SHERIFF'S SALES.

MRS. M. G. BROWN'S

GREAT METAPHYSICAL DISCOVERY

PRICE 86.

SHERIFF'S SALE.-BY VIRTUE OF

SHERIFF'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF
a writ of Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale or vendue, on MONDAY Evening, May 1, 1885, at 4 o'clock, at Sansom-street Hall.
All the right, title, and interest of A. K. Schroder, of, in, and to all that three-story brick messnage, two orick buildings, brick ice-house and improvements, and lot of ground situate on the northwest side of Richmond street, and northeast side of Huntingdon street, in the city of Philadelphia; containing in front on Bichmond street fifty-four feet, and in depth one huxdred feet to Pike street. Ground rent $94.51

[C. P. : M. 65 122 Lebt. $70 Pilac)

HENRY G. HOWELL, Sheriff
Philadelphia, Sheriff of Office, april 5, 1863. apilo-8t

CHERIFF'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF

D a writ of Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale or vendue, on MONDAY Evening. May 1, 1865, at 40 clock, at Sansom-street Hall, All that lot of ground situate on the north side of York street, 205 feet east of Treaton Railroad, in the city of Philadelphia; containing in front nineties feet, and in depth 125 feet three incase to Emlen street. Ground reat $19.

rent $19.

[C. P.; M., '65. 131. Debt, $44 11. Pile ]

Taken in execution and to be sold as the property of John Carter. HEMEY C. HOWELL, Sheriff.
Philadelphia, Sheriff's Office, April 8, 1896. api0-3t

