MEADQUARTEES ARMY OF POTOMAG,
June 3, 1855.

Messrs. Geo. H. Stuart and others, Committee:
Gentlemen: I regret extremely the exigencies of the public service; and my duties will prevent my attending the meeting to be held in Philadelphia on the evening of the 7th inst. to welcome the delegates to the Tenth Annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association.

It would afford megreat satisfaction to be present on so interesting an occasion, and thus boar testimory to the Valuable and emiliation to be present on the armies in the field by the delegates and agents of the various Christian associations. Should anything occur rendering it possible for me to be with jou, you may depend on my availing pyself of the opportunity. In the meantime I earnestly pray God will bless you and your efforts to ameritorate the condition of the soldier, and crown your labors with success.

Very truly, yours,
Major General U. S. A.

To the Committee: ell as many To the Committee:

(IMPLEMENT, It will not be in my power to be with you at your meeting to welcome the delegates to the Young Men's Christian Association; but I take the liberty of sending my welcome. Your galaxy of associations have done much to relieve the sufferings of our war. Hereafter, inkerty will speak of the charitles of our time as among the best viotories. Accept my thanks and best wishes, and believe me, gentlemen, faithiutly yours,

CHARLES SUMMER.

NEAR WILMINGTON, Deld, June 3, 1855.

Dear Sir: I bave had the gratification of receiving your kind invitation to attend the meeting of welcome to the delegates of the Tenth Annual Convention of the Young Mean's Christian Associations. nade by Col. to the third e four years in the most a rarity on tions.

It is a source of deep regret that I am deprived, cwing to recent litness, of erjoring the privilege of being present on so interesting an occasion.

I have observed with admiring and increasing interest the operations of these neble Associations in mitigating the calemities of war, and I trust chey will not intermit their labors during the blessed period of peace.

The distemination of Christian principles among the young met of the land is the surest foundation for the perpetuity and unity of the Republic.

Please accept, gentlemen, the expression of the high regard of yours, most truly.

THE FIREMEN IN CONVENTION.-The THE FIREMEN IN CONVENTION.—The Convention of firemen reassembled last evening in National Guards' Hall, Robert T. Gill, Etq., president, in the chair. The old "bone of contention"—that is, the priority between the Hand-in-Hand and the Hibernia Fire Company—was again introduced, in a communication received from the first named company, asking to be arsigned a position at the right of the line in the parade, claiming in support of this that the company was organized in 1731, and, therefore, previous to the organization of the Hibernia.

A motion was made that the communication be referred to the board of circutors.

Mr. Notes, from the Hand-in-Hand, said that a committee had been appointed to investigate this affair, since the last examination was made, as The following communication was read by the United States Christian Commission, No. 11 Bank Street, Philladelpair, Jun 7, 1855.

CONTEMPTIBLE AUT.

Thomas Murray was arrested at the Arch street Theatre on Tuesday evening, by Officer Treics, who is attached to that great temple of amusement, and yesterday morning the prisoner was arraigned off the charge of assault and battery. The evidence sets forth the isot that the defendant was searted in the upper part of the theatre, and used the parquette as a spittoon, notwithstanding that a beinge numbor of isshinghely-dressed ladies and genilemen were seated there. Several showers of rally a descended, tainted with the pestiferous odor of ram, tobacco, or lager, and settling on "loves of boniels," ruined them in the estimation of the wearers. The young man was observed by saveral gentlemen, who called the attention of the (fil ar of the house to the contemptible act; he ascended to the family-olrole, and, watching the individual, saw him deliberately spit into the parquette. Mr.
Treits pounced on him, like an eague on a fishhawk, and landed him in the lookup.

What charge is there against me?" said the prisoner, at the hearing yesterday.

"Assault and battery," relierated the prisoner, with all the true dignity that marks his official course.

"Assault and battery," relierated the prisoner, [Before Mr Recorder Bnen.] "Assault and battery," relievated the prisoner "Assault and battery," relievated the prisoner, assuming a wonderful degree or astonishment. "Assault and battery! why, sir, I struck nobody." "But you spit on the ladies and gentlemen seated in the lower part of the theatre. It was a dirty, contemptible act." responded the Recorder; and you deserve to suffer for it." "Do you call that an assault and battery?" wonderingly enquired the brayado.

"Well, if, we'll let the court and jury answer that question." replied the Recorder; "you must enter ball in the sum of $1,000 to appear for trial." The prisoner was thus committed.

Soldiers' Families.

"Will you be at the class meeting, &c., at such and such a time."
"Yours, in the cause of the Lord."
"This is a wicked world—a vale of tears."
To the causal or ordinary reader, these letters would appear as though written by a brother in the church to a sisker of the congregation, but the scoret was unexpectedly divulged yesterday. It seems the prisoner was employed as a sawant in the family, residing on Front street, just above Market street, and, for private reasons, the lady of the house turned her away. These street, it is alleged, were written by the husband. He appeared before the Recorder and desired to enter ball for the accussed, but was refused on the ground that he was the author of the letters, and they betrayed an intimacy and a hypocitry not altogether commendable. Just at this moment the wife entered.
She is the possessor of remarkable volubility; and fired with jesious, almost bordering upon reverge, the score was likely to terminate a grand dramatic tableau. She used her tongue, as such a woman under such trying circumstances only inew how to use that weapon. It was a kind of cut and the form of the street was indescribly fich in the fifther the husband. Bureand-wruts that passed between the two women will never descend it posterity through the medium of The Press. The prisoner was committed.

herdly more than sixteen years of age, and the affair, when it became known, created no little excitement.

Luring the past month or two he had given his teacher some trouble, not because of any positive and malicious or wilful insubordication, but merely through certain freaks of temper that seemed not to be wholly understood. Lest Tussday Mr. Filmore, his teacher, gave him an exercise in grammar, to be recited jesterday, but, upon appearing in his place in the class; it became appearent that he had neglected it entirely, whereupon Mr. A. G. Carnahan, the principal, wrote a note to his lather, stading that if he desired his son to pass examination for the libit mere diate Schools, it would be necessary to compel him to attend more steadily to his duties, and told him that if he did not change his conversation with the lad, in which he spoke of the note, and told him that if he did not change his conversation with the lad, in which he spoke of the note, and told him that if he did not change his conversation with the lad, in which he spoke of the note, and told him that if he did not change his son to public schools. This wounded his feelings, and also apparently excited his indignation, and leads us to the task of showing the state of his mind at the time it took place. OF THE FINEST SIX MULE TRAMS IN THE WORLD.

Many of them were bought in the beginning of the war, as young mules, accompanied the armies in all their marches and campes, and are theroughly broken, hardened by exercise, gentle and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldlers.

The whole South is atviced of farming stock, and the Worth also has suffered from the drain of animals, taxed to amply the Ernies.

These animals are so dat public anciton; THEY WILL BOT EKING ABTHING LIKE THEIR TRUE VALUE; and such opportunities for farmers to get working animals to stock tesir farms, and for drovers and dealers in stock to make good speculations, by purchasing them and disposing of them in the South, will never occur again.
