The earnest and realous labors of a loyal people secured the great victory in 1884, and made the war, which our enemits denounced as a failure, a glorious success in 1865.

Our flag has been maintained, our enemits destroyed, our Government preserved, and peacers established. Let every friend who aided in this result take measures to be represented in that Convention. We must see to if that the fraits of our success are not lost to the nation. Business of was importance will be presented for its consideration, and every district in the State should be represented.
