Mr. Bussier thinks his total ioss will reach $75,000, upon which he has an insurance of $50,000 in the Royal Insurance Company, of Liverpoot, American, of Philadelphia, and Hartford, of Connecticut.
So rapidly did the finmes spread, that nearly all the clerks and other employees lost some of their olothing, their watches, and small sums of money. The building No. 108 South Delaware avenue, is owned by William P. Wilstach. The interior was completely gutted, but the walls are in good condition.
It is insured in the Fire Association to the amount of $6,000. This will fully cover the loss. The other building, No. 110, is owned by Charles P. Massey, whose loss is also covered by insurance in the American. The total loss will reach about $100,000.

LINCOLN MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.-The

On the thirteenth of June a thief stole a necktle from the store of Mr. Eshelman, on Chestnut street. The fellow was taken into custody, and when arraigned before Mr. Alderman Beitler he gave the name of Phineas Kirkbride, and said that he lived in New Jersey. In this, he appropriated to his own use the name of a young man, a member of a most estimable family in New Jersey, and for which he deserves an additional pensity. The real Phineas Kirkbride is a young gentleman of excellent reputation, which cannot be suiled by the aforementioned misappropriation of his name, however much he may feel annoyed.
