dent contribution to the advancement of science and the popular dissemination of knowledge, is now its glory and triumph. Sincerely yours, under new anspices, recovering its energies, and promises to hold a still higher place as the first scientific Institution of the United States. We Ideutinant Commander U. S. N. It is increased fame, and the growing reputation of the young lecturer, who is already recognized as one of the most successful expounders of the work ders of chemistry. Professor Henry Morton (son of the Rev. Dr. Henry Morton, rector of St. James's Protestant Episcopal Church, Seventh, above Market street) first became known in the world of letters as one the Committee of Three appointed by the Philo-mathean Society of the University of Pennsylvania, to translate, edit, and illustrate the insöription on the Rosetta Stone, a work which obtained the high approbation of Alexander von Humboldt, rapidiy passed through two editions, has long been out of print, and can scarcely be procured now at any price. Problications Received. After Mrs. Stowe published "Uncle Tom's Cabin," she produced a "Key" to it, to show that she had not exaggerated either in incidents or cha-rasters. This, forming a pemphlet volume of 282 octavo pages, has been relssued by a New York publishing house; under the title of "Facts for the People. Southern Life; or, Inside Views of Slavery." We scarcely think that an apology for cotavo pages, has been reissued by a New York publishing house; under the title of "Facts for the People. Southern Life; or, Inside Views of Siavery." We scarcely think that an apology for the romance of "Uncle Tom" was particularly lled for, at this moment, when no one pretends t justify Slavery. Received from T. B. Peterson & Under the title of "The Young Student," the Literary Remains of J. Zimmerman Johnson, edited by the Rev. J. Newton Brown, with a brief sketch of his life, by his father, have been collected into a neat 24mo. volume. The deceased, who was an alumnus of Lewisburg University, Pa., a very superior educational institution, died at Lewisburg nearly thirteen months ago, in his twenty-fifth year, sincerely regretted by his instructors and fellow students, as well as by his family. His "Remains," consisting chiefly of fragments in prose, are of rather more than average ment; and give promise of no small ability, had life been spared. An Appendix, of about forty pages, con-taining religious mueings by his father, has pro-bably been put in as "padding," to swell the volume into size. The few notes on the "Remains," con-tributed by Dr. Newton Brown, are necessary and judicious. Received from Smith, English, & Co. The May number of Peterson's Ladies' Magazine has the usual quantity of reading matter and a number of fashion plates and patterns. Its frontis-plece is a steel engraving, colled "Wild Flowers." It has music, too. The Farewell Song of Enoceh Arden, or "I'll Sall the Seas Over," by Sep. Win-ner, tells a lady that her smile "like a phantom" shall haunt him for ever. We are unable to see how a smile can resemble a ghost. Mr. T. R. Callender, corner of Third and Wainut, has handed us the last number of the New York, Ledger, a periodical which has obtained no small celebrity from having been the exclusive medium through which the like Edward Ererett communi-stat. It is conducted with great epirit, and has an immense circulation. In this city alone, Mr. Callender sells over 25,000 copies a week. It is very readable, and is rather nearly illustrated. It appears monthly, Lastly, also, from Mr. Callender, we have The Review, eight pages small 4to., published weekly in Philadelphia, having the advantage of three edi-torial publishers, and "devoted to Literature, Science, and the Fine Arts." As the specimen be-fore us is the seventh number, it is surprising that we did not hear of it before. The first poem, "The Starry Flag," is better than most newspaper verse, and we should copy it, but for the bad tasts, in the fourth stanza, of the line "Reflecting Luna's taste." What has the moon done thus to be mis-called? The sketch of Charles Brockden Brown, though deficient in novelty, is neatly written, and the criticism entitled "As the twig is bent," contains some truths, well expressed. THE NEW FRENCH ACADEMICIANS. - The election of an Academician is officially announced to the head of the Government, whether King, President, or Emperor, and the Director for the time being en-joys the privilege of communicating directly with him without the intervention of a minister. The announcement is made for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the sovereign, which is a mare for-mality. The final duty of the recipient is to com-pose an address to be read on the day of his public reception, which does not take place for some, months after his election. It contains a biographi-cal sketch, and, as a matter of course, the eulogy of his predecessor. It is communicated beforehand to the Director, who, with the recipient's composition before him, prepares an address of his own to be de-livered on the same occasion, and which is, of course, very laudatory of the newly-elected member. Course, very laudatory of the newly-elected member. MORTALITY IN GREAT BRITAIN.-In the week ending April 12 the births in London and nine other towse of the United Kingdom were 4,067; the deaths 3.200. The annual rate of mortality per week in those ten large towns was 30 per 1,000 persons. In London the weekly births of 1,118 boys and 1,095 girls, in all 2,208 children, were registered! The deaths in London in the same period were 1,680. The rate of mortality was 29 per 1 600 in Londou, 35 in Edinburgh, and 25 in Dublin; 37 in Liverpiol, 30 in Manchester, 24 in Salford, 24 in Birmingham. 