THE CITY.
	Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying hitherto hath the Lord helped us."— 1 Samuel, 7-12.	himself, in Second street, below Buckroad, and died in a few minutes. His body was taken to the Third- ward station, and the Coroner summoned to hold an inquest.
THANKSGIVING DAY.  Yesterday was set apart by his Excellency Go vernor Curtin as a day of thanksgiving and praye		AID FOR OUR SICK AND WOUNDED AT RICHMOND.
to Almighty God for the recent victories achieve by the Union armies, and particularly for the fal	Hebrews is evidence that in this case they were right, and that to them pertained the viotory. So, if it had pleased Him, he could have helped	Mrs. Lizzle J. Dewees and Mrs. F. Chapman having had a pass given them by the Government, and the facilities furnished to visit our sick and wounded or Richmond, the capital of treason. The day however, was paim Sunday, the anniversary of a epoch in the history of the Christian religion or the	place among the nationalities of mankind.	soldiers at Richmond, will be pleased to receive do- nations of any suitable articles, to be left between 9 and 12 o'clock noon, at Mr. J. Arrison's, 507 North street (Home Mission Office), or 706 N. Ninth street.
mission of Christ that has ever been regarded with deep humiliation and solemnity. In many of the	broad pinions shall spread over this continent east.	Mrs. Dewees has given her time and efforts volunta- rily to the cause of the sick and wounded since the commencement of the war. As soon as stores enough churches the only reference made to the Union vic torics was through the medium of a prayer that had been prepared by the Right Rev. Bishop Stevens	shall dwell together united, prosperous, and happy,	HOMOEOPATHIC.
of the Episcopal Church. In the evening, however a number of the churches were open, and thanks giving addresses or sermons were delivered. The	independence was secured, the dying flame of patriotism was revived, the tide of national pros-	A meeting under the suspices of the Homespathic Association will take piace at Concert Hall this evening, owing to the demand for help for wounded soldiers and rebel refugees. The meeting will be morning and afternoon sessions of the Methodist	maintained, and during the life of Samuel there	FIREMEN'S CONVENTION.
livered were pretty well embelianed with reterence to the good old flag, the power of the Union armies	tivity in Israel. Thus, when a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. God is the author of national	The convention of firemen relative to arrangements for a parade of the department will be held this evening at 8 o'clock, at the hall of the Franklin
ing smiles of Heaven. There was quite an exten-	Samuel set up a stone and called it Ebe- nezer. The great events and the illustrious names	CASUALTIES. About five e'clock on Saturday afternoon, a tute, at which addresses were delivered by the Rev. C. W. Dennison and delegates of the Christian Commission. At the First Independent Church, at	of Carees and Dome the clabs of Nimereh and the	Mr. White, who boards at the Continental Hotel; was thrown from a wagon on Carpenter street, near Sixth, owing to the horse running Broad and George streets, the Rev. 10nn Unambers delivered a declamatory address, of which the fol-	I marble columns that are found on all the battle.	away. The unfortunate gentleman was picked up in a state of insensibility, and conveyed to a neighboring house, from which he was taken to the lowing is an epitome:  REV. JOHN CHAMBERS.  The church of the Rev. John Chambers, at Broad	gigantic form and buries its head in the clouds of Heaven, to remind the men of the present of the	Continental. The horse was stopped by a man shortly after the accident, A soldier named Charles Owen shattered his hand and Sansom streets, was well filled yesterday. The gervices were opened with singing a hymn, after which Wr. Chambers offered up a fervent prayer for	their fathers secured the rights and liberties they now enjoy. And in time to come many a monu- ment shall memorize the deeds of valor and of self-	yesterday morning, at the Bridesburg Arsenal, while playing with a pistol.  FOUND DROWNED.
peace throughout our once happy land. He then announced to the congregation that a committee would sit on Monday afternoon to collect the rents	gle were wrought out and achieved. Such memo- rials have their mission, and are useful. They	An unknown white man, about forty years of age, five feet nine inches high, was found drowned yesterday at Race street wharf. He had brown of pews. The church was in debt $2,100, and he had collected but about $400. He urged the congregation to call mon him, at his house, and settle up.	of peril and deliverance by God's hesp. they call us to gratitude for the past, and hope	been in the water a long time.
Some eight or ten families had recently left the city, or removed so far away as to prevent them from attending the church, much to their regret, as	ened long years alterwards by coming anew to the stone pillar which he had set up at Bethel. So we	Yesterday afternoon a man named Daniel Sheffield was accidentally shot through the heart by a expressed to the pastor. Other persons, or reasons satisfactory to themselves, had severed their connection with the church, but in this free land people	help, the spiritual of grateful nearts—that God has interposed in our national affairs, that victory fol-	ball from a revolver in the hands of Henry -Wil- helm. The latter gave himself up to the officers of the Second district.
had a right to do as they pleased. He also stated that the Sabbath-school was in want of two male teachers, and hoped two of the members would con- secrate themselves to that work.		SLIGHT FIRE. Yesterday afternoon, after four o'clock, a slight fire occurred at the smoke-house of James Dobson,
The reverend gentleman then proceeded with his sermon, selecting for his text the fifteenth chapter first Corinthians, fifty-eighth verse: "Therefore	our memorial of thanks for the past and hope for the future, and say "hitherto hath the Lord helped	Ridge avenue and Wissahickon road. Chief Engi- neer Lyle was passing at the time, and extinguished the fire by breaking a hole in the roof and pouring my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, immovesole, always abounding in the work of the Lord, foras- much as we know that your labor is not in vain in	After the usual morning service Rev. Mr. Brooks read the Thanksgiving proclamation of Governor	on a few buckets of water. Loss about $20.  FATAL RESULT.
the Lord." The Apostic having previously discus sed the death and resurrection of Christ, closes with the glad and vital exhibition of truth with the most	Curtin. He then announced his text from the 40th chapter of the Gospel, according to St. Luke: "And he answered and said unto them. I tell you that if	Edward W. H. Miller, of Harrisburg, Pa., who was run over on the Pennsylvania Ralifond on the 28th ult., has since died at the Pennsylvania Hos- wital.
powerful and cogent interest. It was addressed to all believers, and will stand for all time. It was an evil—nay, a dark and calamitous day—	immediately cry out." He referred to the recur-	CONTRIBUTION.  The faculty and pupils of the Giris' High School when periodical revivals were commenced; for the principles of the holy religion were always abound- ing. The very essence of Christianity was love, and	the strewing of palms in his way, of the Pharisees asking that the disciples be restrained in their	have contributed $105 to the general fund of the U.  S. Christian Commission.  BILLIARDS.
It is always ready to go on errands of kindness and goodness. Is there any errand, then, better than to bring a man into the Churcho God? Let man pray	Chief Magistrate of our State to render thanks to	The great billiard match between Victor Estephe, champion of Pennsylvania, and Edward H Neims, for the championship of the State, will take place everywhere, lifting up holy hands—not in cheating one another. The reverend gentleman referred to the downfall of the Roman and Greek Empires, and said that, although they had religion, they had no	in crushing rebellion. He hoped that all had come. with hearts of gratitude to God, and were ready to	at the Academy of Music next Thursday evening. BALL.
Ohristianity. How many persons in this land watered a mile out of their way to bring a man to Jesus Ohrist? It is true, the work of the Lord was not	Splendid as have been the achievements of our army since last Monday, the great work has	The annual ball of the Columbia Library Asso- ciation will take place this evening at the Academy of Music.
that of a flower garden, or gew-gaws, but is stern, hard labor. He concluded by saying that the man who, brought his fellows to Jesus Christ accom-	week is only the assertion of a triumph that was	THE COURTS.
plshed more than all the heroes in battle, and he besought his hearers to be abounding in the work of the Lora.	thing so disprecedented as the joy that begun in the morning and continued long into nightfall—hands	Court of Quarter Sessions—Hon. James R. Ludlow, Associate Justice. TOUGHING THE CUSTODY OF A CHILD.
THE NATION'S GREAT TRIUMPH.  DISCOURSE IN THE SEW-STREET LUTHERAS	utterance to expressions articulate, or inarticulate,	The court delivered an opinion in the case of Bridget Lyons, aged 12 years, who was claimed by her aunt from the custody of Mrs. Birkeustine.
In the New-street Lutheran Church, last evening, a large and appreciative audience had assem	If on that day any Pharisee had asked that the joy should be stopped, we could have said, "If these should have the stones would immediately the stones would immediately the stones would immediately the stones would immediately the stones would be stonested to the stones would be stonested to the stonested to t	His Honor said that the mother of the child was dead. The father entered the military service, and before he left the city he degred that Mrs. Birkenbled to listen to a discourse from the paster, Rev E. W. Hutter. The text was—"This is the Lond's doing, and i	give utterance to their joyful feelings, there are hearts in the farthest corners of the earth which	stine should take care of the child, and if he never returned she should continue to do so, and bring her up. The father was killed in battle, and the aunt is marvellous in our eyes."—Matthew xxi., 42.  These precise words had been uttered centuries before, by the Royal Psalmist, and were elicited by the worderful deliverances of God?	would rise up for joy at the great Christian triumph. The question would arise as the day of peace	made application to the Orphans' Court, who apa review of the wonderful deliverances of God's chosen people from the enemies who had threat ened their destruction. As a firm believer in that general and special superintending providence	have been separated from each other by	is a Catholic, and the present custodian is a Protest- ant. The Courts of Chancery of England, in the ap- pointment of guardians, invariably have regard to without whose ministration not a sparrow falls to the earth, the Paslmist does not ascribe these de- liverances to israel's horses, or Israel's charlots, or	find their settlement in one great song of iov.	that the guardian has the right to control the rali-
Israel's armies, but to Israel's God.  It is now more than four years, the most eventful quadrennial division of time in our historic annals.	week have resulted as they have. If we are glad in the death of the rebellion, let us give thanks to-	family of Mrs. Birkenstine, and that there is no since a few ambitious and designing leaders o Southern opinion undertook to overthrow and destroy the institutions founded by the valor	been led by God's providence so wonderfully, who shall dispute that some have been led by a different	servant in the house except this child. Therefore, the child is not there for education, but in the ca- pacity of a servant. The order of the court is that the calld be awarded into the custody of the guar-
and patriotism, the treasure and blood of their and our fathers. Revolutions in Government are mostly the off	way from the one in which we walked? What time so fit as this for us to throw off the old and corrupt uses which slavery has put upon us? Some one would say, couldn't you let that alone to day? No,	dian, who shall enter sufficient security to provide spring of grievous and unendurable oppression But these men combined to overthrow a Govern ment that had not only never harmed them, but of	he hadn't the heart, siter having read that those black heroes had done more than any man or woman	the provisions of the law.  Mr. O'Byrne said it was proposed to send the child to the Seminary of the Sisters of Mercy, at Chest- nut Hill.
whose honors and emoluments, from the first, they had enjoyed almost a monopoly. With less than a third of the free population of the country, and less	that they could not set in our churches without	Judge Ludlow said he must know all about the institution before he would make the order final.
than a third of its wealth, they had eleven Presidents out of sixteen; seventeen Judges of the Supreme Court out of twenty-eight; fourteen Attorney Generals out of photoen; sixty one presidents	hadn't the heart to keep quiet on such an occasion, but he expressed his regret that such was the fact. In conclusion, he offered up gratified to the same	In the case of Camonwa alth. Wagner, ney Generals out of nineteen; sixty-one president of the Serate out of syenty-seven; twenty-one president of the Serate out of syenty-seven; twenty-one president of the Serate out of Serate out out of Serate out out of Serate out out of Serate out of Serate out out	prayer that ne wild speedily finish the great work.	rendered the following decision on the motion for a new trial. His Honor said the prosecutor enlisted for the war, leaving a wife residing in this
of the House of Representations of the House of Representation of one and indirect and thirty-four representations of the General Government through all the off-se of the General Government of the Gen	DEPARTURE OF THE STH UNION LEAGUE	city. Wagner, it is alleged, cloped with her, and, on the trial, it was urged that, inasmuch as the wife of the prosecutor had taken the furniture to Wagner's, larceny was perpetrated, and her paramour
For their benes, the revenues of the Government	The 8th Union League Regiment broke camp Saturday afternoon, and after marching over the Saturday action works (Columbia avenue to Sixteenth	was guilty of that offence. His Honor cited from both English and American law books bearing on the case, and said that there was no evidence to the suppression of hostile Indian tribes, for the re-		show that Wagner ever had the property in his sepa- rate possession. The rule for a new trial was made absolute.
rivers, and for their territorial aggrandizement, the treasures of the nation were empited lavishly into their lap. The entire policy of the Government, in- deed, from its organization down, had been shaped	net to Fourth, down Fourth to Walnut, and up	Mr. O Byrne said his client was now in prison. Judge Ludlow ordered the ball in the same amount as at first entered to be renewed.
for their benefit.  And yet, against such a Government—the pride and model of the world—the ultimate centre of at-	Union League House at Broad and Sansom streets, where a stand of colors was presented by the League	HOUSE OF REFUGE CASE.  "In the case of Resanna Braceland, whose parents claim her from the managers of the House of Refuge, the matron of that institution was examined
earth—their own constant and bounteous patron—did	and said that it was a matter of the association and gratification to the members of the association	and testified that Rosanna told her she had been in the habit of living an improper life, by meeting men Athenian legislator, who objected to the introduc-	military arm of the (toverhibent, cor, more, and	at Fairmount.  Judge Ludiow said he would hold the case under consideration.  CASE OF A BABY.
trom by the penalt against the sin of particide, on the ground that it was a crime too monstrous ever to be committed, evidently had but a very imperient conception of the deep deprayties of the human heart.	replied in a brief speech, and thanked the members of the Union League for the many favors the remember and received at their hands. List of the officers of this regiment has the peen published in The Property of the RECEIVED TO THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PERTY OF THE P	Frederick Vehis claimed the custody of his baby, 14 months old, from its uncle. The evidence shows. The true hard the cheer threat the true that the base threat the custom it is and the frederic said.
And if the rebellion was diabolical in its concestion, it lost nothing in its character introduction in its about the same of	bothly were issued to 92 men, one of whom emisted for three years, and the rest for one year.	the child, since when it has been treated in the
And if the received was character within the lost nothing in its character within the lost nothing in its character within the constitution of secession as a right, how should it be exercised? Clearly the character of the constituent power should be the same—viz: the sovereign people themselves—and the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should only appear to the second of the character should be character to the second of the character should be character to the second of the character should be character to the second of the secon	Wards. Men. Wards. Men. First. 3 Tenth	kindest manner. The father married a month after the death of his wife and now claims the child. The court remanded the child to the custody of the aunt,
the right should only be exercised with prayerful solumnity, under the tie of conscience, binding the	Third	saying it was for the best interests of the child that such should be done. The father must be permitted to see the child at all hours, and this decision was not to prejudice his rights hereafter.
dissolving party to the retributive justice of heaven. But, was the assumed right of withdrawal exercised in this solemn way? Let the history of the	Sixth	THE POLICE.
past four years answer.  And what a revolting spectacle the forcible selzure of the property of the Government to which	COMPLIMENTARY.  The following card, upon the resignation of Lieut. Fell, is a merited compliment:	[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] ALLEGED PARTICIPANTS IN A ROW.
they had sworn allegiance—its mints, post offices, custom houses, forts, areanals—their burning of the navy yard at Gosport, and their repudiation of mil-	HEADQUARTERS 21ST PANNA. CAVALRY, March 27, 1865. LIEUTENANT - Having learned that it is your intention	TOn Thursday picht a street fight accurred on lions of debt due to Northern merchants, much of it purposely contracted with a view to its subsequent repudiation!  And, oh, what a horrible chapter these inhumani-	command.	Chestnut street, near Ninth. It was short, sharp, decisive, and sanguinary. The crowd augmented so rapidly, and the fignt-was so quickly over, that it was impossible for the police to make any arrest at the time. As warrant was issued on Friday for the ties practised upon our poor, defenceless prisoners-	Generous and brave to a fault, prompt and willing in	arrest of Alderman McMullen, John Tobin, Jere-with plenty of food almost within arm's length-	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future career can only be creditable to yourself and your as-	mitah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as princi- pals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party ap-their systematic and wholesale starvation of them, with plenty of food almost within arm's length—their exposure of them to drenching rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very reincements of orusity!	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future career can only be creditable to yourself and your as-	mtah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as princi- pals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party ap- peared before the megistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the charac-
ing suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of cruelty!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future career can only be creditable to yourself and your as-	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as princi- pals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party ap- peared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the charac- ter of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.
their exposure of them to drending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very reinements of cruelty!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Pharisesium that we raise our hearts in	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excert can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlahes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant,  Colonel 21st Ponnsylvanta Cavalry,  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penna, Cavalry,  MISCRELLANEOUS.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony what
their exposure of them to drending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excerce can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, O. B. KNOWLES.  Golonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS. A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1855, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at	mah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McNullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and cheir exposure of them to drending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no consetvable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (40d that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion?  Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excercan only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlakes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Penns, vanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lleutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  MISCRELANEOUS.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 66 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Lattude 39 de-	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual calculate exposure of them to definding rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no consetvable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (40d that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonwille, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydom of fire, without a narallel in	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant,  O. B. KNOWLES.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10% minutes W. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIEK-PATRICK, A. M.:	mah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the megistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 ach to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole soone did not
their exposure of them to drenching rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (4od that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Saltsbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyydom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excercan only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant,  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  MISCRELLANEOUS.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10% minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:  March, 1864, for 14 yrs Highest degree.  76.00 59.00 78.50	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the megistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.
ing suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual ond, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent,	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, O. B. KNOWLES.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIEK-PATRICK, A. M.:  Thermometer.  Maych, March, March, 1964, for 14 yrs Highest degree. 76,00 59,00 78,50  Do. date 21st, 196th, 34, 46, 46, 60  Do. date 16th, 18th, 34, 46, 61  Lowest degree. 24,00 20,00 4,00  dot date 16th, 18th, 34, 46, 61  Lowest degree. 24,00 20,00 4,00  Do. date 11th, 23d, 16th, 566	mith Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.
their exposure of them to drenching rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (dod that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burther of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the thross of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, O. B. KNOWLES.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39' degrees, 57% minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIEK-PATRICK, A. M.:    March, 1864, 1964, for 14 yrs	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the megistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.
their exposure of them to drending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conseivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a baptism of blood and a marryndom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer? Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fuglitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, O. B. KNOWLES.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39' degrees, 57% minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIEK-PATRICK, A. M.:    March, 1864, 1964, for 14 yrs	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 cach to answer at court. It salleged that Alderman McMulien interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Cirard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assallant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE
