To the Loyal Union Press of the State and Country-Soldiers' and Sallors' Home.

Our nation has just emerged from one of the most fearful and terrible rebellions which the history of the world has ever recorded. In the suppression of that rebellion the loyal press of the country has rendered incalculable aid to the Government, and deserves the warm-est thanks and gratituide of a grateful people. Knowing how faithfully that press has stood by the nation in the dark and trying hours of the rebellion, we appeal to it, in all conddence, that it will lead its powerful aid now in behalf of the "brave herces of a hundred battles," and the orphans of theose who have so nobly died in deface of the reset was not been appeal to the loyal men and women of the land, in behalf of the "Fairs row THESOLDIERS are Sarrozs' Home." to be opened in the Aca-demy of Music, Philadelphia, on the 231 day of october. Some of the lady managers of the "Home" frates for the last two or tiltere months in re-ference to this Fair, and we shall have contri-butions from every familet, town, and city in the State, and every county in Fennsylvania will be represented by a table, managed and counties. Not only this, but there will be con-ributions from other States, and some of those States will be represented by tables over which will preside some of the patriotic and benerolent citizens of those States. The expectation is that the fair will be one of ex-traordinary interest, and its pecuniary pro-duct will be a munifiem sum.
