DISCHARGED SOLDIERS-A PERMANENT BENEFI-CIAL ASSOCIATION.—On Saturday evening the honorably discharged soldiers held a mass meeting at National Hall, on Market street, meeting at Antonia Iran, on Markersteed, for the purpose of adopting a constitution and by-laws for their government. The attend-ance was pretty large. The Satterlee Brass Band was in attendance, and discoursed most eloquent music. At quarter past eight o'elock, Eergeant William S. Hoster, of the 157th Pennsylvania Volunteers, was called to the chair. Upon entering on his official duties, the President said he hardly knew how to express his thanks for the honor thus conferred upon him by so many of his comrades. In regard to the object of the meeting, he had a few words to say. It was not simply an organiza-tion of pecuniary interest, but one to preserve the bond of union formed upon preserve the bond of union formed upon the battle-field. It is an organization that will require care. We should carefully guard against designing men hereafter who might desire to use us for their own advantage. There are two rocks that we must steer clear of-they are religion and politics. Let us do this, and our association will live as long as the glory that encircles the brow of the soldiers who have fought for and maintained the Union of the National Government. But just as sure as we listen to designing men, either in politics or religion, just that sure we will sink : from that moment we are gone. But let us steer clear of these two principal rocks, and we will have an association that will com-mand respect and influence. With these few remarks, the President said he had the houor to introduce the Hon. John W. Forney. [Tremendous applause.]

Col. Forney spoke as follows: If I were about to set a possible limit to the gratitude that should express a nation's value of such deeds as yours, my conutrymen, I would first invoke a god-like power of An-grage and limitatical. Let me suppose that your efforts had failed. He was present for the pur-pose of manifesting his approval of the plan about to be adopted. It certatuly met his en-tire approbation. Lapplause.] He did not know that he could better entertain the meeting than by brietly giving an account of his stewardship. It is well known that he had been placed in officer of the Go-rernment, he believed it to be his duty to re-gard the claims of the soldier above those of civilians. [Great applause.] He thought if the duty of the soldiers to claim a share of the offices in the city. [Renewed applause.] He would take occasion to say that in the stormy times of the past he had raised regiments upon several occasions. In order to do so, he made an appeal to the men holding positions in the Custom-House, with the exception of fif-teen or 'twenty, were soon in the ranks. Of those not there, some were invalids; others believed in nonresistance, although phy-sically able to shoulder a musket; these non-resistants resigned their position. Col. Thomas further remarked that in all applications for office he gave the competent military man the preference; and he creatly wished he had the power to place every soldier in a good posi-tion. [Rounds of applause.] He was sorry, indeed that his chance of appointing them is imited. He has, he supposes, upwards of a thousand applications on his table from Briga-dier Generals down to privates, all soliciting positions; and, although every man of them is indiced the man. A meeting of the Company was ac-cordingly held, and a committee, of which Mr. R. C. On Saturday afternoon, the return between the above-named clubs was played. Fortune again smiled on the Ashland, they beating the Olympian by nine runs. The game throughout was finely contested. The small scores ob-tained may be attributed to the excellent fielding of both clubs. The bowling was first class, and had the grounds been in better order, more certainty of pitch could have been attained, and enabled the batsman to perance seems to be on the increase. It is a pity that so many young men are making themselves swift candidates to poverty, wretchedness and ruin. They are blasting their prospects by inordinate drinking of spirituous liquors. The system of treating each other, as it is called, is most pernictions, and ought to be stopped. The plan adopted by the Gor-mans in their native land, might be emulated in this country with beneficial effect to pes-terity, as well as those who are at mesent In this country with benchicial effect to pos-terity, as well as those who are at present acting their part on the stage of existence. The system of treating is not popular in Ger-many. The inordinate use of liquor biteth like a screent and stingeth like an adder. A man is as much of a fool to get drunk as he who would thrust his hand into the fire, be-cause the weather may be cold. cause the weather may be cold.