called the exposure of them to deponding rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (40d that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threese of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will scon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a figitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without wait.	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlakes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lleutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 66 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57½ minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. Mi.:    March, 1864.   March, 1865.   March, 1864.   March, 1866.   March, 1866	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the megistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE case exposure of them to drending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way te glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The inght is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the seenes of his past greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penna. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March,   March,   March,   March,   1866,   1864,   60 feet   60 fee	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  OF  WORCESTER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1865.
their exposure of them to drenching rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no consetvable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (40d that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion?  Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martydom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the throes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avonging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without walting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the seenes of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied awey to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in its infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's coupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penna. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March, 1886, 1864, for 14 yrs Highest degree. 76.00 59.00 78.50 Do. date 21st, 186h, 34, 61. Warmest day—mean 64,50 48, 90 66,00 Do. date 16th, 13th, 34, 61. Do. date 16th, 13th, 34, 61. Do. date 11th, 22d, 10th, 56 Do. 2 P. M. 46,16 39,05 40,53 Po. Do. 2 P. M. 46,16 39,05 40,53 Po. Do. 42 Po. 44,66 39,06 67,07 Do. 2 P. M. 46,16 39,05 40,53 Po. 672 Do. atternant 46,16 39,05 40,53 Po. 672 Do. date 15t, 18th, 34, 12t Po. date 15t, 18th, 34, 12t Po. date 15t, 18th, 34, 35, 35 87 Do. 2 P. M. 46,16 39,05 40,53 Po. 672 Do. date 15t, 18th, 34, 12t Po. date 15t, 18th, 34, 12t Po. date 15t, 18th, 34, 15t, 18th, 34, 15t, 18th, 34, 15t, 18th, 34, 18t, 18th, 34, 18th, 34	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK called the exposure of them to depending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will scon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the complicators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infany, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future exceet can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for Your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Penns; vania Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lleutenant Zist Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delawars river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57½ minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ degrees,	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girerd House suddenly crossed the street, and without any deremony what ever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assaled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  OF  WORCESTER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER SI, 1865.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK calculated the superior of the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all cur borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Satisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the throse of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cubinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for 10 "Othelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from their homes, and marched off in hordes to the attar of implous and i	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for Your Welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lleutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  MISCRELANEOUS.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, where the pennsylvanta Cavalry.  MISCRELANEOUS.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, where the penns of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10% minutes W from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:  Thermometer.  March, 1864,	mtah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  Outrage.  Outrage.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalted individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK calculated the subjection of the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The inglu is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will scon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infany, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from their homes, and marched off in hordes to the attar of implous and	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future exterer can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best where for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Ponnsylvania Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penna. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1885, with those of March, 1884, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N: longitude 75 degrees, 10% minutes W. from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratrick, A. M.:    Thermometer.   March, 1885,   March, 1884,   for 14 yrs	mtah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  Outrage.  Outrage.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK
their exposure of them to deponding rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The inght is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will scon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the senses of his past greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infany, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's cocupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future exerct can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Ponnsylvania Cavairy.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penna. Cavairy.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1885, with those of March, 1884, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N: longitude 75 degrees, 10% minutes W. from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-Patrick, A. M.:    March, 1886, 1884, for 14 yrs 1986, 1884, for 18 yrs 1986, 1884, for 18 yrs 1986, 1884, for 18 yrs	mtah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  Outrage.  Outrage.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any esremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Countmental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital stually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$11,930 00  Loans on Real Estate
their exposure of them to deponding rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (40d that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the senses of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied awey to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future excess can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlahes for Your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penna. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIEK-PATRICK, A. M.:    March, 1864, 186	mith Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the noss of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalied individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK
their exposure of them to deponding rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty (40d that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the throes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will scon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a figitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the seenes of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Chelio's coupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from t	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for Your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant 21st Penns. Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIRK-PATRICK, A. M.:	mith Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the noss of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalied individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK
calculated the problem to depending rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The light is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugltive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the seenes of his past greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infany, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's cocupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your fature career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlakes for Your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, the property of the metaporological persons of the metaporological phenomena of March, 1863, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March, 1866, 1864, 60 degrees, 10½ minutes day—mean 64, 50 degrees, 10½ minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minu	math Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalted individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK their exposure of them to defining rains and burning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no consetvable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the throes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugltive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the seenes of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to patts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Othelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from th	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future exreer can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for Your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Ponna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March, March, March, March, Instead of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Ponna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March, March, March, March, March, 1866, 1864, 1864, 1865, 1864, 1864, 1866, 1864, 1866, 1864, 1866, 1864, 1866,	mith Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Coutinental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital sctually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$41,900 00  Loans on Real Estate their exposure of them to disconding rains and bufning suns, and their deliberates subjection to the very refinements of cruelty!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atroctous that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discorn, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual ond, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and despiy! The rebellion is in the thross of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, be bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greaness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to coupation's gone!" The army, most of them torn by despotic force from their homes, and marched off in hordes to the attar of imploms and insaltable ambition, has scattered befor	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future exreer can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wishes for Your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant, colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  Colonel 21st Pennsylvanta Cavalry.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Ponna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March, March, March, March, Instead of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Ponna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-patrick, A. M.:    March, March, March, March, March, 1866, 1864, 1864, 1865, 1864, 1864, 1866, 1864, 1866, 1864, 1866, 1864, 1866,	math Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any esremony whatever planted one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Coutinental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalied individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital sctually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$41,930 00  Loans on Real Estate their exposure of them to defineding rains and bufning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atroctous that by no conceivable combination of circumsteness can it be paillated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Pharisecism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual ond, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'I'lis done! The long agony is mearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the throse of dissolution. Our torn, laccrated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His sabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for low of the towers and battlemen	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your fainte career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlahes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant zlet Penns, Qavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant zlet Penns, Qavalry.  MISCELLANEOUS.  MISCELLANEOU	mith Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Coutinental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital sctually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$41,900 00  Loans on Real Estate their exposure of them to distorate subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atroctous that by no conceivable combination of circumsteness can it be paillated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Salisbury?  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The long agony is nearly ever! We breathe more freely and desply! The rebellion is in the throes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his pat greatness, and, carpet bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His sabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Chelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them form by despotic force from their homes, and marched off in hordes to the altar of implous and insatiable ambition, has seathered	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your fainte career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlahes for your welfars, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servings.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Elst Penna, Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Elst Penna, Cavalry.  MISCELLANEOUS.  MISCELLANEO	matah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK their exposure of them to derending rains and bufnering suns, and their deliberates subjection to the very refinements of crueity!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Saltsbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody siege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our peeple! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the day is at hand! "Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our form, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a figulive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avenging angal, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without watching for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scene of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to past unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Chhelio's parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for lo "Chhelio's coupation's gone?" The Congress, so recently broading over giga	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your funte career can only be creditable to yourself and your 28-sociates.  With the best wlahes for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1885, with those of March, 1884, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 57% minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes N. from Greenwich. By JAMES A. KIRK-PATRICK, A. M.:    Thermometer.	mitah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Chrard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital sctually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co
their exposure of them to drenoting rains and ourning suns, and their deliberates subjection to the very refinements of cruelty!  Stayvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumsteness can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Pharisesism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Itsland, no Andersonville, no Satisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the inght? Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the leavy burthen of anxiety is litted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual ond, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tils done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! Therebellion is in the throes of dissolution. Our torn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avanging angel, then in swith pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last, then in swith pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the charges of the gone of the condition, has scattered before the nucle blasts of the tempets. The Congress, so recently brooding over gigantic schemes of Klehmond alone waves	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your fainte career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best wlahes for your welfars, I aubscribe myself, very respectfully, your obelient serving.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Elst Penna, Cavalry.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Elst Penna, Cavalry.  MISCELLANEOUS.  March.   March.   March.	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace-maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Circard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knowed down. While prostrated the assallant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalled individual was badly burt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK their exposure of them to drenoming rams and curning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of cruelty!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Pharisesism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it nour power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonville, no Satisbury!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Blessed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryrdom of firs, without a parailel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burther of anxiety is lifted from the hearts of our peeple! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our torn, incerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the comspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of Ocd, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's awaging angel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting to the partius breaches of compaction's gone? The army, most of them form by despotic force from their homes, and marched off in hordes to the altar of implous and insalable ambitton, has scattered before the invincible horse of the Republic as chaif before the invincible horse of the Republic as chaif before the invincible horse o	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best where for your welfare, I aubseribe myeelf, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  MISCELLANEOUS.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1885, with those of March, 1884, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Lutitude 39 degrees, 67% minutes N.; longtande 75 degrees, 10% minutes W. from Groenwich. By Jamss A. Kukrpatrick, A. M.:    March	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine O'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fist on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth Street, and disappeared from yiew. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital struck. $200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital strually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Beal Estate owned by the Co$41,300 00  Loans on Real Estate their exposure of them to demoning sains and outring suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of crueity?  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of ofroumstances can it be pallilated or exoused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseesiam that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Island, no Andersonitie, no Satisbury?  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night? Hissed bo God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is litted from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discorn, in the illumined horizon, if not, the actual cod, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! 'Tie done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the throse of dissolution. Our forn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fuglitee. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very sot of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him, quickly to hide himself from God's avenging sngel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting to encoded our of the preaches, he hade a last, a long farewell to the sense of his past greatness, and, earpt-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in his infany, went and did likewise, for lo 'Othelio's occupation's gone!" The army, most of them to repose of the history,	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your men, your future career can only be creditable to yourself and your associates.  With the best where for your welfare, I subscribe myeell, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  MISCELLANEOUS.  Colonel Rist Pennsylvania Cavairy.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Elet Penns, Cavairy.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penns. Barometer 60 feat above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 75½ minutes N: longthade 76 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirke-Patrick, A. M.:    Thermometer.	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth Street, and disappeared from view. The whole scone did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital stock their exposure of them to demoning sains and our reling suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very relinements of cruelty!  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of ofrounstances can it be pailliated or excused. It is stuply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseesim that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle 18:5636, no Andersonitie, no Satisbury!  But how now stands the case with rebellion?  Sony of suspense and trail—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trail—after a baption of blood and marryrutom of firs, without a parallel in the process upon our consecrated stands, and the heavy butthen of anxiety is littled from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual ond, its near and speedy approach! The night if sar spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our forn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of pages of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's avonging sngel, then in swift pursuit. And lo, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the sense of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinat ministers, the sharers in his infamy, went and did likewise, for low Othern to the parts never again to be brought together. The conjunction's gone!" The army, most of them forn by despotic force from their homes, and marched off in hordees to the altar of implous and insatiable ambition, has scattered before the	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comicat and welfare of your men, your faunts career can only be creditable to yourself and your assemble myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  With he best wheles for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Colonel Sie Pennsylvania Cavairy.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Siet Pennsylvania Cavairy.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of Misrch, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penns. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 50½ minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10½ minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kirk-Patrick, A. M.:   Thermometer.    March,   March,   March,   March,   1864, and   1864,   18	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  OUTRAGE.  OUTRAGE.  ON Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House studdenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth Street, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  MORCESTER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1865.  AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK. $200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co. $11,301 00  Loans on Real Estate. 