Horace Greeley says:

"A great many hooks will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give within a similar compass a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, 'tendencies, and instrumentabilities of the Slavcholders' Rebellion than does the impretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

containing 173 acres of land, not surpasced in fertility and productiveness by any in the country of New Castle. It is well fonced and watered throughout, with complete set of buildings, parity new, and all substantial. The FARM HOUSE is a double three-storied brick building. There are three large Burns, with fee-house, Granary, Tool-house, Oth-houses, Shedding, Stock Yard, &c., with abundant supply of excellent water from wells, with pump in good order. The property abuts upon the Christiana River, with excellent landing for steam of saling vessels, the Bank or Levee having lately been renewed and faced with stone, so as to be permanent without further outlay. The location of this property and the character of its soil especially adapt it to the production of regetables and fruit, for which like adjacent markets of Wilmington and Philadelphia create a coastant and growing demand. A large and profitable vegetable garden is mow in operation upon the farm, and the inducements for its increase is very great.

The place is perfectly healthy, and lies in the midst of a fertile district of well improved farms, intersected with expelient roads, and is within fifteen minutes drive of the stations of the Philadelphia and Baltimore and the Delaware Eathways, also Steamboats for Philadelphia.
