This tract is known as the "Stewart Farm," and is clear of all leases or incumbrances of any kind.

There is now in operation a fifty barrel well (beside soveral smaller ones) on the Cochran Farm, which adjoins this on the south. In fact, the "Stewart" Farm is surrounded with good-paying wells, and within a short time a single lease of 80 rods front, on the immediate opposite side of the river, sold for $165,000 (one hundred and stry-five thousand dollars.) On this lease a good well has been struck within a few days. In addition to the territory of the "Stewart" Farm, which is believed to be equally as good as the "Hoover," there are on it a three-story Grist Mill, with fine water-power, a good farm house, and other buildings, hat will be of use to the company.

The durability of this immediate oil section is illustrated by the fact that some of the wells on the "Hoover" Farm have been pumping for over four years, without any material diminution in their yield, while the oil here produced, from its greater convenience for transportation and superior gravity, always commands from one to two dollars per barrel more than the oil at Oil Greak.

"Mr. CONSTANT MAYER has nearly finished a large picture illustrative of the war. It is entitled "Consolation," and represents the interior of a tentin which a wounded soldier is seen reclining on his mattress, listening sadly but carnestly to the words of comforty-oured into his ears from the Holy Book by a Sister of Charity. The treatment of the subject is in the best possible taster, the sentiment not being over-tharged.