57,384 00  Bank Stocks (market value) 12,583 00  United States Stocks do. 117,351 00  Cash in hands of Agents. 5,855 52  AMOUNT STEET,  ACCIDENTS  OF  EVERY DESCRIPTION,  BY THE  TRAVELLERS' INSURANCE COMPANY,  HAETFUED, CONN.  Capital their exposure of them to demoning rains and our reling suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very relinements of cruelty?  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeins that we raise our bearts in themstallness to Alugain that we raise our bearts in themstallness to Alugain the theory of the prison of suspense and trial—siter a baptism of blood and a martyrdom of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy butthen of anxiety is littled from the heavist of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorlous summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is ar spent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is nearly over! We breath more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our forn, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's aveaging angel, then in swill pursuit. And to, without waiting for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scaece of his past greatness, and, carpet-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharersin his infany, went and did likewise, for 10 'Chello's occupation's gone! The army, most of them torn by despotic force from their house, and marched of the faguiness, and captures, and	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comicat and welfare of your men, your fantare exerce can only be creditable to yourself and your assemble myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.  Glonal Sist Pennsylvania Cavairy.  Thos. F. Fell, Lieutenant Sist Pennsylvania Cavairy.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of Misrch, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penns. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Luttude 33 degrees, 67%, minutes N.; longitude 75 degrees, 10% minutes W. from Greenwich. By James A. Kurk-Patrick, A. M.:     Thermometer.	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  Outrage.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House saddenly crossed the street, and without any correspony whatever planted one of his fist on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The states de individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole some did not occupy over one minute. The seased and intridual was knocked, and disappeared from view. The whole some did not occupy over one minute. The seased the intridual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$41,900 00  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$41,900 00  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  Cash on hand and in bank. 15,655 67  Other assets not above specified, including accrued interest. 4.253 13  Loans on Collateral their exposure of them to derending same and our reling suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very relinements of cruelty?  Starvation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be paillacted or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in the control of the contro	the performance of every durie of your men, your inine career can only be creditable to yourself and your asternation of the method of your beddent servant.  With the best wheles for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obeddent servant.  Thes. F. Fell, Lieutenant Hist Penns, Uavairy.  METEOROLOGICAL STATISTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomens of March, 1865, with those of March, 1865, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fenns.  Barometer of feet and your result of the property of the propert	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McNullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House saddenly creesed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fist on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assalland unapped upthe street, and disappeared from riew. The whole scene did not occupy over one minute. The assalled individual was badly burt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Estate owned by the Co$41,900 00  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital actually paid in in cash. 200,000  Cash in hands of Agents. 35,000 00  Cutstanding claims, and due. 30,000 00  Cutstanding claims, and due. 20,000 00  Wh. W. Allen, Agent, 404 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.  INSURANCE AGAINST  ACCIDENTS  OF  EVERY DESORIPTION,  BY THR  TRAVELLERS' INSURANCE COMPANY,  HAEFT ED. CONN.  Capital Could be accurately provider sun between the hand for $3,000 or interferopenents of crueity?  Staryation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious. Staryation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious. Staryation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious. And the company of the c	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and wolfare of your men, your fainte career can only be creditable to yourself and your asternation of the performance of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penns. Barometer 60 feet above mean tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 39 degrees, 67% minutes Nr.; longitude 75 degrees, 10% min	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McNullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  Outrade.  On Saturday evening about hime o'clock a man standing in front of the Chrard House suddenly crossed the Street, and without any genemony what standing in front of the Chrard House suddenly crossed the Street, and without any genemony what research and the sum of the Counterental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assallant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole scone did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Gapital study paid in in cash. 200,000  MACHIELD AND STATES AND S ing suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of orucity?  Tendements of orucity?  Tendements of orucity?  Tendements of orucity?  The possible combination of circumstated by comparison that you compared to the possible of the possibl	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and wolfare of your men, your nine care and not always and the performance of	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McNullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House sindenly crossed the street, and without any deremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assallant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole soone did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was hadly burt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE CONDITIO
ing suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very refinements of orucity refinements of the pallated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forus, and it is in no spirit of Phariseesism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Michid, no Andersonville, no Salisbury?  But how now stants the case with the rebellion? Watchman, what of the night! Blessed bo God, and the Fether of our Lord, Sease Brist, after many actions of sispense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marryform of firs, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthen of anxiety is littled from the hearts of our people! Now is the winter of our agony giving way to glorious summer! Now, we discern, in the illumined horizon, if not, the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The night is far spent, the day is at hand! The order land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugltive. On last Lord's Day, whilst sitting in the house of God, and whilst tens of thousands were in the very act of prayer for his overthrow, the message came to him quickly to hide himself from God's sweaging angel, then in with pursuit. And Io, without walking for the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, curpet bag in hand, fled away to parts in the own of the parting benediction of the preacher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, curpet bag in hand, hed away to the parting benediction of the preacher, he coupled to the parting to have a subject of the part of the couple of the parting of	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and wolfare of your men, your nine care and not always and the performance of	mish Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McNullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House sindenly crossed the street, and without any deremony whatever planted one of his fists on the nose of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assallant jumped upon him, and then ran around the corner of Ninth street, and disappeared from view. The whole soone did not occupy over one minute. The assailed individual was hadly burt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE CONDITIO
inter exposure of them to derecting rains and ourning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very rediments of contrivens is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Missid, no Andersonville, no Satisbary!  But how now stand the case with these do God, and the same of the contribution of the contri	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to take comfort and welfare of your welf and your association to the comfort and welfare of your welf and your association with the best whese for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and with the best wither for your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your association. These welfare is a subscription of some of the mesteorological phenomena of March, 1865, with those of March, 1865, with these of March, 1865, with these of March, 1863, with these of March, 1864, with the well and the perfect of the method of the well and the perfect of the subscription. The perfect of the method of the well and the perfect of the method of the well and the perfect of the method of the well and the perfect of the method of the well and the perfect of the perfect	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered bell in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that a liferman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole some old not compy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Capital stouk. $200,000  ASSETS:  Amount of Real Batate owned by the Co$11,000 00  Loans on Real Estate. 76,334 00  Earl Stocks (market value). 115, 335 00  Earl Stocks (market value). 115, 335 00  Loans on Collateral. 15,000 00  L
inter exposure of them to derecting rains and ourning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very resonants of criticisms.  In the palliated or excused. It is simply murdor in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankininess to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury have the pall our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that the rebellion of the pight? He rebellion and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydrom of fire, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the leavy burthen of anxiety is litted from the hearts of our people! Now is the without a parallel in the dilumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The hight is far sent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is meanly over ! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our form, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive of the chief of the conspirators is a fugitive of the parallel benedication of the prescher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, extpe-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in bid disposite force from their homes, and marchade and the chief of the consense of the parting benedication of the prescher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, extpe-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinets and following the conse	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to take comit's and welfare of your walfare, I subsertibe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and welfare of your walfare, I subsertibe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and walfare, and the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your and you and yo	math Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered bell in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McKullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any eremony what ever planted one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked the distinct was knocked on which the result of the continental the stacked by the company of the property of the continental one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked the distinct was knocked on which are not accomposed to the composed of the coupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE CONDITION OF THE PROPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  OF WORCESTER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, 51, 1865.  AMOURT OF CAPITAL STOCK
inter exposure of them to derecting rains and ourning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very resonants of criticisms.  In the palliated or excused. It is simply murdor in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankininess to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury have the pall our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that the rebellion of the pight? He rebellion and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydrom of fire, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the leavy burthen of anxiety is litted from the hearts of our people! Now is the without a parallel in the dilumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The hight is far sent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is meanly over ! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our form, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive of the chief of the conspirators is a fugitive of the parallel benedication of the prescher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, extpe-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in bid disposite force from their homes, and marchade and the chief of the consense of the parting benedication of the prescher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, extpe-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinets and following the conse	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to take comit's and welfare of your walfare, I subsertibe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and welfare of your walfare, I subsertibe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and walfare, and the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your and you and yo	math Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered bell in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McKullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any eremony what ever planted one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked the distinct was knocked on which the result of the continental the stacked by the company of the property of the continental one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked the distinct was knocked on which are not accomposed to the composed of the coupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE CONDITION OF THE PROPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  OF WORCESTER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, 51, 1865.  AMOURT OF CAPITAL STOCK
inter exposure of them to derecting rains and ourning suns, and their deliberate subjection to the very resonants of criticisms.  In the palliated or excused. It is simply murdor in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeism that we raise our hearts in thankininess to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury have the pall our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that we have in all our borders to Libby, no Belle Mand, no Andersonwillen to Saksbury that the rebellion of the pight? He rebellion and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, after many a bloody slege and conflict—after a long and bitter agony of suspense and trial—after a baptism of blood and a marrydrom of fire, without a parallel in the world's historic annais, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the leavy burthen of anxiety is litted from the hearts of our people! Now is the without a parallel in the dilumined horizon, if not the actual end, its near and speedy approach! The hight is far sent, the day is at hand! 'Tis done! The long agony is meanly over ! We breathe more freely and deeply! The rebellion is in the threes of dissolution. Our form, lacerated land will soon again repose in the lap of peace. The chief of the conspirators is a fugitive of the chief of the conspirators is a fugitive of the parallel benedication of the prescher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, extpe-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinet ministers, the sharers in bid disposite force from their homes, and marchade and the chief of the consense of the parting benedication of the prescher, he bade a last, a long farewell to the scenes of his past greatness, and, extpe-bag in hand, hied away to parts unknown! His cabinets and following the conse	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to take comit's and welfare of your walfare, I subsertibe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and welfare of your walfare, I subsertibe myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and walfare, and the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your asserting the myself, very respectfully, your bedient sort and your and you and yo	math Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered bell in the sum of $1,000 each to answer at court. It is alleged that Alderman McKullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any eremony what ever planted one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked the distinct was knocked on which the result of the continental the stacked by the company of the property of the continental one of his fists on the noso of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Continental The attacked the distinct was knocked on which are not accomposed to the composed of the coupy over one minute. The assailed individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE CONDITION OF THE PROPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  OF WORCESTER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, MASS.,  ENDING DECEMBER, 51, 1865.  AMOURT OF CAPITAL STOCK
station and their deliberate subjection to the very restativation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phariseeium that we raise our hearts in which we have in all our power to nay that we have in all our power to nay that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Histor, on Andersenville, no Scattery!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion? Wetching, and Andersenville, no Scattery!  But how now stands the case with the rebellion of wetching, and the Father of our Lord-Sens Christ, after many agony of suspense and trial—after a baption of blood and a marryrdom of fire, without a parallel in the world's historic annals, the eagle of victory perches upon our consecrated standards, and the heavy burthers of sparkey is lifted from the heavt of the sense of the se	the performance of every duty, and with an eye always to the comfort and welfare of your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your of season and your always and the welfare of your welfare, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your of season and your always.  Thes. F. Fell, Lieutenant list Penna, Cavalry.  METEGROLOGICAL STATESTICS.  A comparison of some of the meteorological phenomena of March, 1855, with those of March, 1864, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Penna. Barometer 60 feet above meen tide in the Delaware river. Latitude 30 degrees, 57% minutes Nr. longthurf of begrees, 10% minutes longthurf of begrees, 10% m	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of 8,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged the inclosion of the control of the control of the other of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whenever planted one of 12 fisted the consorting well. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not coccupy over one minute. The sessiled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF CAPITAL STOCK
station and their deliberate subjection to the very restativation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phartselson that we do see our name of the control of the c	the performance of every duty, and with an eye alwars actated and with the best wishes of your welfare. I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your welfare. I subscribe myself, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fonna. Barometer of host above grees, 57½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratick, A. M.:    Interpretation of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fonna. Barometer of host above grees, 57½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratick, A. M.:    Interpretation of the subscription of the subscrip	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of 8,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged the inclosion of the control of the control of the other of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whenever planted one of 12 fisted the consorting well. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not coccupy over one minute. The sessiled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF CAPITAL STOCK
station and their deliberate subjection to the very restativation of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. It is simply murder in its most revolting forms, and it is in no spirit of Phartselson that we do see our name of the control of the c	the performance of every duty, and with an eye alwars actated and with the best wishes of your welfare. I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your welfare. I subscribe myself, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fonna. Barometer of host above grees, 57½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratick, A. M.:    Interpretation of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fonna. Barometer of host above grees, 57½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratick, A. M.:    Interpretation of the subscription of the subscrip	mash Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the fight. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered ball in the sum of 8,000 cach to answer at court. It is alleged the inclosion of the control of the control of the other of a peace maker.  On Saturday evening about nine o'clock a man standing in front of the Girard House suddenly crossed the street, and without any ceremony whenever planted one of 12 fisted the consorting well. The attacked individual was knocked down. While prostrated the assaliant jumped upon him, and disappeared from view. The whole scene did not coccupy over one minute. The sessiled individual was badly hurt. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF CAPITAL STOCK
their exposure of them to create subjection to the very refinements of causity?  Statysaion of prisoners is a crime so atrocious that by no conceivable combination of circumstances can it be palliated or excused. Its simply marrier in its most revolting forms, and it is in a thankfulness to Almighty God that, by His preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Histor, and Adenovating, no Scilebury, no Belle Histor, and Adenovating the preventing grace, we have it in our power to say that we have in all our borders no Libby, no Belle Histor, and Adenovating the prevention of the parties of the control of the property of the parties of the control of the property of the pr	the performance of every duty, and with an eye alwars actated and with the best wishes of your welfare. I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your welfare. I subscribe myself, and of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fonna. Barometer of host above grees, 57½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratick, A. M.:    Interpretation of the same month for fourteen years, at Philadelphia, Fonna. Barometer of host above grees, 57½ minutes N; longtinde 76 degrees, 10½ minutes N; from Greenwich. By Jakes A. Kirk-ratick, A. M.:    Interpretation of the subscription of the subscrip	mah Eaton, Frank Dillon, and R. Smith, as principals in the Sint. On Saturday the entire party appeared before the magistrate and entered hall in the best of the magistrate and entered hall in the best Alderman McMullen interfered in the character of a peace maker.  OUTRAGE.  On Saturday evening about him o'clook a man standing in front of the Girard House sindlengly crested the street, and without any ceremony whatever planted one of his fist on the ness of a well-dressed man standing in front of the Countinental. The attacked individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and charppeared individual was knocked down. White prostrated the assailant jumped upon him, and charppeared from view. The whole some did not comprove ore minute. The sassaited individual was bady but. He says the attack upon him was unexpected, and that the aggressor was an entire stranger to him.  INSURANCE.  STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION  OF THE  PEOPLE'S FIRE INSURANCE CO.  ASSETS:  Amount of Easl Easte owned by the Co$1,500 to$1,500 to$1,50

