The five-nile foot-race for a purse of $1,000, between the Indian Deerfoot, Stevens, and Smith, took place yesterday on the Driving Park course. The announcement of such a race, and the novelty of the affair were sufficient to attract a crowd of people; larger than any which has assembled on these grounds during the season. On this occasion libere could not have been less than two thousand people present; among whom were a large number of ladies. Conspicuous among the assemblage was Major General Ord, accompanied by two of his aids, Brig. Gen. Sweet, and Hon. A. P. McConnell, of Springfield. The day was by no means propitious for the event, as the sky was overclouded during the whole of the performance. However, the dreaded rain did not descend, and the crowd escaped a wetting. The late heavy rains, which have rendered the streets and roads exceedingly maddy, had no effect on the firm, hard track, which was in fine condition, and free from mud. Of course, where so large an attendance was present, there was no lack of interest, and betting set in lively from the start. There seemed to be but little choice on the part of those investing, as none of the men, save Deerfoot, was known. BASE BALL.-For two or three weeks to The Shoddy aristocracy at Saratoga have great difficulty in wearing their unusual advancements. Some of them make most ridiculous work of it—reminding beholders of premium cattle bedecked for agricultural fairs. One unfortunate dunce of oleaginous development actually went through the martyrdom of dressing fifteen times before supper on Tuesday. A young damsel at table in one of the big hotels yesterday "astonished the crowd" by exclaiming, "Lor! mar; Pve dropped my diamond into the gravy!" A vigorous scarch for the lost jewel—a stomacher pin—was made in the kitchen refuse, but unsuccessfully. It is only worth $1,200, and "papa" comes within Toodles' definition of a gentleman. He "don't care a darn." There is a greater crowd at Saratoga now than ever before at this time in the season; but less of real refined gentility.—Albany Journal.

Married by Proxy.—One of the members of the 103d United States Colored Troops was to have been married recently to a blooming colored damsel of Savannah, but just as the arrangements for the nuptilas were nearly completed his regiment was ordered to Fort Pulaski, and the expectant bridegroom had to leave with it. He wrote to his espoused, informing her that he was too good a soldier to stay behind, and that therefore a postponement was unavoidable. Shortly after he sent another letter from the fort, stating that it would probably be a long time before he could attend personally to the matrimonial affair, and the expectant bridegroom had to expectantly to the matrimonial affair, and the personally to the matrimonial affair, and that, on the whole, as the preparations might not keep and should not be wasted, he would delegate his groomsman to represent limin in the ceremony, reserving to himself the right to claim her as his wife when he returned to Savannah. The wedding came off as he suggested.—Savannah Herad.
