MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1865. THE CITY. THE CITY.

THE WHITE STAR UNION.—On Saturalay last, at 10 A. M., the "White Star Union" held their first annual meeting, at the National Guards' Hall. The President, Major General Geary, was absent, being detained as a member of the Military Commission, trying Wirz, in Washington. General Burnum, the Vice-President, from New York, was called to the chair, and presided throughout. Although, as was expected, the attendance at this meeting was not very large, yet it was a very spirited and happy occasion, and the foundation was laid for future meetings and operations on a large scale. An amendment to the constitution, admitting enlisted men to membership, was adopted. During the session, the Association was addressed by Vice-President Burnum, General Mindil, of the Executive Committee, Secretary Forbes, and others. Late in the day the Association adjourned, after resolving to meet in special session, in this city, on the 2th of November next, which day is the anniversary of the battle of Lookout Mountain, where the "white star" shone above the clouds, the division flag bearing that emblem, being the first unfurled from the captured summit.

For this meeting in Philadelphia, on the 2th November, the most extensive arrangements will be made. An oration will be delivered by a distinguished orator, and an entertainment provided in the evening for the members and their guests. A special committee of Philadelphians, with General Mindil as chairman, have the arrangements for the occasion in hand. A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS. -John Cloden, aged twenty years, had his hand badly injured, by being caught in the machinery at Wilkins' woollen mill, Front and Dlamond wilkins' woollen mill, Front and Dlamond streets, on Saturday afternoon.

On Saturday morning, shortly before five o'clock, Mr. J. J. Dutton, accompanied by his daughter Sophia, thirteen years of age, was driving his horses and wagon across the railroad track, on the Gray's Ferry road, above Washington street, in the Twenty-sixth ward. Arriving at Gray's Ferry road, above Washington street, where the Pennsylvania railroad crosses, a train of care same along, which Mr. Dutton did not perceive in time to avoid a collision. The wagon was struck and completely wrecked. Mr. Dutton and the horses escaped uninjured, but the little girl, Sophia, was instantly killed. Her body, on examination, revealed neither bruise nor scratch, and it is said that there is no watchman at this intersection, and that the locomotive whistie was not blown, nor the bell rung. The sad affair will be investigated by the coroner.

On Friday afternoon two of the workmen engaged in repairing the bridge of the West Choster and Media Railroad, at Wallingford, were instantly killed by having two of the beams of the bridge fall upon them.

James Norton, residing at No. 1155 South Tenth street, fell from a chair, on Saturday morning, near Eighth and Vine streets, and fractured his leg. He was standing on the chair at the time, and it was accidentally overturned.

Charles Evans, a conductor employed on the char at the time, and a vivide turned.
Charles Evans, a conductor employed on the Norristown Railroad, was jammed between cars at Manyunk and severely injured. He was taken to his residence at Norristown. FIREMEN'S ITEMS.—The Niagara Hose Company will house a new hose carriage to-day. It is an elegant one, the prevailing color being white, striped with gold and earmine. In front, between the bells, is an oil painting of "America." On the side badges is a painting of an Indian sitting on a bank, with the Falls of Niagara in the distance.

The Robert Morris Hose Company has also a new carriage. It is built in the most substantial manner, with all the modern improvements. The body and running gear is painted green, picked in with gold. The side badges are of solid sliver, with the figures "19" raised in gold.

The hose carriage built for the Northern Liberties Association of Washington will be on exhibition to-day in the house of the Fairmount Steam Fire Engine Company, Ridge avenue, above Wood. The Northern Liberties will participate in the October parade.

The Good Intent Hose starts for Pittsburg next Monday. A New Telegraph Company.—The Bankers' and Brokers' Telegraph Company, No. 37 South Third street, aunounce in another column the completion of their new lines to New York, Baltimore, Washington, Boston, Springfield, Portland, and intermediate points. These lines will be rapidly extended South and West. The company have employed the most skillful engineers in the construction of their lines, which are of the best material, and on an entirely new principle of insulation, which will insure the prompt and instantaneous transmission of business in all kinds of weather. The practical working of these lines has been placed in charge of able and experienced electricians, who will use every means to keep them constantly in perfect working order. Mr. J. W. Dyer is manager. A NEW TELEGRAPH COMPANY.—The FREEMASONS.—The Masonic temple in Chestnut street, above Seventh, which has been altered, improved, and beautified during the last few weeks, so that it is now the most splendid and convenient edifice of the sort in the world, will be reopened this evening. A stated quarterly meeting of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania will then be opened and held, more natiorum, with the usual ceremonials and religious rites. The Grand Master is Mr. Lucius H. Scott; with John L. Goddard, Doputy G. M.; Hon. Richard Vaux, Senior Grand Warden; Peter Williamson, Grand Treasurer, and William H. Adams, Grand Secretary. LINCOLN MONUMENT FUND.-The following sums have been received by James L. Claghorn, Treasurer of the Lincoln Monu-ment Association at the office, 921 Chestnut treet: Jnion Men of Marcus Hook per Rev. W. RESIGNATION .- Mr. Frank Erdman, one At the most experienced and attentive opera-tors of the Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph, has resigned that position and accepted that of operator of the Bankers' and Brokers' Tele-graph line, which begins business this morn-ing. Mr. Erdman retires with the best wishes of all with whom he was connected, and espe-cially with the newspaper fraternity, with whom he was often brought in contact. SHOOTING CASE.—At an early hour yesterday morning William Edwards, twenty-three years of age, was shot in the head by Thomas Fleming, at a tayern at Seventeenth and Bedford streets. A dispute rose about liquor, with the result mentioned. The wounded man was taken to the hospital. JUNIORS VS. SENIORS.—A convention of members of the Junior Base-Ball Club was held on Saturday evening. A motion prevailed that three delegates be elected by each club to a convention to concert action so as to prevent members of senior clubs taking part in any of the games of the Juniors. OPENING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- The public schools begin their regular sessions to-day. If this fact be not a pleasing one to the boys and girls, it is to many anxious parents. If the weather continues as hot as it has been the past two or three days there will be little inclination to study. FIRES. -An alarm of fire was occasioned, about three o'clock on Saturday morning, by the burning of bed clothes at a house on Mur-ray street, above Twentieth.