SHERIFF'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF Navitation Exponse, to me directed, will be exposed to public subserved me, on MONDAY Swealing. Bo. 1. All that certain lot or piece of ground, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the northeast ourself. In front on said of leard avenue, such cases of ground, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the northeast of first of avenue, as the distance of twenty feet seatward of Channecy street; containing in front on said of leard avenue, as the distance of twenty feet seatward of Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of twenty feet seatward of Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of forty fast eastward from Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of forty fast eastward from Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of farty fast eastward from Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of stry test seatward from Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of sixty rost seatward from Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of sixty rost seatward from Channecy street; containing in front on Chrard avenue, at the distance of sixty rost seatward from Channecy street; containing in depth on human containing the street of NOISES IN THE HEAD,
DISCHAEGES FROM THE EAR,
CATABEH,
BURALGIA, BEUNATISM,
ASTHMA,
SCHOULAL AFFECTION,
THEODITIES,

'C, Dyspopsia, Enlargem'
Kidneya, Constip

Fits, Para'
Gau, ceased Fyes, Loss of Hair, Dyspepsia, Enlargement of the Liver, Diseases of the Kidneys, Constipa-tion, Gravel, Piles. Insanity, Fits, Para-lysis, Rush of Blood to the Head. CONSUMPTION. With all and every disease which infeats the human CURED EFFECTUALLY BY MRS. M. G. BROWN'S METAPHYSICAL DISCOVERY. No. 410 ARCH Street, Philadelphia; No. 16 BOND Street, New York; No. 18 PEMBERTON Square, Boston; and No. 42 West MONUMENT Street, Baltimore. READ THE FOLLOWING REMARKABLE CERTIFI-GATE, WITH AFFIDAVIT:] ERS. M. G. BROWN-MEMBER 1. I have got carriers with grant of the city several times, but had not time to call. I have got entirely well, and under God I owe it to you. My right ear I have not lieard any with for a number of years. I can now hear some with it. My left ear, the shearing left it just after harvest; in this way: I took a dizziness in my head, so I could not work, accompanied with a ringing noise in my ears. I was so had that I could not hear without they would halloo at the top of their voices. I first got a prescription from a physician, which sonsisted of almond oil and something else (I can't tell what). I also tried almoud oil alone, but it did me no good; then I got some Homeopathic medicine, but with the same effect. I then tried old women's curse by the score; sith no banefit; I went to Philadelphia, put my self under the care of a celebrated Aurist; he bored at my exrs with instruments, and run others up my nostrile, for five weeks, and ended by cheating me out of seventy-five dollars (875), as that was all the benefit I received from bim. I then saw one of your advertisements; 1 got the Metaphysical Discovery, used not more than half of it, and have recovered my hearing, which I had lost for years

I remain yours, truly, THOMAS B DICKEY.

Affirmed and subscribed to before me, this Siet day of March, A. D., 1855.

Justice of the Peace.

THOS. B. DICKEY.

**Bot The above certificate is but one out of many which can be seen by sending for a circular. THOS. B. DICKEY.

THOS. B. DICKEY.

The above certificate to but one out of many which can be seen by sending for a circular.

The celebrated POOR RICHARD'S BYS WATER $1.50 per bottle; small size do. do. 50 cents. Celebrated SCALP RENOVATOR $1.50.

The above medicines are packed for despatch to any destination on receipt of the price.

Druggists supplied by DEMAS, BARNES. & CO., New York. are packed for despatch to any SHERIFF'S SALE—BY VIRTUE OF

MERCHANGE OF SALE—BY VIRTUE OF

M SHERIFF'S SALES. in far, May 1, 1865, at 40 clock, at sansom street Hall, All that the story brick messages and lot of ground strate on the Vental de of Randolph street. 230 feet 72 inches north of Frank Havin, expans, in the city of Palla delphia; containing in front on Randon the street 16 feet and in depth 65 feet 6 inches to a two feet Sank inch al ley, with the privilege thereof, and of another arrespireto which it leads. [Which premises George R. Rressler et ux, by deed dated Febryary 2, 1855, recorded in Deed Book R. D. W., No. 3, page 501, conveyed unto James F. Harris in fee, reserving ground rent of one hundred dollars. [19. Debt, $50.70. J. H. Campball.]

Taken in execution and to be sold as the property of James P. Harris HENRY C. HOWELL, Sheriff.

Philadelphia, Sheriff's Office, April 8, 1665. Apill-35 CHERIFF'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF A CHERIF'S. SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF A

Writ of Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale or vendue, on MONDAY Evening,
May 1, 1860, at 4 o' clock, at Sansom; street Hall,
All that three-story brick messuage and lot of ground eluate on the south side of Masters street and east side of Lewis street, in the city of Philadelphia; containing in front on Lewis street thirty-two feet, and in depth along Masters street inherty-one feet to Alder street.
(Which premises George Hallowell; by deed dated October 2, 1840, recorded in Deed Book R. L. L. Ro. 52, page 472, &c. conveyed unto Abol Lukens ir fee j

[3 15 13/14, 66. 1 Debt, $43,534.19 Crawford.]
Taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Abel Lukens. HENEY C. HOWALL, Sheriff,
Philadelphia, Sheriff's Office, April 8, 1865, auto-36 thining in front 17 feet by inches, and in depth 112 feet 12 12 inches.

No. 17. All that certain lot or plees of ground situate on the west sardly side of Belgrade strest, commencing at the distance of 281 feet 2 inches northwardly of Hanover street; containing in front on said Belgrade street 16 feet 1½ inches, and extending westwardly of that width shows 185 feet 6½ inches, be the same more or less.

No. 15. All that certain 105 of ground situate on the westwardly of Belgrade street, commencing street, stance of 261 feet and two reventus of an inch southwardly of Palmer street; containing in front on said Belgrade street 17 feet 4 2.7 inches, and extending westwardly of that width in length or depth 118 feet 6½ inches. Abel Lukens. HERRY C. HOWRLU, Sheriff, Philadelphia, Sheriff's Office, April 8, 1825. and 310-33.

CHERIFF'S SALE,—BY VIRTUE OF a writ of venditioni Exporas, to me directed, will be exposed to publicate or vendue, on MOBDAY Evening, May 1, 1850, at 4 o'clock, at Sansom street Hall.

Bo. 1. All that year y ground rent of 384, issaing and payable out of all those two lots of ground, Nos. 128 and 129. on plan of lots recorded in Deed Book 6.

W. C. No. 33, page 1, situate on the southerst corner of Surguehanna avenue and Pacific street. Later the containing in front on Susguehana avenue 3 feet (each lot 18 feet front) and in depth along Pacific street 36 feet. [Which premises Michael Pray et ux. by deed dated April 30, 1863, resorded in Deed Book T. H. No. 110, page 375, conveyed unto Ersamus D. Wolfe and Jetse B. Payton in fee, reserving the said ground rent 1 Bo. 2. All that yearly greund rent of 38, issuing and payable out of all that lot of ground, 30, 207, on said plan, eituate on the east side of Fifteenth (tate Schuy). kill Righth) street. 36 feet north of Sosguehanna avenue, in the city of Philadelphia; containing in front on Fifteenth street 17 feet, and in depth 88 feet 11 inches, and all that lot of ground, 10, 208, on said plan, situate on the east side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue, in the city of Philadelphia; containing in front on Fifteenth street 18 feet, and in depth 88 feet 11 inches, and all that lot of ground, 10, 208, on said plan, situate on the east side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue; on the said street and street and in depth 88 feet 11 inches, and situate on the east side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue; on the sast side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue; on the sast side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue; on the sast side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue; on the sast side of Fifteenth street, 18 feet north of Susquehanna avenue; on the sast street. No. 22. Lot adjoining lot No. 21, commencing 19 feet feet 8% inches

80. 23. Lot adjoining lot No 22, commencing 38 feet % inches southwardly of Palmer street; containing in conton Belgrade street 19 feet 2% inches, and in depth feet 2% inches feet 2% inches.

No. 24. Lot adjoining lot No. 23, commencing 57 feet (inches southwardly of Palmer street; containing in a ton Belgrade street 19 feet 2% inches, and in depth to the beginner of the set 3% inches, and inside the set 3% inches of the set 3% inches on the set 3% inches, and inside the set 3% inches, and inches 3% 11% inches southwardly of Palmer street; containing in front on Belgrade street, 19 feet 2% inches, and indepth 34 feet 10% inches.

No. 27. Lot adjoining 10t No. 28, commencing 115 feet 2% inches southwardly of Palmer street; containing in front on Belgrade street 19 feet 2% inches, and in depth 30 feet 6 inches.

No. 28. Lot on the southwardly side of Palmer street, commencing at the distance of 92 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade street; containing in front on Palmer street 18 feet, and in depth 13 feet 3% inches westwardly of Belgrade street, containing in front on Palmer street 18 feet, and in depth 13 feet 3% inches to 25-feet-wide street, to be opened, and striking said street 50 feet 4 inches westwardly of Belgrade street.

No. 29.—Lot adjoining lot No. 29, commencing at the distance of 120 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, containing in front on Palmer street 18 feet, and in depth 134 feet 3% inches.

Lot No. 30.—Lot adjoining lot No. 29, commencing at the distance of 125 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, containing in front on said Palmer street 16 feet, and in depth 134 feet 3% inches.

No. 31.—Lot adjoining lot No. 30, commencing at the distance of 125 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, containing in front on said Palmer street 16 feet, and in depth 134 feet 3% inches.

No. 32.—Lot adjoining lot No. 31, commencing at the distance of 164 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, containing in front on said Palmer street 16 feet, and in depth 134 feet 3% inches.

No. 33.—Lot adjoining lot No. 32, commencing at the distance of 162 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, containing in front on said Palmer street 16 feet, and in depth 134 feet 3% inches.

No. 34.—Lot adjoining lot No. 32, commencing at the distance of 182 feet 2 inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, containing in front on said Palmer street 16 feet, and in depth 134 feet 2% inches westwardly of Belgrade sireet, the sireet, containing in front on said palmer street 16 feet, and in depth 134 feet IN THE ORPHANS' COURT FOR THE CITY AND COURTY OF PHILADBLPHIA.

Estate of PETER BELL, deceased.

The auditor appointed by the Court to andit, settle, and adjust the account of JOHN M. HARPER. Administrator of the estate of PETER BELL, deceased, and to report distribution of the balance in the bands of the accountent, will meet the parties interested for the purposes of his appointment, on MONDAY. April 10, 1895, at 12 o'clock M, at his Office, No. 221 South FIFTH Street, in the city of Philadelphia.

IN THE ORPHANS' COURT FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA.

Estate of RIPHARD WAGNER, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that CATHARINE WAGNER, widow of said deceased, has filed in said Court her petition and appraisement of the personal property which she elects to retain under the act of April 14th, ISSI, and its supplements and that the same will be approved by the said Court, our FEIDAY, April 13tl, 1855, unless exceptions be fired thereto.

