The Subscription Book for the Capital Stock of this Company is now open at the Banking House of ADAMS & LEVIS, No. 305 CHESTRUT Street, Philadelphia. Persone wishing to make a profitable invastment are respectfully invited to call on Messrs ADAMS & LEVIS, who will give them further information, and will show them the Machines, now running and making nails. The advantages we claim for our Mashines over any others in use, are:

That they produce a more perfect nail, with a better head, and fewer imperfect nails.

That they effect a saving of not less than fifty per cont. in the expense of grinding knives and dies.

And the Machines being self-feeding, they effect a saving of from fifty to aeventy-five per cent. in the labor of cutting nails.

Parties feeling an interest, and desiring to subscribe, will please call and examine for themselves. apid im

To the Estior of The Press:

Sin: Of all the incidents connected with the late golemnities in our city, not one has been so full of gilent pathos, so full of present and future meaning, as that of the poor black woman bringing her "roughly-made" wreath of evergreen, and in tears presenting it, to be placed at the head, or at the feet, or somewhere near the beloved remains of him, the crowning act of whose life was the immense benefit he had conferred upon her people—her down-trodden, her oppressed people. Was she not on that solemn coassion the chosen representative of her race? "Twas right to give was entative of her race?" Twas right to give was entative of her race? "Twas right to give was ribute was, however, an evergreen—emblematical of the everlasting remembrance in which the name if Abraham Lincoln would be held in all time to ome. Let this humble woman's effering be hothered let the Safely kept in the archives of our city! and then in our great future, for we shall have a great future, when every vestige of the accursed evil is swept from our beautiful land—when no white of the swinging lash over the helpless and yet strong man's shoulders—no waiting ory of "O Lird, master! O Lord, master?" from the quivering lips of the tied-up woman, as the whip enters her already scarred fiesh—then the dust of that humble but impressive offering this-poor black woman laid upon the bier of their great deliverer will be looked inpon with an almost holy reverence.

Bo not think me a fansatio or a crazy Abolitionist, as some would say. I never attended an Abolitionist, has some would say. I never attended an Abolitionist, as some would say. I never attended an Abolitionist, as some would say. I never attended an Abolitionist, as some would rund me for life; and to this day, though more than half a century has passed. I bear its impress on my face. Yes, I am an Abolitionist, and have user known the time when I was not one. Long before I knew the meaning of the term. I used to wonder why it was that I could not be sold, an the Edilor of The Press: improved Pattern Shirt," made by John C. Arrison, at the old stand, Nos. 1 and 8 North Sixth and warranted to give satisfaction. His stock o Very respectfully yours, April 26, 1866. MATER. SALE OF THE DUKE DE MORNY'S STUD.—Thirtyfive thorough-bred horses, part, of the stud of the late Duke de Morny, were sold by austion, at Chantilly, on the 8th inst. There were eleven two-year olds, eighteen three-years, and six four years. The total amount of the sale was 328.250 franes. The highest prices obtained were: Three-year olds—Leilo, a bay colt, by West: Australian and the Launyelot mare, to Countr-Lehmdorf, 50.00f; Phirus, a bay colt, by West Australian and Partlet, to Majox Fridolit, 41,000f.; Templier, n bay colt, by West Australian and Termagant to M. Desvignes, 38,000f.; Funr years—Bayard, a chestnut horse, by Ne wminsiter and Babette, to M. H. Lunei, 28,500f. Twoyears—La Stoulet, a bay colt, by West Australian and Silistrie, to M. Lupiu, 18,500f. A Question of Law.—The Cincinnati Times of Tuesday latt informs its readers that "it is suggested that a coroner's inquest should have been field on the body of the late President, and a vardict rendered, otherwise his assassin cannot legally be convicted of murder." The discussion of this print is now utterly useless, yet we would suggest to the editor that the elightest legal knowledge might have made him aware that no verdict was necessary to enable a jury to convist an assassin of a murder—stil less of a murder to which there were so many positive witnesses. CITY ITEMS. The Parmelee Isolated Planes. We are always pleased to welcome any new im-provement in musical instruments, and more espeally in the Piano Forte, from its entering more largely into the murical enjoyments and recrea tions of home than any other. It was, therefore, with more than ordinary gratification that we yesterday examined the mechanism and witnessed the per-formance of the celebrated new Piano, the name of which heads this article. The "Parmelee Isolated Plane" differa from others in these particulars: The nstrumental part of the plane is completely soluted from the case by means of a metallic frame, rendering the sound of it more rich. Hear, and powerful, while it secures to it the addional valuable advantage of not being in the least weather, unseasoned wood and other easilymagined difficulties which wood must necessarily Involve in contrast with metal. The sound of these lanes is not only much more clear and powerful out their durability in all climates, and their non-liability to get out of tune from changes of season, are much mistaken if they do not speedily supersed evince a proper appreciation of real merit. The expense of the Parmelee Isolated Pianos, we are inormed by Mr. Osborn, the agent of the company manufacturing them, is materially less than that of others, owing to the greater simplicity of their construction, although we are free to say that the dif-ference in cost is a trifling consideration compared with the substantial advantages of the instrument Morris, No. 728 Market street, is to act as agent for their sale in this city. Samples are now on exhibi-tion at his warerooms, where visitors will be affordsd every facility for testing and contrasting their merits. A BEAUTIFUL IDEA .- Albums of poetry, albums of autographs, albums of photographs, and albums of flowers have long been popular, but it was re-served for Mr. Eddy, of the Grover & Baker Sawing Machine Company, No. 730 Chestnut street, to introduce the latest novelty in this department; we eliude to his eplendid Specimen Album of the varions kinds of Sewing and Embroidery executed on the Grover & Baker machines at this popular establishment. In examining its multitudinous pages we were at once charmed by the beauty, novelpages we were atonce charmed by the beauty, novelty, and precision of the specimens, and amazed by their number and variety. Tucking on the finest material, every stitch clear, perfect, and uniform;
lace—a mere gauze—not drawn a particle; cording, hemming, felling, and quliting; ruffling gathered and stitched down with absolute accuracy; fancy work in variety; letters in German text, wrought with embroidery, for marking table linen or the finest handkerchiefs; cushion patterns in the most elabonate designs and even a lady's net, were among the rate designs, and even a lady's net, were among the specimens presented on the different pages. The most exquisite thing in the collection, however, was a beautiful wreath of flowers, in all the various tural shades and tints. This we regard as the most artistic and difficult feat ever attained on the sewing machine, and is quite enough to convince any one that the machine to buy is undoubtedly the Grover & Baker. The samples here referred to being presented in this neat and convenient form, e invaluable to ladies wishing to purchase maenimes, as they can see at a glance, and at their st comfortable ease, the entire line and character of the work these machines are capable of performing. We have rarely, if ever, had to chronicle a more pleasing contribution to the mechanical arts than the album here referred to. OIL ITEMS .- We are pleased to learn that the broken tools have been taken out of the well on the lands of the "Alliance Petroleum and Coal Commost of our readers interested in "oll matters" will perhaps remember the peculiar circumstances attending the striking of the "Big Crevice" in the fall of 1864, an account of which was given in our This well has attracted much notice, owing to the peculiarities of the fissure which was struck at depth of 384 feet from the surface of the ground, prospects of the well, and, relying solely upon the reports of gentlemen of unquestioned integrity, who have seen it and are familiar with all the circumstances, we are glad to lay before our numerous eaders a short account of the condition of the well at the present time.

