By A. D. Richardson, New York Tribune Corres-WARRANTED 200 YDS. WINDOW SHADES, 23 STRAWBERRY STREET. A YOUNG LADY DESIRES A SITU-ATION as Visiting or Resident GOVERNESS to teach the English branches and French. Address "M. B.," at this Office. OF THE LATEST PATTERNS. By A. D. Bichardson, New York Tythuns Uorrespondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribuns, at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and albox miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four boundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work published.

Horacc Grucley says:

"A great many books will yet he written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give within a suminar compass a cleaver, fuller, more resident account, entirely from personal observation, of the native, animus, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the Slavcholders' Rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson.

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find typed: larly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $175 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant.
