BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

New York Tribone Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years; travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribone, at the outbreak of the war, with our armins and facets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape, and shoot mirrendous journey by Right of nearly 490 unites. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work yet published. Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially redurined and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of probliable employment, will find it peenlarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $50 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant. Send for effectings. Address dones, Rifos. & Co., N. E. corner SixTil and Minor Streets.