The liquor to be had every day is very much adulterated, some of it poisonous. It eats holes in the liver; incapacitates the drinkers holes in the liver; incapacitates the drinkers from self enjoyment; sets them crazy, forces them to beat their wives; turn their children out of doors; finally commit murder, and end their own lives by suicide or on the gallows. The warning voice from the scaffold in the prison yard, "beware of strong drink," seems to be powerless. Drunkenness, it is contend-ed, is a discase. This assertion has been made time and scain by educated more. Such an time and again by educated men. Such an opinion is absolute nonsense. There is no disease abont drunkenness. It is a serious evil habit that people get into because they like the taste of liquor; and they must be poor, weak-minded creatures indeed, who cannot summon sufficient moral courage to overcome it. There seems to be entirely too much latitude given in the way of licensing people to sell liquor. We counted sizty companies will pass through Jersey City the day before the parade, en route for Phila-delphia. The members of Liberty Engine no less than "eight whisky mills" in full blast, within the scope of only seventeen houses. In some squares there are a dozen of such places, where the bottles of liquid destruction are emptied day and night to the youth of both sex; and this, too, on that great thoroughfare in Chestnut street. There is much work to do. The Hierophant Division has set an example that ought to be followed by others. If the members of that Order should turn their at-tention to the erection of a House of Correction, to be governed by stringent laws, a salu-tary reform would soon be apparent. That would be a capital place for these "poor erring" brethren and sisters, who have the "rum disease."

FELL DEAD.-About eight o'clock on Sunday morning a man fell dead at Second and Laurel streets. The body was conveyed to the Seventeenth-ward station-house, where it was subsequently identified as that of G. D. Clarke. The remains were afterwards taken to the residence of William K. Morton, No. 1138 Crease street.

FIRE IN WEST PHILADELPHIA.-About seven o'clock, last evening, a fire broke out in the hav-mow of the West-Philadelphia Pasthe hay-mow of the west-rinhadelping ras-senger Railway Company. The flames were very stubborn, but, the building being fre-proof, they were prevented from spreading. The horses and cars are all safe. It is not exactly known how the fire originated.

SUPPOSED TO BE STOLEN.-An owner iswanted for two boxes, at the Ninth-ward station-heuse, which are supposed to have been stolen. One is marked "Joseph Pyle, West Grove, Chester county," and the other "Wm. Johnson, Lancaster, Pa.," and contains insula-tors. The contents of the former are unknown.

Edward Nixon and John Corron were ar-raigned, on Saturflay, on the charge of assault and battery with inteat to kill, and with car-rying concealed deadly weapons. The eri-dence developed the facts that on Friday even-ing, between file and ten o'clock, a young man named Martin was walking with his sister, and two other young ladies, at Fair-mount. It is alleged that one of the prisoners put his hand over the mouth of one of the young ladies, and tried to throw her down. Martin struck the fellow, and knocked him down. The latter pulled out a pistoi and at tempted to shoot the former, but the cap snapped. The pollee were called, and the two assaliants ran into one of the wheel-kouses, in order to escape, but they were ferreted out by Officers Hornkeith and Orr. They were bound over in the sum of $1,000 to answer at court. AN INTERESTING CASE.

AN INTERESTING CASE. On Saturday morning an interesting Case came up on a writ of habeas corpus in the Court of Quarter Sessions, of which the follow-ingare the particulars: A Mr. Peyssant charged William Eich with assault and battery and highway robbery. The case came up before his Honor, Judge Ludlow. As usual, Mr. Peyssant was required to rehearse his story in order that the Judge might decide whether the original binding över was justified by the testimony. According to Mr. Peyssant's story, he was walking with a young lady at nine o'clock on the evening of the 4th of July last, when Mr. Eich approached him and struck him a violent blow between the eyes. This staggered him, and he tell against the house. In the course of the struggle he received a severe wound in the arm, but whether by the fall or by an instrument in Mr. Rich's posses-sion he could not tell. This was the assault and battery with intent to kill. The highway robbery consisted in taking an umbrella be-longing to the young lady. — This was the whole of Mr. Peyssant's story. He gare an explanation for the strack, and the inference from his testimony was that he knew of no reason for what he termed an un-provoled attack. — But Mr. Rich a lawyer who brought out

