THE PRESS.-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1865.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1865.

We have recently been so bothered by persons requesting the return of rejected articles, that we again state, and for the last time. that we take no notice of such requests.

THE SOUTHERN METHODISTS.

It was, we fear, an ill-natured fellow who said there would be no trouble in restoring friendly relations between the people of the North and the South if the Southern preachers and editors would consent to be guided by Christian and common-sense counsels. So far as the Southern newspaper men are concerned, we gladly except them from the charge, in view of the more cordial and conciliatory spirit that is beginning to tranquilize and brighten their columns. We wish we could say the same of the Southern clergy. But it is a painful fact that those who should be foremost in the work of peace and reconciliation are in too many cases foremost only in violent protests against and rearmost of all who advocate reunion. The ripest statesmen of the South-the men who reflected honor upon the old Whig and Democratic organizations-Millson, Botts, Summers, Lyons, of Virginia; ORR and PERRY, of South Carolina ; GEVER and SHARKEY, of Mississippi; JOHNSON and HILL, of Georgia: RoseLius and HAHN, of Louisiana ; HoL-DEN and DICK, of North Carolina, and men of equal note elsewhere-having, one would suppose, more of prejudice to give up and of record to remember than all the preachers between the Potomac and the Gulf-voluntarily offer their services in the good work, and labor with zeal and fidelity to bring the people back to their allegiance. The pastoral letter of the Southern Methodist Bishop, which has just made its appearance, a specimen of which will be found in our Religious Department, is a black contrast to the manly conduct of the Southern politicians. It is certainly not an agreeable reflection to the natriotic men North and South, who are laboring to bring peace to a recently distracted people, to find such a spirit among those who claim to be the followers of Him who proclaimed "Peace on earth and good will among men." We think Brother GREE-LEY's remedy in yesterday's Tribune the only one left :

"The Methodist Episcopal Church will now extend its organization into all the Southern States, annex, in the course of time, all the ne-gro congregations, organize the Northern im-migrants and the Southern converts to anti-clocor winking and organize the Northern inslavery principles, and gradually cover with its Church the territory which the pro-slavery Southern Church still attempts to dispute. The ultimate issue of such a contest cannot be

FIFTY YEARS' IMMIGRATION.

The Emigration Commissioners of Eng. land lately issued their twenty-fifth general report, which is unusually interesting, because it gives the statistics of half a century's exedus from the British Islands. It will be remembered that the constant policy of England ever since the downfall of NA-FOLEON, has been to get rid of the men, women and children whom it calls "the surplus population." With us, the policy of increasing our population, by immigration from all countries, has prevailed. In Europe, there are more mouths than foodin the United States, we could accommodate the whole population of Europe, and still have room, and land, and food for The following abstract of a speech de-livered in the Mississippi Constitutional JANADA VS. port, and our whole county will soon be firmly united: Hon A. R. Johnston said he would offer only a few of the many potent reasons which should induce him to vote against the proviso. He would first review briefly the condition of the State, and then proceeded to draw an elo-quent picture of the desolation and ravages of four years of war, the discouragement of the people, and the necessity of restoring civil government, in order that they might again set industriously to work to rebuild the ruins about them, and enjoy plenty and content-ment, as of old. We are now subject to an arbitrary military rule; the tramp of armed men is still heard in all our streets; the glitter of the bayonet still fashes in our eyes, and seek to disguise it or evade it as we will, we are essentially in the position of a conquered province—a military dependency. This is something we could not help, and he thought there should be no humiliation and degrada-tion in acknowledging it. It detracts nothing from our manhood and self-respect to ac-knowledge this, to face the stern facts, and endearor to mitigate our condition as best we may. We may rest assured, too, that until we give proper evidences of our sincere repen-tunee, by amending our Constitution and haking laws to proteet and secure the freed-man in his rights, we will be trodden down lower and lower; we will be twodden day our streets, and at last the odious and disgust-insults; the negro troops will be multipled in our streets, and at last the odious and disgust-ing doctrine of negro suffrage will be thrust upon us. Let us make every effort in our power to remove from us every vestige of the unhappy and unfortunate war which had desolated us, to restore the blessed days of pence, when the harsh notes of the reveille shall no more break upon our ears, and when we shall no longer be subjected to insult upon our bartets. Public Amusements. This evening Mr. J. S. Clarke plays for the ast time, for several weeks, at his own Walnut-street Theatre, being under engagement to appear as a "star," in New York, on Mon-

TOTORS-THE SCORS.

