THE DOUBLEDAY COURT MARTIAL.-The court reassembled yesterday morning, all the mem-court reassembled yssterday mothing, all the mem-buts present. The counsel for William Neal pro-tested against the court trying the case any further, as the judge advocate, in summing up the case of W. B. N. Cozens, had used language which was prejudicial to an impartial hearing. To sustain the protest Daniel Dougherty, Esq., was examined. He testified that he was associate counsel for W. B. N. Cozens, in the case lately heart before this ourt, and was present at the summing up of the case; the judge advocate said Neal had knowingly passed tents of Cozens of inferior quality and size; also charged Neal with complicity; the tents he charged Neal with passing falsely were those fur-fished under contract of W. B. Henry, Filson, Co-zens, and Alternus & Cozens; the judge advocate had denounced Mr. Neal in strong language. Cross-examined.—The argument appeared to be read, slichagh some of it was extempore. Oi, Foster read extracts from his speech, in which Neal was charged with fraud, corruption, and com-plicity.

Neal was charged with fraud, corruption, and com-pileity. Mr. Dougherty said the remarks he had listened to were substantially the same as those just read. Witness had been the associate of F Carroll Brewster, Esq. upon the defence. F. Carroll Brewster, Esq., sworn.-In Colonel Poster's argument great stress was laid upon the complicity of Neal and Cozons, and the frandulent passing by Neal of the tents furnished by Cozens in his different contracts. The expression "corruptly" was used in connection with Mr. Neal so pointedly that it caused the witness to look with surprise that the judge advocate should do so, knowing that Mr. Neal was not on trial, and not present. The pro-test was allowed to be entered by the court upon the "ord".

record. Thomas D. Wilder testified that Willam Neal was chief inspector at the arsenal, and that Mr. Cozens furnished tents there. The court here adjourned until the 1st of July.

The court here adjourned until the 1st of July. SUICIDE OF A DOG.—'t used to be the cry of citizers when dogs were fighting, "where are the police ?" These goaldemen were on hand yesterday, when a fercelous yellow dog wended its way out of Chestnut street into Sixth street, and entered into the store of the Messrs. Megrages. Any reporter present would have checked his mad Oateor, 50 88 to preserve the price of paper at its present standard. None of them being in the neigh-borhood, however, Reserve Officers Fluidey and Hess checked the infuristed animal and pursued him through tacks of paper, when he timely evaded them, and proceeding to the third-story window jumped therefrom and committed suicide.

ANOTHER FIRE FROM FIREWORKS .-ANOTHER FIRE FROM FIREWORKS.— Shortly before six o'clock yesterday morning, a fre-broke out in the conjectionery store of George Mil-lor, No. Gio Market street. The flames originated among some fireworks in the front window and wero confined within that space. Considerable damage was done to the stock in the store by water. The loss is estimated at $1,000. Too much care eannot be observed by these having fireworks is ever $507es a because. They will be childlich in the shore by windows, surrounded by fip paper, with ges burning in the windows, seeming to invite explosion and fire.

POLITICAL .- The First District Senato-POLITICAL. -- The First District Senato-rial Convention of the National Union party WAS beld at Jefferson Hall, Sixth and Christian streets, on Tuseday evening, and proceeded to elect a re-presentative to the State Convention. Jere-miah Nichols, John M. Butler, Isaac McBride, and Paul J. Fields were placed on general nomina-tior. The following vote was cast: First ballot: Mr. Butler, 19 votes, Nichols 15, McBride 5, Fields 24 votes, Butler 18 votes. Mr. Nichols was there-fore duly elected to the State Convention.

SMALL-POX.—The Board of Health has passed a resolution to prevent any person sonding small pox cases through the sizeels of the city to the Health office. Notice is also given that wherever a case of small-pox exists anywhere within the city, the removal of which is required, that whon due no-tice is given to the office, accompatient by the cer-tificate of a physician, the previous suffring will be removed to the municipal hospital in convey-ances furnished by the Board.

THE CELEBRATION OF OUR VICTORIES .---THE CELEBRATION OF OUR VICTORIES.— The citizens of the Nineteenth ward are making ex-tensive preparations for a proper celebration of the gitcious Fourth, and for the complete triamph of our arms. A fine band of music has been secured to discource popular airs during the day, and at night a grand display of fireworks will take place at the junction of Frankford road and York street, oppo-site the rooms of the National Union Association of the ward, under whose auspices the celebration will take place.