He gave an explanation for the attack, and the inference from his testimony was that he knew of no reason for what he termed an un-provoked attack. But Mr. Rich had a lawyer who brought out the whole truth on cross-examination. In this examination, Mr. Peyssantacknowledged that his wife was with Mr. Rich, but he objected to tell much about the young lady he was with, and appealed to the Judge to know whether that had anything to do with the case. He gained no sympathy from Judge Ludlow, and was obliged to tell where the young lady re-sided. Then came the secret of the attack. Question, Was this young lady with you at-tacked? Answer. Yes, sir. Question. By whom? Answer. Both by the man and Mrs. Peyssant. Question. By whom? Answer. Both by the man and Mrs. Peyssant. Question. Didn't you strike your wife? Answer. Not didn't knock her down? Answer. No. Miss Anna Hadley, the young lady with Mr. Peyssant, was next examined. She testi-fied that she was walking with Mr. Peyssant-when a woman came up behind her and took hold of her and choked her, and ther hore her collar off ; next, she tore her bonnet off ; wit-ness made a noise, whereupon Mr. Peyssant turned around to see what was the matter; Mr. Rich then came up and attacked him. Cross-examined.—I had hold of Mr. Peys-sant's arm; Mrs. Peyssant came up behind me and hissed in my ear, "You...-;" I don't know where she lives; I don't know that she attends store for Mr. Rich and lives with his wife ; don't know that she has lived there ever since her hunsband left her and ince her husband left her. Question. Don't you know that she has lived there was a technical case of assault and lived with you? Answer. At is the first I knew that he lived with me! This is the third time she has at-tacked me. This closed the case. The counsel for Mr. Rich asked for his discharge. Judge Ludlow said there was a technical case of assault and battery, but he would reduce the bail to $500. THEE COURTS.

pose. Satisfied as to the future of our coun-try, it becomes us next to consider how to pro-vide for those who have saved it. There is no question more interesting and more impera-tive in its demand upon the statesman and the philanthropist. The victorious defenders of the republic, now nearly all at their homes, are not the objects of charity, but of gene-rosity and of gratitude. Many thousands have gone back to the profitable avocations they left at the time they envised. Many have been sought out by the Government and com-fortably provided for. Benevolent socileties and patriotic bodies, and liberal and wealthy individuals, have done and are doing much to alleviate the sufferings and to meet the expec-tations of others. But the field for effort and for assistance is still very wide. How wide it is, and how much there is for us to do, you may understand when I tell you that, in the eight calls for troops by the President of the United States, beginning with April 15, 1851, and ending with December, 1864, how milded by vountary envistment and by other methods. Of this number, Pennsylvania contributed three hundred thousand near were asked for to pud down the rebelion, and were naked for to pud down the rebelion, and with done by vo-luntary and organized effort, much remains been greatly and necessarily reduced. The work given to soldiers' wives at our Govern-ment institutions, such as the Arsenal, has been greatly and necessarily reduced. The suitary and Cheisting account of their un-laralleled labors. If we only consider the claims of those who are partially depend-cit, or not able to work at all, we shall be startled at the torice of this remark: We find that there are now on file in the Pension Ba-reau 104,600 widows applications for pensions, and cspecially those men belonging to the veteran Reserve Corps, who nearly all expect to be pensioned. These facts are eloquent appeals to the patriotic and generous. They cannot be

and especially those men belonging to the Veteran Reserve Corps, who nearly all expect These facts are eloquent appeals to the patriotic and generous. They cannot be inade stronger by additional figures. But where is the remedy 1 Let me be trank when 1 say that I do not think the Government call therefore, it becomes impor-tant that our Government should encourage equalization of the bounties, which you much beyond what it has already done. Even in the equalization of the bounties, which you resolutions demand with somuch force, it may be difficult to scente favorable legislation, in the equalization of its patronage the view of the vastness of the public debt, and the magnitude of the public debt, and the magnitude of the public debt, soffice to his more deserving gallant fellow titizen. And I am giad to note, and to honor him in noting, that Andrew Johnson has acted upon this policy, and has directed its ob servance in the Departments of the Govern-ment whenever opportunity or oceasion serves. Apart from the gratitude that should make this exhibition spontaneous, the poli-tician will find it to his interest to discrimi-nate in favor of the soldiers in making nomi-nations for offices of trues or emolument. Let us look at the figures. There are over 650,000 voters in this State-and it is a low estimate tract of the $200,000 mean sant from Pennylvaria to the $200,000 mean sant from Pennylvaria