30 in Leeds, 28 in Bristol, and 36 in Glasgow. The funeral ortege arrived on the ground about twelve o'clock, Scottiss Person Returns.—A has been no-ticed in prison reports that for the last three or four years there has been a tendency tas increased in the number of criminal prisoners. This tendency appears to have ceased in Scotland about the mid-die of the year 1864, which is the year ending June 50, 1864, the total number of committands in Scot-land was 24,828; but the more serious entences-namely, to penal servitude; constituted; only 237 of the while 22,458 sentences. The number of juvenile offenders continued to decrease. In 11,429 instances the prisoners received had been in the lame prison before; in 278 cases for more than 50 tiles. Of the prisoners admitted, 5,166 could not read, and 12,942 could only road with difficulty—both numbers larger than in former years. The average daily number, of prisoners was 2,225 in the year 1862, 2, 422 in 1863, and 2,376 in the year 1864 -a correction bing made in stating these numbers, for the six of convicts detained in Scotting in 1863 and 1864 for their first stage of punchement (60 in 1863 and 1864 for their first stage of punchement (60 in 1863 and 1864 for their first

In the following order : Band of the 16th New York ; first firing party consisting of twelve men from the prisoner's regiment; the coffin carried by four sol-diers; the condemned, leaning on the arm of Chap-lain White (colored), of the 28th U. S. C. T., and losing up with the second firing party of twelve. The ceremonies at the grave were brief. A prayer from the chaplain, a good by from the prisoner, a well fired volley, and the spirit of an unfortunate man appeared before the God who gave it. The body and head of Mays was completely riddled. It seemed as if almost overy ball perforated him. Thomas Moran, assistant surgeon, and Samue Morrow, acting assistant surgeon, were present, and examined the body, having no difficulty in arriving the colored Methodists in this city who, by force of circumstances, were obliged to remain with the M. E. Church South, decided yesterday, by a unantmous vote of the male members, to dissolve their connection with that branch of Methodists. Bishop Brookes' visit here to his brethren has been emi nently successful, and the prompt but cordial manner in which the members dissolved their con-nection from the slaveholders' organization is due o his presence, and the powerful influence which he has been able to exert. The military authorities have put some three hundred of the rebels, who are confined in Libby, to work in clearing up the rubbish, throwing the bricks off the pavement, and otherwise making the streets passable, which have been blockaded by the recent attempt of the wandals to destroy the city. This is a most excellent use of this mixture of ignominy and infamy. This policy will teach this class to work, which has always been done by the negroes, and should they even be dirsharged from oustody, they will be able for the first time to earn their bread by honest industry. The weather, which was quite cool yesterday, seems more moderate this morning. The headquarters of the 2d Corps is to be located in this city, from which would be inferred that the troops will be camped in this vicinity. ROLLIN. THE IBREPRESSIBLE MARLY IN COMMAND IN SOUTH WESTERN VIRGINIA. The Richmond Whig of the 24th says: General Sheridan routed Early at Waynesboro, about the middle of March, and put him, individu-ally, upon a most tremendous race, which he con-cluded by bringing up in Richmond, attended by one of his staff, sans coat, hat, and almost everything. When Sheridan's column had swept by Richmond, Early was ordered back to Staunton, and was there at the lime of the evacuation of this city. Upon hearing of this event he hastened to Lynobburg, and thence towards Southwestern Virginia, where, ranking General Echols, he took command of the forces that were retreating before Stoneman and Thomas. When isst heard from, being unable to withstand the forces in his front; and afraid of Gen. Grant in his rear, he had deflected to the right, and was apparently making up the Kanawha Valley. It is doubtful whether he has yet become aware of the surrender of Gen. Lee, We look with interest for tidding from him and his command. OHHAP BERAD-A BENEFICENT REGULATION. SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA. DEATH OF AN EMINENT SURGEON. DEATH OF AN EMINENT SURGEON. Dr. Oharles Bell Gibson, of Philadelphia, but for filteen or twenty years a resident and practitioner of this tity, died at his residence on Franklin street, near Seventh street, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, of disease of the beart. As a surgeon, Dr. Gibson has for years enjoyed the highest reputation both in Baltimore and Richmond. Immediately ster the secession of Virginia and on the organization of the military forces of the State, he received the appoint-ment of Surgeon General of Virginia, a position which he held until the State forces were turned over to the Davis Government. He then accepted a commission as. surgeon in the so-called Confede-rate service. At the time of his death, Dr. Gibson wad in the fittleth year of his age. Horse-fiesh dinners on a handsome scale are advertised at five frances per head, and obeap ones at one france live sous; but there are similar treats at twelve sous per head, at an inn of the village St. Maurice, near Vincennes.
