FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1865. THE CITY.	SHAMEFUL.—Yesterday the citizens were somewhat shocked, and their sympathy deeply excited, upon beholding nearly two hundred and fifty or highest streets, waiting for the year thrench and wainut streets, waiting for the pay dus them. There was fielther awning nor shed to shield them from the sporching rays of a truphed sun. Some of these poor fellows had lost legs, others arms, and others were wounded in their heads and various parts of the body. If such scenes are likely to continue, there are public spirited citizens who will procure an awning to shield the "boys" from such intense heat of the	A vote on the motion to adjourn was taken, and the Ohair decided the motion to be lost. Several gentlemen appealed from the decision of the Ohair. The Ohair decided the motion out of order. He had decided the question. Mr. Stokiny, President, here resumed the chair. Mr. Harrison (U.) hoped that the passage of a bill in the way that the bill which had just been deciared to be passed, had been put through, would not countenanced by the President or by this Chamber. Mr. Wolder (O.) was glad there was one honest member of the Opposition.	PROPOSALS. A SISTANT.
