ORGANS. BLACK MAN IN THE STREET CAB! A gentleman of color tried
The other day, to take a ride;
Heat him down in a street car,
But, ere the thing had travelled far,
The car conductor was dismayed, and most tremendously afraid. What was the reason, do you think? His passenger was black as ink! The black map being strong and strut, Sair he, "I cantot put you out; The late decision of the judge, (Which railroad men think utter (udge,) ave that we shant assault and batter Tither the black man or mulatto rectheless, we'll let von ride Saya black man, "No! I mean to ride "Well, then, because your skin is black, We'll run this car off of the track." So, all that day, and all that night, so, all that day, and the tract night,
Through midnight gloom, tit morning light,
Sitting in ear, run off the tract,
Because his outerakin was black,
The colored person kept his seat,
And black folks brought him things to eat. If any parsons angry are At playing such peculiar jokes, Either on white or solored felks, We say, don't get in such a passion, But buy thin clothes of latest fashion. The place to buy such things for all Is Sixth and Market; GREAT OAR HALL! OAK HALL intends to continue in this line, that is to say, the line of the thinnest sort of exce leat cinining. all animer, and does not intend to be "run off of the all shumer, and does not instant to be 702 50 of the track" under any circumstances whatsoever Unparalleled superiority in style! Unprecedented cheapasse in price!

JUST PUBLISHED CHARLES SCRIBNER & CO., MO. 124 GRAND STARET, NEW YORK,

LORD DERBY'S HOMER. Rendered into English blank verso by Epwand, Earl of Dagar.

From the vitta Lendon Edition.

Two volumes crown Svo., on tinted paper.

Price $5. From the Edinburgh Review.

The merit of Lord Derby's translation may be summed up in one word. It is eminently attractive; it is instinct with life; it may be read with fervent interest; it is immeasurably neaser than Popa to the text of the original.

* * It will not only be read, but read over again and again. * * Lord Derby has given to use a version for more closels. Elicit to the original. to us a version far more closely allied to the original and superior to any that has yet been attempted in the blank verse of our language. A NEW LIFE OF CICERO. By WILLIAM FORSTER. Printed at the Biverside Frees, the lated thated paper from the last London edi-tion, in 2 vois., with twenty litustrations. Grown 679, Price $6. The object of this work is to exhibit Olecro not merely as a statesman and an orator, but as he was at home in the relations of private life, as a husband, a father, a brother, and a friend. His letters are full of interesting defails, which enable us to form a vivid idea of how the old Romans lived 2,000 years ago; and the blogra-phy embraces not only a blucory of, even a semomentone as any in the annals of the world, but a large amount of ancedote and gossip, which ammed the generation that witnessed the downfall of the republic.

From the London Quarterly.

Mr. Forryth produces what we venture to say will become one of the classics of English birgraphical interactions one of the classics of English birgraphical interactions will be welcomed by readers of all ages and both sexes, of all professions and of no profession at all.

FROUDE'S ENGLAND. HISTORY OF RNGLAND PROM THE FALL OF WOOLSEY TO THE BEATH OF ELIZABETH By Janes A. Fronds. M. A., of Excise College, Oxford, from the frutth kondon edition, in evo m for, ovel, from the frutth kondon edition, in evo m for, ovel, Price $2.60 each. The first two volumes just ready. The other volumes will follow shortly.

Mr. Fronde has shown in his advirable history what new results may be derived, even in the most besign track, from a thorough investigation of the original authorities. His researches have thrown a flood of light over the personal character of Henry Yill., and his relation to the great events of modern history, the reformation of religion in Europe and the British leles, that it would be in value to seek elsewhere.

The work has received the most favorable notices from the leading English journals, and has already passed through four editions in England. The vast amount of fresh and authentic materials which the author has brought to bear on the period of which he writes, give his work an interest and value beyond any

THE TAX PAYERS' MANUAL.

Containing the entire Internal Revenue Laws, with the Decisions and Rullings of the Commissioner, Tables of Taxaglion, Exemptions, Stamp-Outies, Sec., and a Complete alphabetical Index. Prepared by 101, George S. Bouwell, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Soc. $1].

This volume contains the act of June 30th, 1951, with the amendments made by the act of March 3d, 1885, introduced into the act of June 30th. And wherever the amendment struck out any part of the previous act and substituted new provisions, these new provisions are introduced in their appropriate places instead of the parts repealed by the amendment.

By the act of June 30th, various earlier acts of Congress relating to the collection of the revenue were revived and made a part of the excise-law. These acts and parts of acts, so far as they are applicable, are also inserted in this volume, and printed immediately after the sections by which they were incorporated into the existing law.

This 2 trangement of the law, designed as the basis of a Manual for the use of tax payers and officers engaged in the administration of the law, will, it is thought, be found equally trustworthy and far more convenient than a work which should contain only the various laws entire, in the form in which they stand on the statute-book.

The rates in the table of duties correspond to the rates THE TAX PAYERS' MANUAL. laws entire, in the form in which they stand on the statute-book.

The rates in the table of duties correspond to the rates fixed by the act of March 3d, 1955.

The ratings were prepared at the Office of Internal Revenue, and are based mainly upon letters written from the office upon the various subjects (reated.
