"Truth and fiction are closely blended in this tale, and in the sappendix will be found the material from whence some of its incidents have been drawn, as also the narraive which has furnished its groundwork. Those who are sometimes glad to turn away for a while from the heaten roads of history, and to tread the byways of romance; who love truth which resembles fiction, and fiction which follows closely in the footsteps of truth, may, perhaps, find some little interest in this story of the last century."