JOHN SHALLGROSS,

April 5, 1865. CAVALRY HORSES! QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE, FIRST DIVISION, WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., March 18, 1865.
HORSES, suitable for the cavalry and artillery service, will be received at Gelsboro Depot, in open market, till May 1, 1865, by Captain GEO. T. BEOWNING, A. C. M. Horse from the visit of the control by 185 feet 11% inches westwardly of Beigrade street, being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 38.—Lot adjoining lot No. 37, commencing at the distance of 10 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street, being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 38.—Lot adjoining lot No. 37, commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street, being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 38.—Lot adjoining lot No. 38, commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street, being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 38.—Lot adjoining lot No. 38, commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street, being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 38.—Lot adjoining lot No. 38, commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street, being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 31.—Lot adjoining lot No. 39 (commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street), being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 31.—Lot adjoining lot No. 39 (commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street), being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 31.—Lot adjoining lot No. 39 (commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches westwardly of Beigrade street), being 16 feet 7% inches in front by 185 feet 11% inches deep.

No. 41.—Lot adjoining lot No. 40 (commencing at the distance of 100 feet 6% inches, being in feet 11% inches deep.

No. 41.—Lot adjoining lot No. 40 (commencing at the distance of 100 feet 7% inches, being in feet 11% inches deep.

No. 41.—Lot adjoining lot No. 40 (c SHERIFF'S SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF a writ of Venditioni Exponaç, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale or vendue, on MODAY Renning, May 1, 1855, sit 40 dock, at Sansom-street Hall.

No. 1 all those II centiquous tots of ground situate on the north side of Federal street and we t side of Seven-teenth street, in the Twenty-lixth Ward of the city of Philadelphia: containing together in front or breath on the sald Federal street 186 feet, and twenty-hundredths of a foot! [that is to say, the ten easternmost of said lots, containing each 15 feet 3 inches, and the other 15 feet and twenty-hundredths of a foot! [that is to say, the ten easternmost of a feet wide alley, extending into Saventaenth street. Being the same eleven lots of ground which Banjamin Orne, Trustes, by eleven separate indeniures, respectively dated May Mat, 1851, conveyed unto Echert Dosk, his heirs and essigns, reserving out of each of the ten easternmost lots the yearly ground reut of $35.87½, and out of the westernmost lot the yearly ground rent of $35.87½, and out of the westernmost lot the pearly ground rent of $35.87½, and $75.00. Payment will be made at this Office.

Payment will be made at this Office.

JAMES A. EKIN.

Brevet Brigadier General in charge

mh20-tap30

First Division Q. M. G. O. mh20-tap80

A R T I I LERY AND CAVALRY HORSES.

ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
1139 GRAND STREET, PHILADELFHIA, PA.
HOESES suitable for the Artillery and Cavalry Service will be purchased by the undersigned in open marset; each saminal to be subjected to the usual Governmappedion before being accepted.

Lorange for the company services must be dark in color, sound for the particular services must be dark in color, sound for the particular services and active, well broken and equation of the services in harness, in good feel and condition, from eix to ten years old, not less than 164 hands high; each Horse to weigh not less than 1650 pounds.
One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($150) will be paid for each.
Cavalry Horses, must fin sound in all particulars—well ars 4t aps-st BAKER'S MANUFA ment of Wigs. Frizottes, Div than elsewher FOR T. METICALLY SEALED MEATS HEI MACKEREL, HERRING, SHAD, &c., 2,000 bbls Mass. Bos. 1, 2, and 3 Mackerel, late-caught fat fish, in assorted packages.

3,000 bbls. Rew Eastport, Fortune Bay, and Halifax Payting. COAL OIL REFINERS.—TANKS 3,000 bbis. Rew Essiport, Foreign Bayle.
Herring.
2,500 boxes Lubeo, Scaled, No. 1 Herring.
160 bbis New Mess Shad.
250 boxes Herkimer-county Chaese, &c.
In store and for sale by MURPHY & KOONS, jal9-tf No. 146 NORTH WHARVES. Tined with lead, burned in the best manner and ranied to give satisfaction

6 5t* 110 and 112 South SEVENTH Street. HITE VIRGIN WAX OF ANTIL-UPWARDS OF THIRTY THOUSAND

THITE VIRGIN WAX OF ANTILIES.—A new French Cosmetic for beautifying and serving the complexion. It is the most wonderful upound of the age. There is neither chair, powder, special, bismutia, nor tale in its composition, it being mposed entirely of pure Virgin Wax: here the exoudinary qualities for preserving the arin, making toft, smooth, fair, and transparent. It makes the old ippear lougs, the homely handsome the handsome ore beautiful, and the most beautiful divine. Prices and 60 cents. Prepared only HUNT & CO., Perimers. 41 South EIGHTH Street, two doors above the tunit, and 133 South SEVENTH Street, above heitnut, and 133 South SEVENTH Street, above aps. certificates and recommendatory letters have been received, attenting the merits of HELMBOLD'S GRANURE PREPARATIONS, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent statesmen, elergymen, governors, State judges, &c. FOR NON-RETENTION OR INCON-TINENGE of urine, irritation, inflammation or niceration of the bladder or kidneys, diseases of the prostate glands, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel or brick-dust deposit, and all diseases of the bladder, kidneys and dropstcal swellings, use HELM-BOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU. TAKE NO MOBE UNPLEASANT and unsafe remedies for unpleasant and dangerous diseases. Use HELMHOLD'S EXTRAOT EVEN and IRPROVED EOSE WASH.

ILLUMINATION.

AUCTION SALES. NEW PUBLICATIONS. FURNESS, BRINLEY, & CO., No. 615 CHESTAUT and 615 JAYES S. NOW READY. Act amendatory thereof, approved March 3, 1864

COPIOUS MARGINAL REFERENCES. SALE OF IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

SALE OF IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

ON TUESDAY MORNING.

April 11th, 1855, at 10 o clock, on four months' credit.

40 packages and lots of fancy and istaple dry goods.

Samples and catalogues sarly on morning of sale.

DOMESTIC GOODS FOR CASH.

Brown and bleached muslins, prints, leans, satinets, cambries, &c.

ON TUESDAY.

13 cases London 6-4, super quality high lustre black alpaces.

G CASES PURE MOHAIRS FOR CITY TRADE.

6 cases fine to extra superfine quality pure mohairs.

ALSO,

4 cases fine to extra sine black Canton cloths.

2 cases sol'd alpaces.

1 LINEN DUCKS.

6 cases apper brown lusts ducks. COMPLETE ANALYTICAL INDEX. TABLES OF TAXATION. TABLES OF TRACE.

COMPILED BY HORACK BRESSER.

1 vol., 8vo. Paper 60 cents; cloth $1.

D. APPLETON & CO., Publisher.
Nos. 443 and 445 BROAD Well
Sent free by mail on receipt of price. A PPLETON'S NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA:—Complete in 16 volumes. E Various Styles of Binding.
REBELLION REGORD, by Frank Moore, in Sivels.
MERIVALE'S HISTORY OF THE ROMAND-now complete.
The Agency for these valuable works is at
The Agency for these valuable works is at 33 South SIXTH Street, above the state and the TO ADVERTISERS. "THE VALLEY SPIRIT," Published at CHAMBRESBURG, Pa. ine.
160 dos fancy wool shirts, of super quality.
PARIS BLACK AND COL'D GREYADINE SILK
SHAWLS, ALL BILK, FOR CITY TEADE.
ON TUESDAY.
100 14-4 extra righ black and col'd Paris silk gronatipe ahawis Has the largest circulation of any Weekly N published in the southern portion of the State therefore, the best ADVERTISING MEDIUM dine shawis
LINEN DAMASKS, DIAPERS, NAPKINS, AND LINEN
CAMBRIC HDKFS
8 4 blackhed and brown linen damasks and diapers.
7-4 and 8 4 table cloths; 5 8 linen mapkins.
6-8 linen cambric bdkfs. NEW BOOKS I NEW BOOKS Just received by

ANHMEAD & EVAMS.

(Hazard's old stand).

BO. 724 CHESTNUT Street.

THE HILLYARS AND THE BURTONS. A Story of
Two Families. By Henry Kingsley, author of "Geoffry Hamilies. By Henry Kingsley, author of "Geoffry Hamilya," "Rayenshop." &c.

FOCIAL STATIOS; or, The Conditions Sesential to Human Happiness Specified and the Firstof Them Developed. By Herbert Spencer. Steel portain.

CHRISTIAN'S MISTAKE. By the author of "John Halifax, Gentleman." &c.

UNCLE SILAS. A Tale of Bartram-Hamel. By J.S.
Le Fanu, anthor of "House by the Churgh Jard." &c.

OAPE COD. By Fenry D. Thoren. author of "Maine Woods." "Walden." &c., &c.

A BOOK OF GOLDEN DEEDS of all these and all Lands. Gathered and narrated by the author of the "Heir of Redelyfe." Tinted paper, ray vellum.

THE JEST BOOK. The Cholesst precedess and Sayings Salected and arranged by Mal Lemon. Two beautiful little volumes of the "Gelen Treasury Scries." KERAY'S VANITY FAIR. Illegrated edition.

309. Tinted paper. Cambridge Press.

309. Tinted paper.

309. T SALE OF FREECH GOODS.
ON FRIDAY,
April 14th, at 10 °10ck, on four months' credit—
600 lots of fancy and staple French goods. PANCOAST & WARNOCK, AUC LARGE POSITIVE SALE OF 8000 LOTS AWERICAN AND IMPORTED DRY GOODS, MILLIMERY GOODS, Cas. by catalogue, on WEDNESDAY.

April 12, commencing at in Q'cleck, comprising a full assortment of new and desirable goods for present raiss. seles. SHAWLS! SHAWLS! BHAWLS!
Included in sale WEDNESDAY MORNING—
2,600 ladies' black and colored Lama wool shawls, comprising a full line from low to very fine qualities and of most choice spring colors and styles Also, black and colored plain and fancy broshe and thibet shawls; ladies' dioth r silk cloaks, &c. &c.
1,200 DOZEN HOUSEHOLD PRILLING.
Also, 1,200 dozen new style white, black, and solored household frilling—new and desirable goods in parfect order. order. BUGLE TRIMMING AND BUFFOMS.

Alto, 160 lots rich and entirely new styles imported bugle trimmings and braids, bugle buttons and oranments, fancy silk trimmings, steel and fancy buttons, &c . &c BOWNET BUDDANG AWD SILVE NEW BOOKS FOR SABBATH-SCHOOL LIBBARES!
The Bed Lion, or Home in Humble I
The Conqueror, by the author of File
The Visherman's Children, or the Sc ments, fancy silk trimmings, steel and fancy buttons, &c. &c.

BONNET RIBONS AND SILKS.

Aleo, 150 cartons most choice solors spent de sole bonhet ribbons. Ros. 12 and 60; Nos. 4 and 5 cord edge trimming ribbons.
Also, 10 and 10 and 10 and 10 and 10 and 10 and cola flowers RACTIVE SPRGIAT. POSITIVE SALEVERY ATTRACTIVE SPRGIAT. POSITIVE SALEWED RECOLDERIES UIST LANDED.

Also, ON WEDNEDAY.
April 12th at 10 o'clock, an invoice of newest styles embroidesies, consisting in part of m-dium to very rich new and choice styles embroidered jaconat edinas, insertings, bands and fluncies; infants' waists and robes; collars and setts; ruffied collars; tracked and sambric and lawn handkerchiefs The Fisherman's Children, or the Schbam of Hardrick Cove.
The Faithful Shepherd, or Sketches whe Life of Rev.
Thomas Scott.
The Ferryman's Child, or Light on by Darkness.
Little Fermon Talks, by Caroline E Kelley.
Bessie Lovell, or the Power of a Lor ng Child.
Vivlan and his Friends, or Two Hu Bried Yesrs Ago, by the author of The Story of a Pock Bible.
Tried sand True, or Into the Light, Boh. J. G.
The Village School Mistress. or More About Kate Hilmore, by the author of Kate Rimore.
For sale by JAMES S. GLAXFON.
Successor E. SPECIAL POSITIVE SALE OF STRAW GOODS, B Octalorue—
ON FRIDAY,
April 14th, commencing at 10 o'clock, comprising full assortment of fashionable styles in straw and fanbraids for ladies', misses', and children's wear. PHILIP FORD & CO., AUCTIONEERS, SALE OF 1.500 CASES BOOTS, SHOES, BROGAMS, &c.

