the purpose, but without any success. y success. Meanwhile, the ladies connected with the insti-City Councils, the main building was placed at the disposal of the managers.

The property was fully repaired and put in good order, and, on the 22d of December, 1863, the Home was formally opened, with an appropriate celebration. Thus the Soldiers' Home became a permanent institution in our city.

Just as the Home was on the threshold of active life, just as it had emerged from the delays of nearly two years, God, in His wise providence, removed one of its most carnest advocates, and active, zealons, and untiring friends, Miss Anna M. Ross, who did on the day of dedication—even while the dedication services were being uttered, He took her to himself.

"She rests from her labors." "She rests from her labors." To the energy and industry of the lady board of managers the success of the Home is mainly due. They have been untiring in their attentions to the innates. Without their enruest assistance the managers feel that they could not have succeeded in his underlaking.

In addition to the regular inmates of the Home, who are well cared for in every respect, it has been our privilege to extend aid and comfort to very many soldiers temporarily in the city, passing home on furlough or sick leave, or returning to the front. Such men are ever welcome; our doors are at all times open to the Union soldier or sailor, the only requisite for admission to the Home being the production of vouchers showing that he has been honorably discharged the service, or is absent from his post by proper authority. honorably discharged the service, or is absent from his post by proper authority.

At the last session of the Legislature of the State, an act to incorporate the Cooper-Snop Soldiers'. Home was obtained, containing a clause permitting the merging of this institution into another having a similar object, entitled "The Soldiers' Home in the city of Philadelphia." This has been done, the two institutions combined, a board of managers elected, and hereafter the Cooper-Snop Soldiers' Home will be known as "The Soldiers' Home in the city of Philadelphia." and Strond.

This court was engaged all day yesterday in hearing arguments on motions for rules for new trials. Court of Common Pleas-Judges Thompson and Allison.
The Equity Argument List was taken up, and several cases were disposed of. Court of Quarter Sessions-Hon. James R. Ludlow Associate Justice. [William B. Mann, Eq. . Prosecuting Attorney.]
The jury in the case of Mary A. Finney, charged with committing an assault and battery on Ann Keelan, came into court with a verdict of gullty. A SCRAMBLE FOR DINNEB.

Wm. McMinn was charged with committing an assault and battery on Frederick Cock. The latter testified that he boarded at the Red Lion Hotel, and was watching to get into his dinner, when a soldier charged him with pushing him in the side. McMinn afterwards came up and struck witness a violent blow in the face.

The father of the accused testified that a wounded soldier came in, and was in the crowd waiting for his dinner. He charged Cook with hurting his wound, when Cook ran him back to a table and the accused interfered in behalf of the soldier. Cook sued several parties, charging them with assaulting him. Verdict gullty, with a recommendation to mercy. Sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

TROUBLE BETWEEN BROTHERS.

B. F. Whartanby was charged with foreible entry and detainer. B. F. Whartanby was charged with forcible entry and detainer.

John M. Whartanbysworn.—I live in Frankford; the accused said he had taken possession of the house; he used no other threats or force than that he would put me in prison; my father died on the 5th of January, and was in possession of the property at that time; I believe the defendant to be my brother; he never had possession of the premises, but broke my lock and I sued him.

Fendant somes testified that he heard defendant say he broke the lock.

Mr. Shalkrossted for muse to John. Benjamin took the butcher shop on the premises, and he was the administrator.

Judge Ludiow now asked where the evidence was to show the disturbance of public peace. It required something more than treepass, and he thought the case should be settled in a civil court. The case was prosecuted by private counsel.

Mr. Mann said there was nothing in the case to warrant its continuance in this court. Mr. Shallcross had no right to rent the house. He had already rented it, and the administrator was in charge; so Mr. Shallcross had nothing to rent. As a public officer he said to the jury that he did not consider it a criminal case. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

RECOGNIZED AS AN ALLEGED THIEF.

A man, giving the name of Charles Ernst, was arraigned yesterday as a suspicious person. He was unexpectedly recognized as the person who committed a robbery about a week ago. It seems that about 2 cloick yesterday morning he was discovered lottering about the vicinity of Market and Decatur streets, by Officers Saunders and Dever. Upon their approach he fied. The officers followed quickly, and after chasing him several hundred yards Mr. Dever discharged a pistol at him. He then surrendered. Upon his person was found a pocket-diary, containing a small-sized silver pencil, with the name of Henry Whilan engraved thereon.

Michael Geisel, the proprietor of a public house on Market street, charged him with having robbed Bartholomew Murtagh, of Pacil, Pa, about a week since at that house. It seems that Mr. M. arrived in Philadelphia having in his possession about fifty dellars which he intended to expend in clover seed. He put up at the house of Mr. Geisel. The prisoner entered the bar room and engaged in conversation with Murtagh, and proposed to measure him around the breast. Both had been drinking liquor, and drinks were wagered that the gentleman from Paoli did not measure as much around the breast as the prisoner. While the measuring of Mr. M. was in progress the prisoner relieved him of his pocket book, containing all his money. He departed the house and since that period was not seen until yesterday. He was committed to await a hearing at such time as Mr. Murtagh can be in attendance.

FINED.

A gentleman doing business in the upper part of RECOGNIZED AS AN ALLEGED THIEF.

A gentleman doing business in the upper part of the city was fined yesterday by the same magistrate for allowing the sidewalk to be half filled with barrels over night and on Sunday.

Every person who permits a box, bale, or barrel, or any other obstruction to remain in front of his premises over Sunday especially, is liable to be fined. (Before Mr. Alderman Beltler.)

(Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.)

ALLEGED PICKPOCKET.

Alexander Carr was arraigned at the Central Station, yesterday, on the charge of picking the pocket of John W. Pomeroy of a silver-lever watch, worth $35. Mr. P. was standing at Third and South streets, on Monday evening, looking at the firemen's procession. He subsequently missed his watch, and gave information of the same at the Central Station. Detective Levy took the subject in hand, and notfited all the pawnbrokers. Yesterday the prisoner stopped at the office of Mr. Isaac Nathans and offered to pawn the watch, which led to his arrest. He was committed to answer.

1st. Being fifty per cent. heavier than the sommon Chimney, they may be handled with much less care.

2d. The oval shape is an adaptation to the fat fame, the Chimney being at all polute the same distance from the heat, so that the danger of sracking by unequal expansion is avoided.

3d. The material of which these Chimneys are manufactured is unequalled by any other glass as a rapid conductor of heat; and, practically, it is found that the combination renders them almost entirely free from liability to destruction by the heat of the flame. Hence the obstacle in the way of the universal use of Carbon Oll, found in the unreasonable expense for Chimneys, has been met and removed by the introduction of

TO THE PUBLIC.—36,750 ACRES OF LAND IN WESTERN VIRGINIA, in the Counties of WYOMING AND MODOWELL, TITLE INDIGHTURABLE, Is offered to the public for the price of $200,000, or a little over $5 per sere, in shares of $1,600 each.

From the report of Professor Whitsker, in 1858, he says COAL abounds in Jabulous quantities and of excellent quality; IRON, GINSING, TIMBER—such as Black Walnut, Chestint, Oak, White Wood, and numerous other kinds, with a largely-increasian market for them—making its desirable investment independent of the prospect of Oil development, of which we feel sanguine there is large quantities to be found on the place, from reports that have been made some time back, and from extracts from papers from that section of country in 1851.

There is already subscribed some 133 shares, leaving but 67 shares uncold.