At the Chestnut-street Theatre, Miss Reignolds has played herself into the good opinion of a great number of very critical play-goers. She is as good a comedicante as we have seen for many years; well-looking, intellectual, per-fectly mistress of all the arts of her profession which, in their accumulative operation, go far to produce the perfection of acting, and gifted with naturally graceful action, a charming voice, and a silvery laugh. On Monday, she appears in a new sensation drama. The regular autumn and winter season of Mrs. Drew's Arch-street Theatre will open this evening. This theatre wanted very little done to it, one would have thought, but Mr. C. lawthorne has painted an entirely new scene, which will be discovered at the opening of "The School for Scandal;" a superb velvet carpet has been provided, and almost everything behind the curtain has been renovated or replaced. It is Mrs. Drew's ambition, es it was the ambitio of Madame Vestris in her management of various London theatres, to show her respect

THE INTERNATIONAL CRICKET ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ROYAL FIRE AND LIPE INSURANCE COMPANY OF LIVEBPOOL.—This report, which was submitted at the annual eeting of stockholders, on the 4th of August contains many facts of interest to a community in which one of the largest agencies of this great Company is doing a successful busiand confidence enjoyed by the Royal Insurance lompany, rest on a good and sound founda-We learn from the report that as regards expansion, the operations of the year have been in point of fact, more than usually successful The premiums received in the year 1863 were £341,668; the premiums of 1861 amounted to £406,404, showing an increase of £64,736; the largest advance the Company has made in any single year since its establishment. The returns of duty paid to government, ordered to be printed by the House of Com-mons, on the motion of the chairman of this Company, exhibit a like result.

Of the financial condition of the Company the appendix to the Managers' report gives the following most satisfactory statements: The progress of the Fire Revenue, which, rom its almost unexampled rapidity, forms one of the main features, if not the most remarkable one, in the career of this establish. ment, has been laid before the public, in va-rious shapes, from time to time. It will now suffice to give the following statement, show-

Since 1814, the numbers who have left the British Islands for other countries amount to 5,691,709, of whom 3,450,531 went to the United States; 1,252,554 to British North America, and 867.802 to the Australasian colonies. The emigration to the United States, therefore, has been about thrice as numerous as to British North America. It is said that this excess has arisen only in the last twenty years-principally since the Irish famine of 1847. After that terrible infliction, at first, there was a tendency on the part of the Irish to proceed to Canada, but the authorities there being unable to provide employment and subsistence for them, many crossed to and settled in the United States. The stream once diverted to this country, has continued in the same channel. Those who first arrived sent funds to enable their friends and relations to follow them. It was stated on authority, before the civil war began, that "the Biddies" (whom some ill-mannered people snear at) regularly sent five million dollars per annum, between 1850 and 1860, saved out of their wages, to bring to this country the loved relations whom poverty had compelled them to leave behind. Those who flaunt in silks and satins, in velvets and furs, and greatly expand in crinolines and balmorals, might learn self-denial and generosity from the Irish servants who wait upon their wants or their caprices.

THE SO-CALLED DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS abound with earnest professions of regard for "State rights" and denunciations of military commissions. The practical meaning of the first of these declarations, as applied to the present position of national affairs, is, that they wish the slave States to be permitted to re-establish slavery under some new name, so that the negroes may be as much oppressed hereafter as before the war; and of the second, that they wish swindling contractors, conspirators, and the wretches who condemned our unfortunate prisoners to the fatal tortures of Andersonville and Libby to escape unwhipt of justice. They heap condemnation upon the men who rescued the nation from traitorous attacks, and reserve an abundance of sympathy for the Secessionists who commenced the war. They delight in prating of the Constitution as an instrument that incidentally confers certain sacred privileges upon all its faithful citizens, and for the enforcement of a clause that they think might shield JEFFERSON DAVIS OF WIRZ they make a loud outcry, but they are full of virtuous indignation against the men whose patriotic exertions saved the Constitution as a whole for the benefit of a great people, and rescued the Government from a fearful and gigantic assault.

THE RECENT address of Rev. Dr. PAL-MER, to his congregation in New Orleans, will probably exercise a wholesome effect upon many of the members of the Old School Presbyterian Church South, of which he is one of the most able and influential ministers. He frankly confesses that he, in common with his flock, sinned grievously in warring against the Governvaluable information : ment of the United States, and that their numerous sufferings were a merited chastisement which should ensure sincere repentance, and an earnest resolution to be true and loyal citizens hereafter. We rejoice in such outspoken words of contrition, not because we desire the humiliation of the South, but on account of the evidence they afford of a wholesome reaction in Southern sentiment. The people of the North will gladly welcome all "prodigal sons" who prove truly repentant.