ON MONDAY MORNING,

April 10th, commented at 10 o'clock, precisely. We will sell, by catalogue, 1,600 cases men's, bys's and youths' boots, shoes, brogans, balmorals, Congress gailers, &c., women's, misses', and children's boots, shoes, gaiters, balmorals, slippers, &c., embrasing a fresh assortment of goods, from first-class manufacturers. LARGE SPRING SALE OF 1,500 CASES BOOTS AND SHOES. We will sell by catalogue, for cash, Me will sell by catalogue, for cash,
April 13th, commencing, at ten o'clock, 1,500 cases
men's, boys', and youths' boots, shoes, Baimorais, brogans, Oxford ties, buckles, Congress, &c., &c., with a desirable assortment of women's, misses', and children's boots, shoes, Baimorale, gaiters, allppers, &c. A UCTION SALE OF CONDEMNED A HORSES.

QUARTERMARTER GENERAL'S OFFICE, IST DIVISION,
WASHINGTON CITY, ADRIL 1, 1865.
Will be sold at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, at BAITIMORE, Md., on THUREDAY, April 18, 1865,
TWO HUNDERD MARKS WITH FOAL,
many of them well bred and in good condition.
On THUREDAY, April 29, 1865. TRURSDAY. April 20, 1865. TWO HUNDRED CAVALRY HORSES. ONE HUNDRED GAVALRY HORARS.

ONE HUNDRED MARES WITH FOAL, AND ONE HUNDRED MARES WITH FOAL, AND ONE HUNDRED CAVALRY HORARS.

The horses bave been condemned as unfit for the eavelry service of the army.

For road and farming purposes many good bargains may he had.

Animals sold singly. Sale to commence at 9 A. M., and will be held at PHILLIPS' GOVERNMENT STABLES, corner of FREMONT and RAMSEY Streets.

TREMS—Cash, in United States currency.

JAMES A RAKIN,

Brevet Brigadier General, in charge let Division C. M. No. 3. 38
No. 3. 38
No. 3. 38
No. 4. 38
No. 5. 38
No. 6. FOR SALE—THE PHILADELPHIA FOR SALE—THE PHILADELPHIA

SOURTY FOR THE RETABLISHMENT AND SUPPORT OF GHARITY SCHOOLS offer their property for sile. It is situate on the morth side of Walnut street, between Sixth and Saventh streets. The lot is fortysight feet six inches front by one hundred and thirty revident, to a six-feet wide alley in the rear, of which it has the Uterand priwilega. The present building on it contains thirty-three office.

Proposals for its purchase will be received by the Committee on Property, at the office of ISAAC NORRIS, No.
617 WALEUT Street, or the premises. spr-famely ested.) responsible persons, must being that the bidder will o him under his proposal, dneeday, April 12th, at 12
nvited to be present.
furreday April 13th, 1865.
Col. C. W. MOULTON,
Depot Quartermaster. PRIVATE SALE—BEAUTIFUL ABARTON. Fine house and outbuildings, stables, &c. with eight acres of ground-lone and shalf miles from Glen Elddle, on the Media Railroad Sold cheap. Address Bev. J. HESRY BARTON, ap4-1m* Village Grean. Pa. JARTERMASTER'S A SSISTANT OF OFFICE, No. 1134 FOR SALE—THE RESIDENCE No. 533 South FIFTH Street; all modern conveniences; large lot; Stable on the back street, &c. mhill-nuwsit* F. B. REEVES, 45 M. WATER St. T. FOR SALE—A BEAUTIFUL TARM and COUNTRY SEATS. of forty acres, on Church lane, Darby township, four miles from Market-street Bridge. Possession can be had immediately. Apply to JOHN WHITELY, on the premises, or to JOKL S. PERKINS, 45 South FROM C Street, 25,000 its Harness Leath
2,000 sides Bridle Le 5,000 his side when in 1,000 Tar Pots.
200 Riding Saddles
rups stirrus
1,000 Sheep Skins.
1,000 Sheep Skins.
1,000 Army Weight
1,000 Army Weight ed. "oak tanned." 10 hs the FOR SALE—A THREE-STORY 0,000 ***
1,000 Ambulance
1,000 **
1,000 **
1,000 **
1,000 **
1,000 **
5,000 ** 5,100
10,000 Arny Wagon N
10,000
110 Sete Ambulay
100
1,000 Biding Brid
1,000 Biding Brid
1,000 Biding Sad
1,000 Gotton Dud
1,000 Biding Sad
1,000 Horee Colis
1,000 Horee Col g of the bids.
on MOMDAY, April 10, 1965, dders are requested to be present santeed by two responsible per must be appended to the gasrau-

BRICK HOUSE, eight rooms Price low. 2009 CHRERY Street. Apply at 258 South THIRD Street, second story back room. aps-6t FOR SALE—DWELLING-HOUSE on FIFTEENTH Street, north of Arch street.
Apply to BW BERSLET, mhl3-lm* No. 30 North SEVERTH Street. FOR SALE—STORE AND DWELImmediate possession.
BRIDESBURG—Neat Dwelling and Lot on Kirkbride street, east of Point road; will be sold cheap
A large number of Cotages at Germantown and other destrable localities, and a great variety of first class and other Farms.
For list of Dwellings see North American and United States Gazette.

132 South FOUETH Street. IS UPERIOR MANSION AND LARGE LOT, on the FRANKFORD Road, at Allegheny avenue; built in the most substantial manner, with every possible convenience, with atable and carriage-house. This is a delightful residence for summer or winter.

123 South FOURTH Street. FOR SALE—A VERY SUPERIOR HOUSE in WEST PHILADELPHIA, excellent stable, fine well of water rural, yet quite near; all conveniences; replete in all respects. Address "Merchant," Box 2400, Post Office. PRIVATE SALE—MILITARY
BOARDING SCHO M., near Philadelphia, in successful operation, with furniture of all kinds. Apparatus Books. Guns. &c., at a very low figure. Apply to SCHERMERHORN & BANCROFF, 512 ARCH FOR SALE—A SMALL FARM

FOR SALE—A SMALL FARM

FOR FIFTY-SIX ACRES, in Camdan county, about twenty minutes' drive from Causden, on the Mariton Pike, one of the most favorable locations in the county; the land is rich and very productive. With good management, Three to Five Thousand Dollars per sanurun can be made off of it. Good large HOUSE; also, plenty of Barns on it, and well adapted for city personse wishing a country residence. Also, frontage enough for several Cottages.

For further information apply to RICHARD SHIVEES, opposite the Premises, GOS COOPER Street, Camden, N. J. Office at West-Jersey Ferry.

*** FOR SALE—LARGE FOUNDRY nel Wm. W. McKim, Chief Quarter-hia Depot. ORNAMENTAL HATR TORY.—The largest and best assort-Foupes, Long Hair Braids and Curls, FOR SALE—LARGE FOUNDRY
AND MACHINE SHOP, in full operation, with the working stock and tools, patterns, &c., of every description, necessary for doing a large and successful business, situated on a railroad, about twenty miles from Philadelphia. B. F. GLEPR, 1232 S. FOURTH St., mhis-ti or S. W. cor. SEVERTERETH and GREEN Siz. AND FLAX SAIL DUCK FOR SALE—NEAR SELLERS
1110-GOOD FARM of 143 ACRES; cheap for cash, or will take in part good oil stocks in exchange.

5. F. GLERN,

123 South FOURTH Street. ROBERT DONNELL & SOM, SOG WALNUT Street REN'S CARRIAGES, EN-NEW STYLES FOR THE SPRING Superior Lot just received, and for sale ROWS, EUSTON, & CO., 157 and 159 North THIRD Street. VALUABLE COUNTRY SEAT SCIENCE OF MEDICINE SIEGIPLED DEALERS endeavoring to dis-in own and other preparations, on the repu-ined by HELMEOLD'S GENUINE PREPA-

AT PUBLIC SALE.

The subscriber will sell at Public Sale. on THUESDAY AFFERNOON. April 13, 1855.

AT TWO O'GLOCK.

On the premises, his valuable

COUNTRY SEAT.

Located within hif a mile of Wilmington, Delaware, on the Newport pike, containing sight acree of good land, in the centre of which is a large lawn with a fine variety of shade trees, maples, lindams evergreens, etc., in all over a hundred full-grown trees. The improvements consist of a large and commodious Massion, flanked on the west by two towers, one of which is four stories in height. There are four large rooms on a floor, with a hall cloven by forty-two feet. The house has the modern improvements. A hydraulte ram forces water from a spring into the upper story of the tower. There is also an iron pump aha hydrant under a coverted area at the hitchen door. The outbuildings consist of a carriage house and stable sufficient for four horses and stable sufficient for four horses and stable has a hydrantin it. The ice-house is filted with good ice.

Good garden, with saveral varieties of dwarf paar hand grape vines in full bearing. There are also several varieties of apple, cherry, and chestaut trees.

Immediate poss session will be given. For further information apply to LEVI G. CLARK, SHI MARKET Street, Wilmington, Del.

WILLIAM H. NAFF, Auctioneer. settlement and to the years ground rank of the Cient, ERGINES and BOILERS of every descriptions, Fig. 183 south FOLERS STATE TO BE SALE—A. NUMBER OF DESIRAPripily filled.

183 South FOLERS SALE—A. NUMBER OF DESIRABLE BUILDING LOTS. For particulars apply to SAMUEL G. THOMPSON. mhll-lm LITTLE KANAWHA AND ELK

ITTLE KANAWHA AND ELK RIVER OIL AND MINING COMPANY.—Public attention is saked to the really valuable.OIL and GOAL LANDS secured by this Company in fee simple.
A few sheres in the original interest still unsoid.
Subscriptions obtained, and plans and descriptions of the land and other information given by GEO. F. WOEK & CO., No. 48 S. THIRD Street, and
J. BAETHOLOMEW. EO. 908 S. FOURTH Street,
THOMAS A. BARLOW, President.
HENRY G. BOSSALL, Secretary.

MENDEY G. DOMSALL, Secretary. ROHRMAN & ADAMS, DEALERS IN OIL LANDS.
Lands and Leases bought and sold on Commission.
Office 328 WALRUT Street,
Room No. 3. WHEEL GREESE—BARRELS, HALF

WE Barrela, 3: ib and 6-ib Cans. at reduced prices, by Liands and Leases bourht and sold on Commission.

Office 328 WALRUT Street.

Room No. 3.

PHRENOLOGICAL EXAMINA:

PHRENOLOGICAL EXAMINA:

PROPRIESS of the Pouna. Paint and Golor Works.

Proprietors of the Pouna. Paint and Golor Works.

AUCTION SALES. JOHN B. MYERS & CO., AUCTION POSITIVE SALE OF PREMCH. GERMAN, SWISE AND BRITISH DRY GOODS, &c.

A CARD.—We invite the early sitention of purchases to the desirable assortment of French, German, Salary, of choice articles, to be personptonly sold, by catalogue on four months, or edit, commanding THIS SURNING, at 100 o'clock precisely.

