AFFECTING INCIDENT.

In the summer of 1861 a young man, by name Richard Callahan, only about twenty-three years old, with a wife, and an infant daughter at the age of one, enlisted in the 82d Pennsylvania Volunteers for three years, having been discharged as a journeyman gasfitter by Cornelius & Baker with many others. He followed his regiment to Virginia, and there participated in all the principal actions during the campaigns of McClellar, Hooker, Pope, Burnside, and even served under the galiant Grant Burnside Gr CELEBRATION OF THE VICTORIES. A proposition to have the public celebration of the recent victories celebrated in this city on Mon-day next will be introduced to-morrow in the Coun-cilis. The Mayor will be requested to invite all the citizens to illuminate their houses. A grand display of fireworks at Penn Square, and an illumination of the public buildings, are talked of. PARADE OF CADETS. Col. Hyatt's cadets will arrive in Philadelphia this morning and parade over the following route: From Thirtieth street down Market to Twentieth, thence to Chestnut, thence to Third, thence to Broad street and Academy of Music. RELIGIOUS SERVICES ON FRIDAY NEXT. The First Baptist Church, Broad and Arch streets, will be open on the 14th inst. at 12 o'clock. The exercises will consist of thanksylving and prayer, and also a sermon by Rev. Geo. Dana Boardman. BUTTER SEIZED. The cierks in the Market Department confiscated thirty-seven lumps of butter for the week ending the 10th inst. Reason, light weight.

FOREIGN NOTES.

- Mr. John H. Addison, a London broker, who has recently been praised by the Spiritualist jour-nals in England as "one of the strongest mediums who has yet appeared," has amused himself, first by performing before select circles of friends all the tricks of the Davenport Brothers, and secondly by writing to the London Star to say that he is no

"medium" at all, but did it for fun. The Spiritual Times and the Spiritual Magazine, which took up Mr. Addison as a remarkable being, now drop him in great disgust.

CHARGED WITH ROBBING A SOLDIBR.

James McClellan, an orderly sargeant, and E. R. Benhard were charged with the larceny of $550 from Wm. Harris, a soldier.

Officer Myers teatified to seeing the prisoners take Harris, who was very drunk, into Mara's house. McClellan is an orderly sargeant.

Officer—testified to arresting Benhard on a warrant. He went by the name of Jack Sheppard. Margaret Mara testified that the prisoners brought the soldier, Harris, into her house, and laid him on a sofa in a back room; they had their hands in his pockets, but she did not see them take anything out; the then ordered them to take the Soldier out.

On cross-examination the witness said she kept the McClellan Shades, and also lady boarders; it is a first-class hotel.

Wes. Weldon sworn.—I saw McClellan and he McClellan Snages, and associated in the class hotel.

Mrs. Weldon sworn.—I saw McClellan and another man with Harris; they came to my house and wanted a place to lay Harris down to steep, saying that he had $500 with him; McClellan said he would take care of the money; I ordered them to take Harris away; my house is corner of Vine and Crown. Verdict, not guilty.

John Geo. Meyer and Jacob Miller were charged with the laceny of clothing valued at $37.

George Miller testified that his trunk was broken optn and robbed of the clothing. The prisoners confessed before the alderman (Myers) to breaking open the trunk, and Miller to selling the things. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to seven months in the county prison.

But little was done in the civil courts yesterday, and none of the business transacted was of special interest. A resolution was offered authorizing the establishment of a sixth division in Secondary School No. 3, corner of Twentieth and Coates streets. The resolution was opposed by Messis. Moore and Freeborn on the ground that there was no money to pay additional teachers. Mr. Freeborn stated that one teacher had yesterday brought suit before Alderman Beitler on her warrant, and that others were about doing so; that the city was thereby mulcied into additional costs, and there should be a stop to the increasing of the number of teachers until the finances of the city were in a better condition.

The resolution was adopted—yess 28, nays 5.

Dr. Neblager, from the special committee to whom was referred the matter of regulating examinations of applicants for positions as teachers under the recent act of Assembly, offered the following as rules for the government of the committee examining applicants:

I. They shall hold two examinations annually, of such persons as may desire to obtain certificates of qualification for the position of teachers in the Public Schools; and those examinations shall be held on the second Thursday and Friday of May and November.

II. They shall award to such persons as an or the position of the persons as an or the position of teachers in the Public Schools; and those examinations shall be held on the second Thursday and Friday of May and November.

The Eric Carbon Oil Co. vs. Richard Wright et al.

This was an action to recover for an alleged breach of contract, it being alleged by plaintiffs that the defendants refused to receive a quantity of oil after, having purchased the same. The defence was that the agent of the plaintiffs guaranteed that the oil could be shipped with an assorted cargo, and that it was only upon ascertaining that this could not be done that they refused to comply with the contract. Plaintiffs, on the other hand, deny that there was any guarantee of the sort, and assert that the contract of sale was absolute. Jury out.

OBSCENE PUBLICATIONS.

Issac De Young, the proprietor of a store on Chestaut street, near Seventh, was arraigned at the Central Station, yesterday afternoon, on the sharge of circulating obscene publications. The article complained of was printed on slips of paper, of different colors, and set farth the particulars of certain articles, morally contraband, which the publisher had for sale. Some of these documents found their way into respectable families, and complaint was entered to his Honor Mayor Henry. The subject was referred to Chief Ruggles, who despatched John Lamon, of the detective force, to attend to it. Mr. L. yesterday morning walked into the store and purchased from the young man in attendance specimens of the things thus advertised. He was handed quite a number of the publications. Having paid for the articles thus purchased, he departed, and, making the necessary affidavit, the warrant was issued and the arrest made. Dennis O'Brien, Eeq., appeared as counsel for the defence. He had no questions to ask, but said that Mr. Lamon sipply purchassing such articles did not constitute a crime on the part of Mr. De Young. "Certainly not," replied Mr. Lamon; "it is the issuing of the publications upon which the proceedings bave been instituted." These were handed you gratis?" asked Mr. O'Brien.

"Yes, sfr," responded Mr. Lamon. O'Brien.
"Yes, str." responded Mr. Lamon.

George Sproll was charged with committing an assault and battery on Charles Dougherty. The latter testified that he went to the office of defendant to inquire if he was the agent of some property. He no sconer asked the question than Sproll told him he did not want any dirt in his house, and took him by the neck to put him out.

The defence was that the defendant was not partial to tavern keepers, and ordered the prosecutor out as soon as he opened the door.

A number of winnesses were called to prove the character of the defendant, the first one of whom was a tavern-keeper. The court charged that the cocupant of a house had the right to order a person out. Verdict, not guilty, and the prosecutor to pay the costs.

DESCENT ON A DANCE-HOUSE,

R. K. Davis was arraigned yesterday on the charge of maintaining a nuisance, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Tenth and South streets, consisting of a dance-house of an alleged disorderly character. The neighbors had complained several times of the annoyance. At an early hour sesterday morning police officers made a descent on the place, arrested the alleged proprietor, and captured forty-eight males and females of the dancing party. The ayes of the particl-pants ranged from 16 to 30 years. They were bound over to keep the peace. Mr. Davis was held to answer at court. Several persons, one of them as female, sprang from the window. One of the males, named George Cooger, residing at 1035 South Tenth street, fractured one of his legs. He was conveyed to his residence. DESCENT ON A DANCE-HOUSE,