Now, what was domained of them that they might secure this, so great a boont The Presi-dent hald told them he had told the South be expected; he now earnesity believed Presi-dent Johnson was the friend of the South and wished them well, and, though he had always been opposed to him in politics, he intended to give him his itearry support. Now, it was been opposed to him in politics, he intended to give him his itearry support. Now, it was often to free Constitution; and, with all due deference ite those who thought otherwise, the good effect of this formit desymmet do to be acceptable at Washington, was to pro-sent a free Constitution; and, with all due deference ite those who thought otherwise, iteaged effect of this formit and preambler work with any extraneous language. If they did as he advised, he was certain, moral-ly diricity of the second state of the matter just as its. If we adopt this provise, then we, a conquered, vanquished people. Uttery highes before the victors, say to matter just as its. If we adopt this provise, then we, a conquered, vanquished people they did as he advised the was certain, moral-by derived with any people the victors, asy to the provide the victors, asy to the provide at a sits. If we adopt this provise, then we have friends there—will be discouraged and disguide with us; the President's "ex-ipterment" will be considered a failure, and "we have friends there—will be discouraged and disguide, who we shall not return inder the vessel and we will be dirren away from Washington, and we will be dirren away from Washing about compensation and about the windt as first will be considered a failure, and such generous offers a heretolore, Then the radicals of the North will have the occusion agains with us; that they will do such a thing, if we first give them the mirrors and handsome furniture, and the dressing-rooms of the performers have all been neatly retitted. Mr. William A. Moore, who held a similar situation at Niblo's Garden for many years, and joined this theatre towards the close of last season, con nues as stage manager, and Mr. Joseph D Murphy, so long known to the public as Mrs. rew's business agent and treasurer, will be bund at his post during the coming season. Mr. Charles R. Dodworth continues musical irector, with a good orchestra. During the first thirteen nights there will be thirteen per first thirteen nights there will be thirteen per-formances of standard and sterling comedy, in each of which Mrs. Drew will assist, and no play will be repeated. This evening "The School for Scandal" will be performed— Mrs. Drew as Lady Teazle, one of her most brilliant personations. Mr. F. F. Mackay (Sir Peter Teazle), and Mr. McKee Rankin (Chredes Surface) beye nover before played in Charles Surface), have never before played in Philadelphia. Mrs. C. Henri has come back, as Mrs. Candour; Mr. E. L. Tilton will be the Joseph Surface (let us hope that he will dress and play the character, to show us a finelymannered gentleman, not without hypocrisy), and Mr. Stuart Robson and Mr. Owen Marlowe very popular members of last year's company, will respectively play the parts of Crabiree and Sir Benjamin Backbile. It is an excellent cast. New American Theatre.—This theatre which is rapidly becoming the "Bowery" of Philadelphia, is nightly crowded. This after-noon and evening will be performed, by re-quest, "The Cigar Girl of Cuba," followed by a ballet, in which M'lle Annetti Gelletti appears. On Monday evening Miss Kate Fisher. questrienne actress, makes her first appear ance at this theatre, as Mazeppa, in the play of that name. THE SIAMESE TWINS .- After to-day the Siam-ese twins leave Philadelphia, and it may be long before they again visit our city. Their visit here has, doubtless, been a profitable one, though we are sure it would have been much norc so, had they secured a hall on Chestnut or Walnut street. They are at the "Philadel hia Museum," No. 833 Market street.

EXCURSION TO LONG BRANCH .- By reference to another column, it will be noticed that Mr. L. B. Cole, the gentlemanly agent of the B. 5. Cole, the generative lay again of the Raritan and Delaware Bay Railroad, at Camden, will give a grand excursion to Long Branch on Saturday next. A fine oppor-tunity is here presented for persons desirous of spending two nights and a day at this beautiful seaside resort without encroaching-upon their business hours. Excursionists leave the depot at the Vine-street ferry, Camden, at two o'clock P. M. Returning, ar rives in Philadelphia at nine A. M., Monday morning. The fare for the round trip is only wo dollars.

> A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR OF THE OLEAN "TIMES."-The following was yesterday re-ceived by an eminent doctor of this city:

Ceived by an eminent doctor of this city: OLEAN, N. Y., August 30, 1865. DEAR SIR: Yours, inquiring concerning the reported return of Scrgeant Humiston, is re-ceived. There is no truth in the report of his return. The statements published in this pa-per, and simultaneously in the Chica Patrici, were based upon the then current, apparently reliable, and generally credited report that he had returned. The next issue of the Times cor-rected the rumor, and I immediately wrote to the New York Tribune, requesting it to correct it riso; and I have done all in my power to set the matter right before the public. The story was the invention of some mischievous persons, and without any foundation in fact, Respectfully, C. F. DICKINSON. IN RESPONSE to the following invitation, Hon. WILLIAM GILPIN, recently Governor of Colorado, will deliver an address at the valuable information : PHILADELPHIA, August 28, 1865. Hon. William Gilpin: DEAR SIR: A number of your friends and fellow-citizensin Philadelphia, who still claim you as a Pennsylvanian, on account of your education and residence here, and who have work which led to the development of that Western empire so full of incalculable value to the Government, and of such unparalleled promise as to be attracting to its great basins and rich mines a tide of unceasing emigration, have the honor to invite you to speak to them of the Mining System of the Rocky Mountains. Learning that it is your attention to leave in a few days for Colorado, of which you were the efficient Governor during a portion of Mr. Lincoln's Administration, we have fixed Satur-day evening, the second of September, and the Boord of Trade Rooms as the place. Awaiting a reply, we remain, &c. P. H. Warren, G. J. Hoffman, Samuel Simes, White D.
