Speer et al., vs. The School Directors, &c., of Indiana county. This case involved the constitutionality of the act of Assembly of April 25, 1884, under the provisions of which loans for large sums of money had been authorized and negotiated by various cities, counties, boronghs, and towns, within the Commonwealth, for the purpose of facilitating the enlistment of volunteers by the payment of bounties; thus enabling these communities to fill their quotes without the necessity of a draft. The question of the constitutionality of this act under which loans to the amount of many mittions of dollars had been made, was first raised in this case and was presented to the Ciourt of Indiana county, by bill in equity, in which the plaintific, who were tax-payers, prayed for an injurision to restrain the defendants from borrowing five thousand dollars in the name and on behalf of the borough of Balreville, to procure volunteer enlistments by paying to each volunteer a bounty of $300, to fill the quotan safigned to the said borough, plaintifi suggesting that the debt of the borough will be greatly increased by the Ioan and their taxes largely augmented. On behalf of the plaintiff, the power of the borough, was denied. The position was, in fact, taken that the Legislature to authorize the municipality of listraville to borrow money and levy taxes for its payment, for the purpose of paying bounties to person enlisting in the military service from that borough, was denied. The position was, in fact, taken that the Legislature, not having the power, the act was unconstitutional and void. Upon hearing, the court below refused the highaction, and diminsed the bill, and the case was brought to the Supremo Count. It was argued before three of the junges during the session of last winter, and was for some time held under advisament; but, they having falled to agree, the case was ordered down for reargument at the next term of the court, they having falled to agree, the case was or interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY ARGE SALE OF GOVERNMENT noks and address arrived in Cleveland from New to each note, which may be out off and sold to any bank York. In the newspaper friences and admirers of Jafferson Davis are still trying to make it appear that Jafferson Davis, when trying to escape from Colonel Pritchard's men, was not dressed in any of his whic's cicthes. The New York World rays the story is "assuredly false." We should like the editor to make the assertion to Brigadier General Pritchard's face. That gentlemen, in the presence of at least a hundred gentlemen of the city, gave a circumstantial account of the capture. He said distinctly that Davis had his wife's water proof cloak around his waist and reaching to his heefs, and that over his head, and covering the upper part of his person, was a black shawl with a red border. The fact that he had not petticoat, or chemise, or crincline on is nothing to the purpose. Probably none that were in the tent would have fitted him. Absecom is an old village on the eastern edge of the sandy soil of New Jersey. The country, north and south, is on rising ground, and in a high state of cultivation. As the cars emerge from a deep out, through a sand-hill, a broad area of green greets the eye, with here and there pools and streams of water studding its become a cliver colors. The rail track here describes more than a semi-circle, and if the weather is clear, a tall, brick light-house, five miles distant, will be seen. This land-mark points out Atlantic City. Here the passenger will experience the difference between inhaling fresh and salt airs, and there will also be felt an agreeable change in the temperature. Within half an hour the trail will reach the city by the sax, where the surf rolls in majesty and power, as creek after creek in snow-white purity, lashes and foams upon the wide-spread beach. PARDON OF KILPATRICK.—Rev. E. W. Hutter yesterday received from Governor Cartin, and delivered at the Moyamensing prison, the Executive pardon of John Kilpatrick, convicted in March, 1888, in the Quarter Sessions of Philadeliphia, of the murder in the first degree, for the hilling was of the trace, the them Governor (Packer) declined to issue the death-warrant, which course was followed up by his successor. Kilpatrick has hence remained in prison ever since—a period of about eight years—in terrible suspense, not knowing what moment the death penalty might be executed. The pardon was obtained through the exmest personal intervention of Rev. E. W. Hutter, of the Lutheran, and Kev. Joseph T. Cooper, of the United Presbyterian Church, backed by the representations of Justice Thomason, of the Supreme Court; W. B. Mann. E.g., the District Attorney; the unanimous recommendation of the Prison Inspectors and Visitors; William J. Mullen. E.g., the Prison Agent; George W. Farr, E.g., his moral instructor; a majority of the jurors that convicted him, and E long list of our most respected and influential citizens. Kilpatrick will be recollected as a drayman. The killing occurred in a street fraces, and was evicently wholly unpremeditated. During his long confinement, Kilpatrick's conduct has been of the most unexceptionable character, and meanwhile he has lost, by death, his wife and a daughter, and two of his sons have served gallantly in the suppression of the rebellion. It is not doubted by any one that hereafter he will "lead a quiet and peaceable life, in all godiness and honesty." THE RELIANCE INSURANCE COMboats.
