auls-ct. By A. D. Richardson, New York Tribune Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for Sur years, travelling through the Sould in the secret service of the Tribune, at the Sould in the secret service of the Tribune, at the Gulbreak of the war, with our awnies and flects, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four hundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work published.

Teachers, ladles, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $175 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant.