MOTIUS - Included in our large sale of look age motius.—Included in our large sale of 'cote age shore, &c., april II, will be found in part the following Iresh and desirable ageortment—viz:

Man's, boys', and youths' calf, double sole, half welt, and pump-sole dress-boots; men's, boys, and youths' kip and buff leather boots; men's, hoys, and long-leg-cayalry boots; men's end bors' calf buff tested youths' kip and buff leather boots; men's, hoys, and long-leg-cayalry boots; men's end bors' calf buff tested (Gongress boots and balmorals; men's, boys, and youths' super kip, buff, and polished grain, boys, and youths' super kip, buff, and polished grain and grain and grain and enamelled patent sewed balmorals and Gongress satters; women's, misses', and children's and at the sewed city-made lace boots; children's also have sewed city-made lace bosts; many sewed balmorals and satters' sewed city-made lace bosts; may sewed balmorals acchildren's gest and moroece sepper-natied lace the lace; fine kid slippars; carpet and cnamelled lash investing bags, &c.

PREEMPTORY SALE OF FRENCH, INDIA, GR.

PREEMPTORY SALE OF FRENCH, INDIA, GR.

MAN, AND ERITISH DRY GOODS, &c.

April 10, at 10 o'clock, will be sold by catalizes, or four months' credit, about of French, India, German, and British dry foods, to embracing a large and destrable assortment of fany ind staple articles in silk, worsted, woolen, linen, and sol ton fabrics.

M. B.—Samples of the same will be arranged for such mination, with catalogues, early on the morning of the sale, when dealers will find it to their interest to altend.

LARGE SALE OF FRENCH, SWISS, GERMAN sale, when dealers will mut is a mer interest to it tend.

LARGE SALE OF PRENCH, SWISS, GERMAN, AND BRITISH DRY GOODS.

THIS DAY.

April 10th, by catalogue, on four month; tradh;
DRESS GOODS.—Large lines of Parts plained and fact montambiques, poil de chovres, perceles, plain and fact morambiques, poil de chovres, perceles, plain and fact morambiques, poil de chovres, perceles, pilited incompts and fawne, famoy ginghams, chambrays, alpaces, dec. 2007. moramurques, poli de cuevres, percalet, martaria apparet and lawns, fancy ginghams, chambrats, albiete, do., &c.

DREC STILKS.—Full assortment of black fros de cadrilles, gros de Mables, gros de Zurich, matcallina, elos de Mables, gros de Zurich, matcallina, florences, &c.

BHAWLS.—Broshe long and square, stella, broche borders, lama, grenadine, and thibet shawis, silt ind cloth eirculars, basques, and mantles.

RIBBONS.—Boxes solid colors and fancy grade floth eirculars, basques, and mantles.

RIBBONS.—Boxes solid colors and fancy grade floth and chambrate adgre eiver ribbont. &c.

EMBROID-FRISS.—Full assortment of lawns. Swings, isconets, mulls, checked musius, frilling, embroider cotton, isce veils, &c.

Also, black and white crepes, gloves, head-nets, &c.

THIS DAY.

—full lines No. 4 to 60 plain corded-edge poult de say ribbons.

—full lines poult de sole ribbons, extra quality. an ribbons.

—full lines poult de soie ribbons, extra quality, all-boiled.
—full lines poult de soie ribbons, most detirable shades. -a line newest style plaid broché poult de sole rib. bons
—a line rich gros de Faples poult de sole ribbons, si colors and grades.
— full line of black silk velvet ribbons. LARGE PREEMPTORY SALE OF BOOTS, SHOW BROGAMS, ARMY GOODS, TRAVELING BAGS, by ON TUESDAY MORNING, April 11th at 10 o'clock, will be sold, by catalogue, on four months' credit, about 1, 100 packages boots, along brogams, cavalry boots, &c., embracing a prime and freeh assortment of seasonable goods of city and Sector manufacture, which will be open for examinal leg, with catalogues, on morning of sale.

LARGE POSITIVE SALE OF BRITISH, FRENCE, GREMAN, AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS. We will hold a large sale of foreign and domestic try goods by estalogue, on a credit of four months, and part for cash. for ceah.

ON THURSDAY MORNING.

April 13, at 190 elock, embracing about 900 package and lots of sisple and fancy articles in woolens, wonteds, linear, sinks, and cottons, to which we invite the attention of dealers.

N. B.—Bamples of the same will be arranged for aramination, with catalogues, early on the morning a sale, when dealers will and it to their interest to green. POSITIVE SALE OF CAEPETINGS, DEUGGETS, MATTINGS, &c.

OF PRIDAY MOREING,
April 14th, at Mo'clock, will be 'eld, by catalogue, on four months' wedit, about 30 pieces rich three pir, superfine, and fise ingrain, royal damaek, Venetiss, list, hemp, cottage, and rag carpetings: Canton and cocca mattings, &c., ambracing a choice assortment of superfor goods; which may be examined early on the morning of sale. THOMAS & SONS,

For. 139 and 141 South FOURTH Street.

Public Sales of Roal Estate and Stocks, at the fix.

change, every TURSDAY, at 12 e clock.

SEVENTH SPRING SALE, lith April
Estate of the late Robert Raiston, Esq., and others.
EIGHTH SPRING SALE, 18th-April
Estate of the late Lewis Wain, Esq., Thos. James, William F Wolff, John Distanced, and others.
NINTH SPRING SALE, 26th April
For list of properties in the above three sales see catalogue Tuesday next. catalogue Tuesday next.

ETOCKS AND REAL ESTATE, 11th April.

CARD.—Our sale on TUESDAT, 11th April, will include the elegant country seat of the late Robert Ruton, Eq.; a desirable coffige, Allantic City; tweir acres, Passy unk road, and a large amount of valuable city property, dwellings, stores, lots, ground reals, &c.

AS Bee pamphlet catalogues for particulars. Sale No. 1835 South Second street.
HOUSEHOLD FURNITUES, IMPERIAL GARPETS, &c.
10th instant, at 10 o'clock, at No. 1835 South Second street, the household furniture, imperial carpes, &c.
May be examined at 8 o'clock on the morning of the Sale at No. 1838 Sprace street.

ELEGANT FURNITURE. MIRRORS, FTANO, FINE CURTAINS, CARPRIN, CHARDELIERS, &c.

OR TUREDAY MORBING.

18th inst, at 10 o'clock, at No. 1828 Sprace street by catalogue, the entire furniture, insulating rosswood asd green plush drawing-room furniture, elegant window cartains, mantel mirrors, rosswood plano, fine verst cerpets, hardsome chandeliers, superior wainst dietroroom and library furniture, book-cases, elegant chamber forniture, fine mattiresses, &c., &c.; also, the kinchen utennils.

**Both May be examined, on the morning of sale, at 3 o'clock.

PEREMPTORY SALE.

PREWSTER'S FAMILY MEDICINES.
D You will never regret that you used BREWSTER'S PROTORAL for your sough, and all affections of the threat. It is the best known cough syrap.
Use also Brewster's Known cough syrap.
Use also Brewster's Cholera Mixture, for bowel couplaints. Use also Brewster's Cholera Mixture, for bowel couplaints. Use also Brewster's Researce Jamaics Singer. Use also Brewster's Researce Jamaics Singer. Use also Brewster's Tetter Qiniment. JOHNSTOR & HOLLOWAL.
Agents, 21 North SIXTH Street.
mh24-fmw 12t*
E. F. BREWSTER, Sole Proprietor,
mh24-fmw 12t*

CORNER RIEVENTH AND RACE STREETS,
ALSO, CHESTAUT AND FORTISTH.
Dr. THUS ALLES, very successful in the irest:
ment of all diseases would inform his friends and the public that he is still benefiting and curing many on whom medicine has had no effect and considered incurable.

WOB DERY UL DISCOVERY—We would sak your attention to these diseases, as we have found that we possess a remedy which has cured many, and will restore to their world fering the most excruciating agony. Generally, a few days only are needed to effect a cure. We would urge no one to try it; if you do not the lost is your own. Those who follow our requirements, and not cured, have nothing to pay. Pritients treated as their residences when desired.
Testimonials at the offices; hours 9 A. M. to 5 P.
M. Consultations free. Offices, 15-4 North ELEVENTH Street, also, CHESTNUT and FORTIETH Street, West Philadelphia.

JAR THOS. ALLES

SHIPPING. ELECTRICAL OFFICES.

The steamship NORMAN, Capt. Baker, will sall for Philadelphia for Boaton, on Saiurday, April 15, at 0 l M., and steamship SAXON, Gapt. Matthews, from Se ton for Philadelphia, on the same day at 4 P. M. For Freight or Passage (having fine accommodated) apply to HRRRY WINSOR & CO., mh2 tf 332 South DELAWARE Avenue. STEAM WEEKLY TO LIVE OF THE WEEKLY OF THE WEEKLY OF THE WEEKLY OF MANCHESTER. SATURDAY, APRIL SET OF THE WEEKLY OF CITY OF MARCHESTER. SATURDAY, April St.
ETNA SATURDAY, April 13th.
EDIB BURGH St. APRIL 12th.
EDIB BURGH St. APRIL 12th.
And every unceding Saturday at Moon, from Fior the Rorth River.

Payable in Gold, or its equivalent in Gurrens.
First Cabin. 850 Of Steerage to London.

"to London. 85 C6 to Paris.
"to Paris. 96 00 to Paris.
"to Paris. 96 00 to Paris.

"to Paris. 96 00 to Paris.

"to Paris. 12th Oblination of the Chamburg Passengers also forwarded to Havre, Bremen.

Lerdam, Antwerp, &c., at equally low rates.
Fares from Liverpool or Queenstown: 1st Cabin.

1858, $105. Steerage from Liverpool or Queenstown tickets here at these rates.

For further information apply at the Company Offices.

10 DEN G. DALE, Again.

11 WALBUTS Treet, Pl.

NEW EXPRESS LINE, I

NEW EXPRESS LINE, N. WARPINGTON, VIA Chespeaks and Delaware fart. The first what above MRK57 size every WEDERSDAY and SATURDAY, at 12 M. For Freight apply to Agents, WM. F. CLYD'S 14 Borth and South Wharves, Phila. J. B. DAY 18 Georgetown, D. C.; FLOWERS & BOWEN, Alvating Congetown, D. NOTICE.—FOR NEW YORK THE PHILADELPHIA IN NEW YORK EXPRESS STRAMBOAT COMPANY. O Delaware and Raritan Ganal. Steamers leave DAILY, first wharf below MAEAR Street, at 2 o'clock P. M. WM. P. CLYDE & CO., 14 S. WHARVES, Phila MALCOLM MACNELIAN SPECTACLE STORE, INC. 310 Sepectacle Store, INC. 310 Sepectacle Store, INC. 310 Sepectacle Stores, INC. 310 Sepectacle Stores, INC. 310 Sepectacle Stores, INC. DALLE STORES, and all manners repairing earefully and promptly attended to, many repairing earefully and promptly attended to, many repairing earefully and promptly attended to.

NO PAIN IN EXTRACTION

NO PAIN IN EXTRACTION

Description of the Gas administration of the Company of the Compa EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMABDER SATE
STORE
FRITADELPHIA PA
A large variety of FIRE-PROOF SATES
A LARGE VARIETY OF FIRE-PROOF SATES
AND TAIL hand.

OIL LANDS SURVEYED AND LAU
Out in Leases and Topographical Flans Drawin G. M HOPKINS, Givil Engineer and Walnut St.
204 South FIFTH street, near Philadelphi apl-12.* ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CON STITUTIONS, OF both seres, use HELMBODY EXTRACT BUGHU. It will give brisk and example you to also well.