The alarm at four o'clock on Saturday morn-ing was caused by the burning of rubbish at Johnson's ink factory, Tenth, below Lombard. No More Music at the Park.—The music has been withdrawn from Fairmount. Park, the last day of summer, to which time the music was engaged, having arrived and denarted. RELEASE OF CHAS. E. CLARK.—Charles E. Clark, alleged defaulting teller of the Com-mercial Bank, has been released from confine-ment, bail having been entered and accepted. CAPTURED CANINES.—Seventy-six dogs were killed, by order of the proper authorities, last week. Minety-live were captured, pineteen redeemed, RETURNING REGIMENTS .- The 55th and 74th Regiments, P. V., have reached Harrisburg, and are waiting to be mustered out. TROTTING .- A match will come off this ANOTHER BASE-BALL CLUB.—The "Quaker City" is the name of another base-ball club recently organized in our city. THE POLICE. [Before Mr. Alderman Tittermary.]

* niveclars caught in the act.

John O'Brian and James Callahan were arraigned yesterday morning at the old Southwark Hall, on the charge of burglariously entering a dwelling-house, located near Eighth and Emeline streets, Fourth ward, on Saturday night. The family were absent at the time. The burglars were arrested by three of Frank Hampton's men, Messrs. Maxwell, McCullin, and Cooper. The burglars had forced their way into the house, and while they were busily engaged in ransacking the several apartments and packing up things of value to be carried away, the officers quietly surprised them, and thus the nefarious designs of the despollers were frustrated. The prisoners were committed to answer.

BLOODY FIGHTS. [Before Mr. Alderman Tittermary.] BLOODY FIGHTS,

There seems to have been an unusual number of fights in certain localities of the city at late hours on Saturday night or early hours yesterday morning. One of an exceedingly sanguinary character took place in the vicinity of Third and Monroe streets, during which several belligerents were severely cut about their heads. Yesterday morning, drops of blood could be traced from the scene of disorder to the Southwark Hall. The police, after more than ordinary trouble, succeeded in locking up a number of the fighters. In the more southern part of the city several men beat their wives, and the residents were appalled by cries of murder and the screams of women and chidren. Bad whisky was the principal agent in these scenes of turbulence. It did and will continue to do its shocking work until moral reformation shall take place. BLOODY FIGHTS.

bonnets, shawls, silver ware, &c. Nothing was heard of the thieves nor of any of the stolen goods, until by mere accident. It seems that Mrs. Taylor stopped at a little shop on west Market street, on Saturday morning, for the Murpose of purchasing some candy for the children. A woman stepped in also, and offered a bonnet for sale. She told a somewhat plausible tale of poverty, distress, &c., but she tecame apparently astounded, when Mrs. T. chaimed the bonnet as belonging to one of her children. The imposter was at once handed into the custody of a police officer, when she burst out crying, and told the officer that she had obtained the bonnet from a somewhat notorious female known as Martha Purple. The prisoner gave the name of Elizabeth Ross. She was locked up, and the officer proceeded to ferret out Mrs. Purple, and some time on Friday night he succeeded in finding her. She was arraigned at the Central Station on Saturday afternoon, and some evidence was obtained that Mrs. Ross was simply a victim of Mrs. Purple, and that the lad received, with guilty knowledge, goods stolen from the residence of Mr. Taylor. She was committed to await a further hearing. Elizabeth was detained as a wincess. writ of Alias Venditioni Exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale or vendue, on MONDAY Evening, September 4, 1885, at 4 o'clock, at 8 ansom-street Hall.

SHARP PRACTICE.

The farmers, who, as a general thing, are honest in their transactions, are therefore the more easily victimized by designing men. Several instances of petty swindling were reported at the central station during the past week. The latest one was on Saturday. It seems that a couple of pretty well dressed young men stopped at a farmer's wagon near Market and Twelfth streets, and purchased fity pounds of butter, and twenty-two dozen of eggs. A card of the Mount Vernon Hotel was landed the farmer to direct him where to take the articles. The young men were in a hurry, but the farmer could not carry sil, conveniently. One of the young men said he would carry the oggs, while the farmer could convey the butter. While on the way to the hotel, the designing swindler with the eggs managed to elope, since which time he nor the eggs have not been heard of. The farmer having entered the hotel with his butter, waited a reasonable length of time for the arrival of the purchaser of the eggs, and at least five minutes had elapsed before he realized the important fact that he had been duped to the extent of twenty-two dozen of first-class eggs. The farmer said he didn't believe there was a "bad egg in the bull tot." He took his butter back to his wagon, and was of course a wiser, though sadder man.