Major General 'Collis was loudly called for, and spoke in substance as follows: SonDERNS: As I understand it, you are called together to-night for two Purposcos. First, to impress your fellow-citizens with the import-ance of providing employment for the thou-sands of returned soldiers; and second, to adopt measures to secure for the volunteers of 'd and '22 the same Government bounties paid to those of 'd3, '4, and '5. My own opinion is that the first, at the pre-sent time, is the most important, for the ques-tion of bounties will, at best, have to be sub-mitted to a tedlous course of legislation. I believe the subject of employing our re-turned soldiers is the great question of the day. It should occupy the attention of our states-men, and to our capitalists it should present itself as a great question of political econo-my. You men, who bore your muskets in the Umpires, Messrs. H. CHURCH BADLY DAMAGED.-About nine o'clock Saturday morning the roof of St. George's M. E. Church, on Fourth street, near New, was discovered to be on fire. The roof was old and dry, and burned furiously, emitting dense olumes of black smoke. A number of steam. ers were promptly on the ground, but the fames being mostly between the ceiling and the roof could not be easily reached. It was ntirely destroyed, the only thing remaining being a few charred beams. It is supposed to ave taken fire from a spark from a neigh boring chimney. The church was quite old, having been built

The Od World is amazed that a people un-used to war can enlist, organize, and drill a million of men for the field in a few months-amazed that we can subdue a rebellion cover-ing an area of thousands of miles, and sus-tained by a force almost as large as our own; but more than amazed to hear that we have disbanded our million and a half of men in two months, and sent them back to their homes. Let us continue to cater to their astonishment, and send word to them that our returned he-rocs are all at work; that our one-armed men are carning their sixty dollars a month, ren-dering good service to their city. State, or Na-tional Government, in Some civil cipacity; that our sheriffs and prothonotaries and clerks go to and from their offices upon their crutches. Tell them this, and ask them whe-ther it is true that republics are ungrateful. To gain these objects, it is essential that you soldiers should work together in solid column. Let your influence be feit. State your claims respectfully, but firmly. But, above all, keep toguther; for 1 tell you there are breakers ahead yet, and no class is more interested in stemming the flood from the South, which threatens to inundate us, than you soldiers. Take care that these very people whom you have been fighting, do not come to Washing-ton, and, brushing aside the Union soldiers relams with one hand, present with the other their the traitors at the North, whom also you have been fightings uside the Union soldiers relams with one hand, present with the other their pension list for the wounded sons of the South ! Cries of "Never! Never!] Take care that they do not come to Washington, and tell the Sceretary of the Treasury that the eight greenbacks he pays to the widow of the dead patriot are worthless unless the millions of Southern bonds are honored by the General Government. COLLISION ON THE DELAWARE .-- Last evening the steam ferry-boat Mary run down a small boat containing two men, and it was thought both were drowned. The boat at-tempted to cross the bow of the steamer.

BIG THURSDAY .- Next Thursday, the celebration of "Big Thursday" will take place on the shores of the Delaware Bay, Delaware side. These annual celebrations are decidedly interesting. A BOAT RACE .- A boat race for small skiffs, carrying thirty yards of canvas each, will take place this morning. The craft will leave a wharf in the old Kensington district.

FOUND DROWNED .- Jane Hall, a married woman, who resided in the vicinity of the Falls of Schuylkill, was found drowned in the river near that place on Friday evening.

THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.]

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.] ALLEGED STUPENDOUS SWINDLE. Hishell Michael, a tailor, was charged with having made away with a large amount of cloths. From the evidence, it appeared that his plan of operations was to represent him-self to be engaged in the tailoring business, and obtain large quantifies of material to be made up into clothing. This he would sell or pawn, and pocket the proceeds. A watch was set and the matter entrusted to Detective Callinan, who went to New York and recovered the entire lot of stolen goods. It appears that' Michael is an accomplice of Lewis Levi, who was committed a short time since for a similar offence, and that the pair of a departure to New Orleans. It is not improbable that the contemplated trip will be postponed. A further hearing will be had in the case to-day, to which time the accused was held in $5,000 bail. Among the suffarers by the operations of this chevalier dividuatrie are the firms of Nunces, Stern & Bro, Siegel, Schloss & Bro, and Newberger & Hockstadter. All other parties who have het goods to H. Michael or Lewis Levi to be made up, and have not received the same, are requested to be present at the bearing this afternoon. ANOTHER BOUNTY MONEY TRANSACTION.

SLIGHT FIRES.—On Sunday morning, a slight fire occurred in a shoc store in Christian of $200 was incurred before the flames were subdued. Another fire occurred at No. 808 Race street, which was extinguished before serious damage was done. The roof of the dwelling, No. 130 Union street, was slightly damaged by fire, on Sun-day afternoon.
