They have been guilty of no offence against the laws of England, and they have committed no sot which could bring in its character-such as ours of the 10th of March. 1888, which was occasioned by a similar condition of affairs. This request has not been compiled with, though its reasonableness and necessity have been shown by subsequent events." The Secretary, after giving the particulars ap-pertaining to the seizure by insurgents of the steamers Chesapeake, the Philo Parsons, and the leland Queen, t.c., says: "The primary object in capturing these steamers was confeceedly to release the insurgent officers confined at: Joinsen's Island. There is reason to believe that the conspiracy was organized and set in motion by prominent insur-gents, who have, for some time past; been realding in Canada for such purposes. Indeed, this Depart-ment has proof that Mr. Jacob Thompson has ac-knowledged: that he was commissioned and pro-vided with funds to carry them into effect, and had interviews with complexious members of the gang just before the steamers were captured. "It is obvious that at the time of the informal ar-rangement between the two Governments of April, 1817, limiting their naval force which they had both employed in that quarter during the war then recently closed. If peace was expected to continue, the force was an unnecessary burden to both par-ties jout, on the contarry, if war should suddenly be renewed, one or the other might, in anticipation of that strangement was entered into, and the treits the state might, in atticipation of that stores as to insure to it a dangerous advantage.
