THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. THE GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY'S OPINION OF IT-AN ADDRESS AT LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, June 29.-Governor Bramlette addressed the citizens of Louisville, this evening, in favor of the constitutional amendment, and advan-tages of free over slave labor in Kentucky. He said slavery has been utterly overthrown, and proved the impossibility of its restoration. He urged the people to proceed to establish a system of free labor, as dictated by wisdom and their interests. He showed by the statistics of the population and the occupation of the lands by slave and non-slaveholders, that the rich lands of the State were in the hands of a class exceedingly small in comparison with the popular masses. He urged the organization of the free white laborers of the State, to take care in future of their own interests. He said the necessity existed for the immediate action of Kentucky in disposing of this versed ques tion of slavery, the progress of events having practi-cally destroyed the institution itself.

He discussed at some length the second section of the amendment, and, with overwhelming power, replied to the objections urged against it, such as that the amendment gives Congress the power to confer the elective franchise upon the emansiated slaves, and thus create social equality He said the second section gives Congress no mor power than now exists under the Constitution, and this second section meant simply that Congress should by appropriation or necessary legislation prohibit slavery or involuntary servitude in the States.

Final Speech of Hon. John A. Bingham. It is to be regretted that the proceedings of the Military Commission were so protracted that the patience of newspaper publishers and readers was' wellnigh exhausted before the delivery of the able and conclusive final speech of Hon. JOHN A. BINGHAM. The gist and substance of the whole protecding is therein presented in a systematic and connected form. Unfortunately, its extreme length has prevented its general publication. We printed, a few days ago, Lis overwhelming argument on the legality of the Commission, in which he completely demolished the positions of Hon. RE-VERDY JOHNSON: and his comments on the evidence, which were summarily disposed of in a short column report of the Of his complicity with Booth, and his Associated Press, fill more than fourteen columns of small type in the Washington Chronicle. The subject was so vast and comprehensive that every word he uttered bore directly upon the case, and every point he made was essential to complete the logical chain of reasoning by which he demonstrated with mathematical precision that the prisoners were guilty in manner and form as they stood indicted; and we deeply regret that thousands who have read the evidence in detached despatches, and who have also perused the arguments presented in behalf of the defendants will have no clear idea of the history of the assassination, as it is truly and justly described and illustrated by Mr. BINGHAM. It will be remembered that the accused are charged with having conspired with " JOHN H. SURATT, JOHN WILKES BOOTH, JEFFERSON DAVIS, GEORGE N. SAUNDERS, BEVERLY TUCKER, JACOB THOMPSON, WILLIAM C. CLEARY, CLE-MENT C. CLAY, GEORGE HOOPER, and GEORGE TOUNG," to murder ABRAHAM LINCOLN, ANDREW JOHNSON, WILLIAM H. SEWARD, and ULYSSES S. GRANT. An essential feature of the subject, therefore, is the complicity of the leader of the rebellion, and his agents in Canada. About one-half of the comments of Mr. Bing-HAM on the evidence are devoted to an explanation of the testimony against these prime mevers of the conspiracy. After quoties the legal authorities which maintain that "it is an established rule that Where several persons are proved to have combined together for the same illegal purpose, any act done by one of the party, in pursuance of the original concerted plan, and in reference to the common object, is in the contemplation of law, as well as in sound reason, the act of the whole party," he proceeds to enumerate the evidences of the guilt of the rebel leaders. In brief, they consist of the following facts: That the Canadian agents were duly accredited BENNETT H. YOUNG to commit arson. rohbery, and murder at St. Albans; and Goo plot of KENNEDY; and by his endorsement of the letter of Lieutenant ALSTON to have cordially received that villain's proposition to undertake the assassination of Union leaders.
