Dr. Clark, from the Convention, as correspond-ing an American Protestant Association, presented the report of the committee, as follows: Among the favorable indications of the times are the tendencies toward union of feeling and effort smoong the members of the various Evangelical denomina-tions throughout our courtry. The readiness of the great n sjority of Christians to co-operate in gene-ral philanthropic and benevolent movements; the increased disposition to excharge only list on the part of the clergy; the desire extensively felt among Preipterinanto to ethe two bravohes of their church sgain united, and the growing feeling that the pre-sent condition of a cuntry demands renewed efforts to strengthen and extend Protestantism-all are Providential indications that claim the atten-tion of thes faces we would suggest the organiza-tion of the strengthen are extending of Christ. In view of these faces we would suggest the organization of the friences of the kluxdom of Christ. In view of three faces we would suggest the organiza-tion of an assembly or an association, to meet annu-ally, and to be composed of clerical and lay dele-gates from every Evangelical denomination that is willing to enter into the movement, and from Pro-testant bocks in foreign countries, the delegates to be appointed by the bighest ecclesiastical body re-presenting the denomination. The publication of an annual report that will present an accounts estatement of the numeri-cal strength of each denomination in our land; the condition and strength of Protestantism in Great Britain, France, and other European countries, and a view of all Protestant missions throughout the world. Other objects may be added to these as Divine Providence may indicate.

Other objects may be added to these as Divine Providence may indicate. Such an escotation or assembly need not inter-fere with the ecclestatical order or benevolut ope-ration of arb branch of the Church, but, through the blessing of Goc, may stimulate them all. The expense attending it would be but trilling unless it should become as efficient power for promoting edu-cation in the West and in the Southern fields now opeting for philanthropic and Christian exertion. The primary object of the body would be the cul-tivation of Christian fellowship throughout the true church, and the consolidation of the ideas and prim-ciples upon which the existence of the kingdom of OUT Lord and the spiritual regeneration of the world derends.

b) a construct the spiritual regeneration of the world depends.