It would seem that the large and as yet unexplored cravice, so far as its capacity for oil is con-cerned, is highly charged with gas, which is now a steady jet.

Our Eastern friends would, at the present high rates for coal, think themselves happy if they had this supply of gas at their command, as there is sufficient to light, with the proper appliances, a "whole town." The enterprising Company who own this well, however, are not unmindful of the value of the gas, and although they cannot use a "tithe" of it, have arranged a most unique gas oven under their bouer, and are now running the engine entirely by means of this gas, thereby effecting a great saving m fuel, as well as the necessary labor attending the constant "firing up."
The gas that is constantly emanating from the well, roaring like the escape steam of our largest river boats, is highly charged with the odor of oil, in fact, smells precisely like benzine.

The opinion of all with whom we have conversed regarding this singular, and we may say remarkble, well, is that there is an immense body of oil beneath (the gas proves this conclusively), which will be got at as soon as the proper and necessary ap-Mances shall be used.
We are not in the habit of volunteering our ad vice, especially in oil matters, but at the same time cannot avoid expressing our wonder that the gentlemen who are interested in this well do not try the experiment of an air pump, with the view to more fully testing its capabilities.—Marietta Re-gister, April 20, 1865. THE NEW STYLES OF SPRING BONNETS AND HATS, for Ladies and Misses, now open at Wood Cary's, No. 725 Chestnut street, are the ne plus ulire of good taste, and the ladies say so. JEFF DAVIS OFF TO EUROPE.—It is currently reported, and generally believed, that Jeff Davis is off to Europe, carrying with him the "swag" stolen from the banks of Richmond. The arch traitor nay have a very good time with Johnny Bull and Monsieur Crapeau; but he will be looking back home and regretting his sins, and lamenting over the fact that the haloyon days of the old Union are past when he could visit Philadelphia at pleasure, and drop in at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 608 and 605 Chestnut street To the Public.—We would solicit an examina-tion of specimen Photographs in crayon, life and cabinet size, of our lamented Uniof Magistrate, ABRAHAM LINGOLN, which we are getting up by dubscription; it is acknowledged by his most per-gonal friends to be the best executed picture and likeness now offered to the public.'
Subscriptions taken at Messrs. Moss & Co.'s, No. 432 Chestnut street, and at our store. Henzey & Co., Photographers, 812 Arch street.

The Directors would respectfully inform the Stockholders of "The Hoover and Marchall Oil Company" that the affairs of the Company are in a good and sound condition, and that the developments on their property are being vigorously prosecuted. That they could have declared a dividend some time ago from the products of their well, now yielding, but instead of doing so have applied the proceeds thereof to the boring of the new well on the "Hoover" track.

They have also leased a portion of the fifty-acre tract, and have had several applications for more leases for half the oil. The wells on this tract are to be sunk immediately. 1034 CHESTNUT STREET. JOHN F. YOUNG, an institution conduced upon a plau which incress, in the shortest time, the most complete preparation for the duties of business life. It should be ream mbered that while this institution occupies the highest rank, and its current expenses are more than double those of any other similar school in the city, the terms are moderate, and within the reach of all.

It is the only Commercial Institution in the city possessing a seesing a LEGISLATIVE CHARTER, and the only one in the United States authorized to confer Degrees of Merit.

It is managed by gentlemen of liberal education and ample busivess experience, and in every respect offers advantages of the highest order.

Application of the content o The change in the mode of construction is not partial, but therough and radical, discarding all those elements which tend so soon to dest oy their tone and render them incapable of restoration to their origanl sweetness. For power, purity, sweetness, and the strong of the systems of the partial strong of the systems. The simplicity of the construction of this Piano, together with the impressibility of the giving out, is one of its most important merits? Its giving out, is one of its most important merits?
