The subset will continue until the number of animals is reduced in proportion to the reduction of the arriles, now going on rapidly. There are in the Armiss of the Potomas, of the Ten-nessoe, and of Georia, probabily FOUR THOUSAND OF TER FINEST SIX-MULE TEAMS IN THE WORLD.

WORLD. Hany of them were bought in the beginning of the war, as young mules, accompanied the armias in all heir margines and camps, and are thoroughly broken, hardened by extering gaulis and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldiers. The whole South is stripped of farming stock, and the Worth also has suffered from the drain of animals, taken is approved the armies.

Worth also has suffered from the utsut as animately will, to suppy the srmles. These snimels are so'd at public anction; THKY WILL NOT BEING ARTHEING LIKE THEIR THUR VALUE; and such opportunities for farmers to got working animals to stock their farms, sud for drovers and dealers in stock to make good speculations, by purchasing them and disposing of them in the South, will never coour again. Meredith, commanding the cavalry, is moving into Texas with a large force, via Red river and Shreveport. Gen Granger and staff, and Gen. Weitzeil and staff, left New Orleans this morning, for the Texas west, on the steamship Crescent. General Weitzel goes to Brazos, and Granger to Galveston. The latter will take command of all the troops in Texas, with his headquarters at Gal-Yeston. The following paper was published to-day: "The twenty-five per cent. tax on cotton from the sast side of the Musissippi river is revoked, (Signed) 'O. M. CUTTER." The following is reported from Shroveport, Lou-Isianz: One regiment of colored infantry and 5,000 cavalry started for the interior to day, to garrison the towns and protect the people from guerillas More than 10,000 bales of cotton will be brought out from that district.

Much cotton has been sold at ten cents per pound. There is very little planted. The negroes are giving much trouble. They will not labor, and especi: Hy when they can get Government rations. They are leaving the plantations in great number and going to New Orleans.

The com crop will be large. General Her ron's administration of affairs gives much satisfaction.

HAYTI.

The Last Stronghold of the Rebellion

Surrenderen-Progress of the Stege. NEW YORK, June 19.-The United States sciences James Adger has arrived from Cape Haytien, with dates to the 13th instant. Cape Haytien has been in a state of siege for seven days, being almost surrounded by the na-donal troops. This is the last place held by the rebels, and it is expected that the affair will Soon terminate, and peace and order prevail Meanwhile there is no government in the city, and a courter revolution having obliged the Provisional Government established oy the rebels to fly, the rebel general declared the Pro-visional Government dissolved, and nimielf the Executive. Order was pretty well maintained, however. All the dwellings and stores had been closed for the past ten days. A great deal of can-non-firing goes on every day, but without loss on either side. Saleure, the rebel general, threatens that, if obliged to leave, he will first destruy the city, but it is thought he will not be permitted to do so in the presence of two American and one English vessels of war now in port.
