THE MISSON, New York Tribuns Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling through the South in the secret service of the Tribuns, at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebellion; his seape, and almost miraculous journey, by night, of nearly four hundred miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war than any other work published.

However the seaper way.

In the search of the war than any other work published.

However man addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give within a similar compass a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the Siaveholders' Rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of fur, Richardson."
